

NEW LEGISLATION FOR PHARMACISTS

The public will be greatly interested in proposed Drug Legislation which will be discussed at the coming meeting of the Pennsylvania Pharmaceutical Association, June 20, 21, 22, at Reading, Pa., with headquarters in the Berkshire Hotel.

The attendance will run well into the hundreds, composed of representative pharmacists from all sections of the state, and the discussion of legislative matters will occupy several sessions.

An Itinerant Vendors Bill will be up for consideration and as a similar bill only failed to pass by a few votes at the last session of the Legislature it is very likely that a strong bill will be favored that will control the manufacture and sale of patent medicines in this state, as many harmful nostrums are now made by ignorant and unscrupulous persons and peddled from door to door in rural districts.

It is not commonly known to the public that Pennsylvania Drug Laws are paradoxical, compelling druggists with a fixed place of business and great financial responsibility to be graduates of pharmacy and to have had four years of training before they are eligible to legally conduct a drug business, while any person, even one mentally deficient, or a moral pervert can compound patent medicines containing arsenic, strychnine, corrosive sublimate, or other dangerous drugs, and offer the poisonous mixture for sale and the only redress, the public would have would be a civil suit for damages after taking.

Another bill on the same lines for the public is the Formula Disclosure Bill, requiring manufacturers of all secret remedies, to either publish the formula upon the label, or file a copy of the same with a commission provided for that purpose, and if the law recently enacted in New York City is not declared unconstitutional, it is probably that the Pennsylvania Legislature will be asked to pass a law giving the public this additional protection.

A proposed amendment to the present pharmacy act will be discussed, providing for the recognition and registration of those having experience in hospital pharmacies and who are otherwise qualified and can pass the examination of the State

Pharmaceutical Examining Board, and also providing for compelling hospitals where prescriptions are compounded to have a registered pharmacist in charge.

As the Pennsylvania Pharmacy Law is now framed it only applies to the registration of pharmacists who are engaged in the retail drug business, and it is believed to be in the interest of the public that the preparation of all medicines be carried on under the supervision of skilled registered pharmacists.

Other Legislation to be discussed will be Coupon and Trading Stamp Bills, and the Stevens-Asbury Price Maintenance Bill now under consideration in our National Legislature, both of which bills are in the interest of the general public in providing for better merchandising conditions, and less humbug in advertising.

These topics will be only part of a varied programme for discussion and action, and it is believed that this meeting will be one of the most interesting that the Association has had in the thirty-nine years of its existence.

J. E. THOMPSON KILLS A MONSTER BUG

From The Cambria Freeman

Groceryman John E. Thompson on Wednesday while cutting off a hand of bananas, caught a monster banana bug. Just as he was reaching his hand in the bunch to pull off the bananas, the bug, quick as lightning, started up through the stock and climbed on the cord that held the bunch. Mr. Thompson did not lose any time in dispatching the venomous bug that had franked his way into Ebsenburg and he now lies "in state" in the show window of the store. The bug looks like a miniature turtle and will measure easily five inches in length. It is one of the kind of bugs that is filled with a deadly poison and the bite of which means sure death to the victim. They are apt to be found in any bunch of bananas and as they cannot be easily detected because of the similarity of color between the banana stems and the bug, therefore it would behoove and dealer in this tropical fruit to be on the alert for the deadly creatures.

Baptist Church

At the Baptist Church worship at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M., in the morning Pastor E. G. Zwiener will preach on the subject "Who is My Neighbor?" In the evening the Pastor and the other delegates to the Clearfield Baptist Association will give accounts of the things they saw and heard at the convention. This will be very interesting as the associational gathering was one of the most progressive and helpful ever held. Sunday school at 2:30 P. M., and Young People's meeting at 6:45 P. M. general prayer meeting Wednesday at 7:45 P. M. Everybody welcome to all meetings.

Sunday School and worship at the Chapel at Riley's at 10:30 A. M. and preaching services Friday at 7:40 P. M. All who live in that neighborhood are cordially invited.

On Monday evening there will be a social held in the Primary room of the church. Plenty of good things to eat and a good time. Everybody invited.

Children's Day last Sunday was a splendid success. The ladies had decorated the church beautifully with flowers and with the school colors. The choir never rendered better music, the children and young people knew their parts perfectly and all spoke out clearly so that the large congregation listened with perfect attention throughout the service. The emblematic piece at the close was a fitting climax to the splendid programme. The offering taken was for Sunday school missions. A Sunday school that can render such a programme proves itself to be a school in which officers, teachers and pupils are all enthusiastic and professed.

The date for the picnic this year is Thursday August tenth. This is always one of the great events of the season in Patton.

