MEXICO SERVES NOTICE OF WAR

CARRANZA COMMANDER UNDER ORDERS WARNS PERSHING

WASHINGTON IS ALARMED

Any Advance Toward the South Will Be Considered Hostile Movement to be Met With Armed Resistance—Capture Bandits.

Chihuahua, Mexico.—General Jacinto Trevino, commanding the Carranza army of the north, advised General J. J. Pershing, American expeditionary commander, that any movement of American troops from the present lines to the south, east or west would be considered a hostile act and a signal to commence warfare. General Trevino acted upon specific instructions from Carranza.

General Trevino announced he has received a communication from General Pershing of the recent order nullifying any agreement made with General Gabriel Gaviira.

Won't Permit Bandit Chase. Laredo, Texas.—Reports that any American military attempt to cross the Rio Grande in the Nuevo Laredo district in pursuit of bandits would meet with energetic resistance, were confirmed here on what is believed to be unimpeachable authority. Carranza troops in Nuevo Laredo, it is said, have instructions to put up an energetic fight to resist any possible crossing into Mexico of American forces regardless of the cause.

MEXICANS PREPARE FOR WAR

El Paso, Tex.—Following the invasion of Mexico by American troops near Laredo, in pursuit of Mexican bandits who raided a ranch in Texas near that point, placards appeared in Juarez inviting all citizens of the Mexican town to meet at 5:30 each evening in the plaza to receive military instructions of arms. The notice, which is in Spanish and is signed by Jesus Valdez, asks all citizens to practice "in order to be prepared in the event that there is a break with the United States."

El Paso, Tex.—Distribution of rifles took place upon invitation and under supervision of the commanding officer of the Juarez garrison. He acted, so far as it could be learned, upon direct instructions from General Jacinto Trevino, commander of the Northern zone. Trevino's instructions, it is also understood, came directly from War Minister Obregon.

Wilson and Marshall Democratic Nominees

Named by Acclamation at Night Session, No Ballots Taken—Speeches Short

BRYAN CALLED ON FOR A SPEECH

Nominations Made by Judge Westcott of New Jersey and Senator Kern. Robert Emmett Burke of Illinois was the Only Delegate Opposing Choice of the President.

St. Louis.—President Wilson and Vice President Marshall were nominated by acclamation by the Democratic national convention.

Contrary to expectations, however, the convention did not finish its work because the platform was not ready.

There never was any doubt of President Wilson's nomination, but there was a possibility that some vice presidential booms might be brought out in opposition to Vice President Marshall. They melted away, however, when the convention got in session and as soon as President Wilson's nomination had been made by a roaring chorus of acclamation, which lasted for 45 minutes, Senator Kern, who renominated Mr. Marshall, cast aside a long prepared speech and simply declared:

"I nominate Thomas Riley Marshall of Indiana for vice president."

To Wilson's nomination there was only one dissenting vote, that of Robert Emmett Burke, of Illinois, who came to the convention announcing that he was opposed to the President.

When Judge Westcott, of New Jersey, had placed the President in renomination and the nomination had been seconded by former Governor

Woodrow Wilson and Thomas R. Marshall

Harrison, of Ohio, and Governor Stuart of Virginia, the delegates wanted to wait no longer, and cried, "Vote, vote."

Both on Same Vote.

On motion of Senator Hughes, of New Jersey, the rules were suspended and no ballots whatever were taken. The delegates simply roared "Aye!" when the names of Wilson and Marshall were called, and Chairman James declared them nominated by acclamation.

Resolutions were then read and adopted, appointing Chairman James and former Governor Glynn, of New York, chairmen of committees, respectively, to notify the President and vice president of their nomination.

President Grateful.

Washington.—President Wilson was notified at 1 o'clock by Secretary Tumulty that he and Vice President Marshall had been nominated. His only comment was: "I am very grateful to my generous friends."

Calls for Bryan Answered.

Thursday night Chairman James rapped the convention to order at 9:15 o'clock. Rev. W. J. Hardesty, chaplain of the Missouri Senate, offered prayer.

The crowd yielded to the rapping of the gavel long enough to hear the prayer and then demanded a speech from Bryan.

A committee headed by Senator Kern, of Indiana, escorted Mr. Bryan to the speaker's place. Senator James introduced Mr. Bryan as "one of the leading citizens of the world and America's greatest Democrat."

Mr. Bryan spoke for 45 minutes, thanking the convention for the honor accorded him by its invitation and paying tribute to the President, his administration and to many personal friends.

Harrisburg.—Vance C. McCormick accepted election as chairman of the Democratic national committee and resigned as director of the Federal Reserve Bank of the Philadelphia district.

RUSS TAKE CZERNOWITZ

Important Occupation Effected by the Czar's Army.

London.—After hard fighting in the suburbs and on the River Pruth, where the Austrians fought desperately with a view to gaining time for the evacuation of Czernowitz by their army and the removal of military stores from the city, General Lechnitzky has finally entered the capital of Bukovina. The capture is an important one, as it entails the command of several important railway lines.

The recapture of Czernowitz by the Russians comes at a dramatic moment, it happening only a few days after the Austrians with imposing ceremony had paraded in the city hall a double-headed Austrian eagle such as the Russians had removed during their occupation of the city last year.

PRESIDENT LEADS PARADE

Chief Executive on Foot First Time in History.

Washington.—For the first time in history a President of the United States marched on foot in historic Pennsylvania avenue as a participant in a propaganda parade.

Facts Versus Fallacies

FACT is a real state of things. FALLACY is an apparently genuine but really illogical statement or argument.

ALABAMA is a Prohibition State. It was made Prohibition by its Legislature, and this, too, in the face of the FACT that the people of Alabama have three times gone on record at the polls, as opposed to Prohibition.

BUT the Legislature made Alabama "dry," and it was confidently said that the citizens of Alabama would pay less taxes in consequence—that an era of prosperity would come—and that the land would be overflowing with milk and honey instead of with alcoholic beverages.

WHAT has, in reality, come to pass is this: When Governor Jelks of Alabama, anti-prohibitionist, retired from office eight years ago—in 1907—he left a surplus of $1,900,000 in the State treasury, and with all outstanding obligations paid. His successor was a prohibitionist, and before the prohibitionist Governor relinquished his reins of office, the surplus had disappeared, and in its place was a deficit of more than a million dollars in the revenues of the State.

THE present Legislature has already made appropriations that are $3,000,000 in excess of the revenues for the present fiscal year, and Governor Henderson says that prohibition cannot possibly last through another Legislature!

HERE then is shown the wide difference between prohibition's Promise and Performance. It is a common FALLACY to promise that prohibition means lower taxes and increased prosperity, when it is a FACT—as shown by Alabama's figures—that seven years ago Alabama as a "wet" State had a surplus of $1,900,000, and today, as a "dry" State has a deficit of $3,000,000.

PROHIBITION has cost Alabama $5,000,000 in seven years' time!

"Dry" Alabama Deficit $3,000,000
