NEWS OF TWENTY-ONE YEARS AGO

Taken from the Patton Courier Jan. 16, 1896.

A BOY HURT

On Monday afternoon Lewis Brant, a boy about nine years old, whose home is about two miles east of Patton, while riding on top of a large sled load of bark lost his balance and fell to the frozen ground inflicting an ugly wound on his head. He was taken to his home and a physician summoned, who worked with the little fellow several hours before he gained consciousness. It is reported that his condition is quite serious.

HURT IN THE MINES

Peter Croin, a Frenchman, who is an employe at the Ashcroft colliery received several serious injuries Thursday by fall of rock in that mine, while on duty, which will necessitate his confinement to the house for several weeks. His injuries consist of three scalp wounds, right wrist broken, body terribly lacerated and injured internally. He is a married man and formerly lived in Hastings. This was the first day he worked in the Ashcroft colliery, as he was only employed the night before. Dr. Worrell the attending physician reports the case as serious.

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS ELECTED

The stockholders of the Patton Clay Manufacturing Company held a meeting Tuesday in the office of Chest Springs Land and Improvement Co., for the purpose of effecting a permanent organization under their charter. Following are the officers: Geo. S. Good, president; W. H. Sandford, secretary and treasurer; James Kerr, A. E. Patton, E. C. Brown, F. E. Ellfresh, G. S. Good, directors; F. E. McElfresh, general manager.

DEATH OF JACOB BUCK

Jacob Buck died at his home near Chest Springs on Monday, Jan. 6th, of consumption, aged about 64 years. He was the father of 14 children, ten of whom with their mother survive him. He is also survived by three brothers, John and Frank, of Carrolltown, and W. J., of near Loretto, all of whom are known. John, being ex-sheriff of the county. His remains were interred in St. Monica's cemetery, Chest Springs, on Wednesday.

LOST A FINGER

On Friday morning, B. J. M. Rounsley, well-known young man of Patton, met with a painful accident in which his left hand was severely injured, necessitating the amputation of his second finger below the second joint, and nearly losing his third finger. Dr. Weida dressed the injuries and at the present writing Mr. Rounsley is nursing a very painful hand.