Methodist Church

The Sunday School at 10:00 is well attended and the enrollment will grow when you who are not enrolled in any school will be one of us. Class meeting at 9:00. This meeting gives a spiritual tone to the day and helps those who attend to attain a higher standard of Christian living. Preaching services at 11:00 and 7:30. The morning subject will be the Church at Corinth, and the evening theme Heroes of the Faith.

You will find a cordial welcome at any of all services.

Bert A. Salkor, Pastor.

Presbyterian Church

Public worship Sabbath morning at 10:30. Sermon subject: "The Ground of Justification." Evening service at 7:30: "The Thyatira Letter," the fourth of the letters to the Seven Churches in Asia.

Sabbath School at 11:45 A. M. Mid-week Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at eight o'clock.

A cordial invitation to attend these services is extended to all.

Rev. D. S. Schnebly, Minister.

ST. FRANCIS' COLLEGE EXERCISES AT ALTOONA

Annual Commencement will be held June 21, when 23 will graduate Loretto, June 10.—The annual commencement exercises of St. Francis' College will be held in Mishler Theater, Altoona, on Wednesday evening, June 21, when six young men who have completed the arts course in the college department, 11 others who have completed the academic course of four years, and six graduates of the commercial department will be presented with diplomas. In addition to the presentation of the degrees and diplomas, the various medals will be awarded for general excellence in every class in every department. There are special medals for superiority in particular subjects. Two medals most eagerly coveted for are the Canole medal for Latin, which has been donated by Father Michael Canole, of St. Leo's Church Altoona, and the Egan medal for general scholarship in the college offered by Father James B. Egan, pastor of St. Mark's Church Altoona. The Rt. Rev. Eugene A. Garvey, D. D., will preside. The address to the graduates will be given by the Rev. Father James B. Egan. Four addresses will be made by the graduates. An orchestra and glee club will furnish music.

A WARNING TO PEDESTRIANS

Justice Von Moschrisler lays down no new principle of law when he says that pedestrians have special rights at street crossings and that in using highways in general or crossing streets between corners they must take unusual pains to look out for their safety. This position has been held by the courts for many years, but the opinion is of importance just now because the great number of automobiles has made the highways more dangerous to pedestrians than formerly. Already this year more than 50 lives have been lost in Philadelphia by automobiles, but this does not mean that the fatalities were all the fault of the drivers. On the contrary, many or most of them seem to have been the fault of the victims themselves.

As these cases are constantly coming up in the courts it is well for pedestrians and automobiles alike to know just what the law is as laid down by our Supreme Court. It is this:

The law requests that every person shall take due care for the safety of himself and others, according to the circumstances in which he is placed. Vehicles have the right of way on the portion of the highway set aside for them, but at crossings all drivers, particularly of motor vehicles, must be highly vigilant and maintain such control that on the shortest possible notice they can stop their cars so as to prevent danger to pedestrians; on the other hand, between crossings drivers are not held to the same high standard of care, although, of course, they must be constantly on the lookout for the safety of others.

This is the embodiment of common sense. Most of the accidents to pedestrians take place some distance from the corners. Unfortunately, too many of the victims are children who run and play in the streets as if they were private property. Parents have a tremendous responsibility in that matter and the situation is all the more serious because so large a portion of the population have no private yards large enough for taking exercise. At the same time everyone is aware that there are a great many reckless drivers of automobiles in the cities and the wonder is that accidents are not more numerous. Most persons of mature age have learned to be careful at crossings and they are not going to depend alone on the law which compels drivers to be careful.

DONATIONS MADE

Mothers' Pension Trustees Receiving Reply to Appeal

Several large contributions have been received by the trustees of the mothers' pension fund of Cambria county as a result of the appeal recently sent out. The women in charge of the work are anxious that the full sum asked for—$1,000—be received, as this amount will be needed to carry on the work in the county until the next meeting of the legislature, when an appropriation will be made for the expenses of operation in the various counties of the state.

The work in Cambria county has demonstrated the necessity for an appropriation will be made for the expenses of operation in the various counties of the state.

The work in Cambria county has demonstrated the necessity for an appropriation for operating expenses. While the board of trustees is composed entirely of volunteer workers, it is necessary to have a paid investigator in order that every case may be thoroughly inquired into before aid is given. The additional appropriation recently granted must all be used for the work of relief. This makes it imperative that money for expenses be secured through public subscription.

With only a few persons to whom appeals were sent so far heard from the trustees acknowledge the following contributions.

Members of Ebsenburg Presbyterian church, $5.37
T. Stanton Davis, $100.00
Horace A. Tompkins, $25.00
Harry B. Hooley, $25.00
James A. McClain, Barnesboro, $25.00
George M. Wertz, $20.00
Herman T. Jones, $10.00.
