CORSETS

Do you realize how much your appearance depends on your figure and carriage, how much easier and more economical it is to dress and look well if your frame is fitted with a Corset made to fit with comfort and style.

The term "Natural figure" which is so often heard now-a-days in connection with the new Corset, should not mislead a woman into thinking that it means an uncorseted figure. That would be a dangerous fallacy. Physicians and Sergons agree that the body requires support of a good Corset.

In the new Corset the bust slightly higher, at the waist it is perfectly flat, at the front and back and shows the curve of the figure at the side. The hips is the normal size. Under the new full skirts there is no need to submit to discomfort to reduce the hips and make them abnormally small, for the same reason the Corset is not cut as long as in former seasons.

We carry for your approval two widely advertised Corsets. The Gossard Corset which laces in front also The Madam Grace Corset in both styles, front and back lace. Our Spring shipment has just arrived which includes the new flesh shades.

FIVE CAMBRIA COUNTY YOUNG MEN GRADUATE AT STATE COLLEGE
State College, Pa., June 14.—Four hundred and sixty young men and women were today graduated from the Pennsylvania State College with impressive ceremonies. The commencement exercises were held in the Schwab auditorium in the presence of more than 2000 relatives of the seniors, guests of the institution and college authorities.
Because of the time required to award the degrees, individually the usual commencement address was omitted, a departure unprecedented in the history of Penn State. The leading features of a full commencement week program included the following: The baccalaureate sermon was preached on Sunday by Bishop Edwin H. Hughes, of San Francisco; the cadet regiment was reviewed by Lieutenant F. K. Ross, Sixth Cavalry, U. S. A., a graduate of Penn State; two base ball games with the University of Pittsburgh, and a track and field meet with the same institution; the commencement performance of "Here and There" by the Thespians; alumni reunions by classes, ranging from '61 to 1915, and a score of house parties at the fraternity houses.
The following students from Cambria County were graduated with distinction:
Bachelor of Science in Dairy Husbandry—Howard C. Yerger, Jr., Patton.
Bachelor of Science in Agronomy—Karl D. Ludwig, Johnstown.
Bachelor of Science in Animal Husbandry—William L. Horner, Jr., Johnstown.
Bachelor of Science in Horticulture—Claude K. Ling, Johnstown.
Bachelor of Science in Forestry—Howard L. Belter, Wilmore.

PRISONER IDENTIFIED
That the supposed "H. L. Downing," who ineffectually tried to hold up the Curwensville bank on Friday noon of last week and was subsequently captured after a hot chase and landed in jail, is one other than D. O. Downing, of Tyrone, was clearly established Saturday when the man's family was located at their home on Park avenue at that place. Little was known of Downing's residence in Tyrone, he having only resided there for about four or five months. The family came there after the first of the year from Hannah, where they had occupied for some time the farm of Mrs. Downing's father, Samuel Hoover. Downing, tired of farm life, sold out his goods and came on to Tyrone and entered the retail meat business, purchasing the stock and fixtures in the meat shop corner of Tenth street and Washington avenue, which was operated by John Thompson and son Claire, who died from injuries received in an automobile accident. Downing kept the shop about a month and sold out again. Since that time he had dropped from public view, but it appears was employed in a blacksmith shop at Bald Eagle. He hailed originally from Half Moon valley, being the son of Robert Downing, and for some years the family lived on a farm near Vail. Members of his family state he has not been well for some time past and it is presumed that he was temporarily unbalanced of mind when he conspired to rob the bank.

20 YEARS YOUNGER ASSERTS WOMAN; DUE TO TANLAC
Marie Schulz Tells of Remarkable Recovery Through Using Master Medicine
"I feel twenty years younger and sleep like a log when I go to bed," said Marie Schulz, of Grantham St., North Side, Pittsburgh, Pa., "since I began to take Tanlac."
"I had suffered for a long time with rheumatism, gas in my stomach, shortness of breath and my bowels were always giving me trouble. I often went for days at a time without sleeping, because of my terrible nervous condition.
"So I got a bottle. I had no idea I would get such quick relief. After I had taken about half a bottle, the rheumatic pains left my limbs. My stomach got so good that I could eat my meals and never feel bad afterward. My bowels got regular. When I would lie down at night, my head would hardly touch the pillow until I would be fast asleep. When I awakened in the morning, I felt rested and could hardly believe it was myself."
"Since I have been taking Tanlac, I have not been troubled with gas pressing up against my heart, I eat what I please, I go out among the neighbors and visit them and my friends, and if I want to go to a theatre I go and have a nice time. I never am afraid of being sick any more."
Tanlac is now sold in Patton exclusively by Gunn's Drug Co., where the premier preparation can now be had.

NINE GRADUATES FROM SCHOOL AT GALLITZIN
The graduating class of 1916 of St. Patrick's school number nine, as follows: Misses May Bradley, Mercedes Burns, Leanna Condon, Angela Cronour, Helen McCheskey, and Gladys Troxell and Joseph A. Condon.
The school term closed Tuesday and the closing exercises will be held in St. Patrick's Church Sunday morning, June 18, after the late mass.
The Rev. Father J. J. Deas will present the diplomas and the program will include special music. The church will be decorated for the occasion.
