

BARNESBORO ITEMS

Spring began yesterday.

Jack Fuller, of Hillsdale, is visiting among friends in town.

J. Baron of the Family Shoe Store, is spending a week with friends in Altoona.

Mr. Harry Barclaugh attended the funeral of Mrs. Arthur Moore at Belle Vernon on Saturday.

Mrs. W. P. Greits and daughter, Miss Jane, returned home yesterday from a visit among friends in New Jersey.

R. M. Weakland and family have moved from Cymbria to Greenwich, where Mr. Weakland is employed as a stationary engineer.

Mrs. Walter Dubler, of Oswego, New York, returned home today after a pleasant visit with Mrs. F. B. Wood and Mrs. D. F. Griest, in Barnesboro.

J. R. Hill spent last Thursday and Friday in Altoona being in attendance at the convention of the Central Penna. organized bible students' association.

Morris Freeman, who has been assisting with the recent big sale in the Cohen department store at Altoona, has returned to his home in Barnesboro.

A committee of the boosters of the Old Portage Road called on the County Commissioners today, in an endeavor to get the Commissioners interest on the old Main Line Road from Lamb's Bridge to Gallitzin.

A typical equinoctial storm swept this section from Saturday until Tuesday. Saturday and Sunday about an inch of snow fell, accompanied by high northwest winds. The rise in temperature Tuesday and Wednesday, however, give things a more spring-like appearance.

D. L. Owens, steward of the county home, has been one of the busiest men in the north of the county during the past winter. Last week he harbored upwards of 200 persons at the institution. This evening he stated that the home now contains 196 persons, including 25 children.

The new ladies' exclusive furnishing store, under the ownership of Mr. Lipman, will be formally opened to the public on Saturday. The store is one of the best appointed and modern in this part of the state devoted entirely to ladies' outfitting. The public is cordially invited to inspect the new store.

C. M. Hoover, of Huntingdon, was a visitor in Barnesboro on Monday.

J. M. Good, of Cherry Tree was a business visitor in town on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Newman had as their guest on Sunday Mr. Sam Goldstein, of Portage.

Walter Sherwin, of North Barnesboro, spent part of the week with his sister at Greenwich.

Mrs. J. F. Crago departed yesterday morning for an extended visit at her former home in Houtzdale.

Mrs. H. E. Bair and daughter, Miss Jeanne, are spending a few days among friends in Johnstown and Crescon.

The wholesale liquor license of Polo C. Azzara, of Barnesboro, for the Crescon establishment, which was held up for a time, was granted last Saturday.

Morris Ratowaky has returned from Mount Union after working there for some time. He expects to stay with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ratowaky, after which he will go to Altoona to work in the machine shops there.

Rev. G. A. Duvall departed on Tuesday morning for Lewistown to attend the annual Pennsylvania Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church. The sessions opened formally yesterday morning and will continue for about six days. Rev. Charles Williams will preach in the Methodist church on Sunday morning.

A party of about 20 members of the local Knights of Pythias attended a meeting of the fraternity at Patton on Monday evening. The Patton members conferred the third degree in their splendid new regalia that replaced the equipment burned in the fire in January. A sumptuous banquet was served after the meeting.

Messrs. Harrington and Allen, evangelists, who conducted the recent campaign in the Baptist church, of Barnesboro, have opened a campaign in Cookport. Report from that district states that successful meetings are being held, with the whole community contributing to the record-breaking crowds that nightly greet the evangelists' workers.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hall, of Colorado Springs, Colorado, spent a few days during the week at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Silvers, of North Barnesboro. Mrs. Hall was formerly Miss Ruth Slinger and is known to a host of friends in this vicinity. She and her husband departed this morning for Chibi, South America, where Mr. Hall has been assigned to a handsome appointment in the interests of the Electrical department of the Gagetheimer Copper Co. of New York City.

A copy of a publication entitled "Behind the Lines" has been received by Mr. David Karp, it having been sent by his friend, David Wolfe, formerly a well-known man in Barnesboro. The magazine is issued on the European War Front and is sent out bi-monthly. Mr. Wolfe has been in active service in the No. 10 stationary hospital, of the British Expeditionary force, for some time, and in the magazine sent his name is given honorable mention on account of having been awarded the Order of St. George, while with a unit at the front. The magazine is a well designed publication with a colored cover bearing the seal of the Royal Army Medical Corps. Mr. Wolfe's many old-time friends in Barnesboro will be glad to hear of his success in the service.

Mr. and Mrs. John Douglas had a birthday surprise party, in the form of a chicken and waffle supper, on the occasion of the 21st birthday of their son, Charles, at the family home near Cookport, last Thursday evening. Besides a large gathering of friends from near home, the following from a distance were present: Mr. and Mrs. John Gromley, Edgar, Cecil and Thomas Gromley, of Marion Center; Thomas Williams, of Pittsburgh and Mrs. Jacob Gastley, of Barnesboro.

"THE BLUE PARADISE"

With a musical score ripping with pretty melodies, a compelling interesting story of romantic delight, an exceptional cast of principals and a beauty chorus numbering almost 100 persons, the Messrs. Shubert will present "The Blue Paradise," most enchanting and satisfying of Viennese operettas, at the Mishler theatre, Altoona, on Friday March 30th, Matinee and Evening. This delightful entertainment has recently concluded a record-breaking run of one whole year at the Casino theatre, New York, where crowded houses of enthusiastic auditors confirmed the verdict of the professional critics that "The Blue Paradise" will rival in popularity any light operatic offering of the past twenty years.

Its scenes are laid at the Ring Hotel and the famous Blue Paradise Inn in Vienna, the story of the operetta is told in two acts and a prologue. Rudolph Stoeger, a gay young blade, is, at the opening of the play, giving at the inn a farewell banquet, prior to his departure for America and he must leave behind his three boon companions, and a secret sweetheart, Mizzi, a fascinating little flower girl. Twenty-four years later, rich and renowned Stoeger returns to Vienna only to find that Mizzi has married and has a daughter, Gaby, who is a perfect image of the Mizzi Rudolph had loved in his youth.

Pau Nicholson, Miss Norton, Chas. Bowers, Juliette Lange, Gustav Bac, Gypsy Dale, Charles Derickson, and Robert Lee Allen are prominent in the cast of principals and a large chorus comprises a bevy of real singers and dancers. The Messrs. Shubert have given "The Blue Paradise" a lavish scenic setting and the costumes are brilliant in the extreme. The company is equipped with its own special orchestra.

MONUMENTS

The custom of marking burial places is a beautiful one, and as old as human kind.

Barre Granite and Vermont Marble are the most appropriate materials for this purpose because of their beauty, stability and permanence.

The New Edison

THE PHONOGRAPH WITH A SOUL

The wonderful new Edison invention is positively the only sound-reproducing instrument which literally re-creates music—in other words, which gives a result undistinguishable from the artist's voice or instrumental performance.

The Art of Being a Man

Sometimes we talk as if getting on the good side of people was rather a selfish operation. Unpopular young folks are very likely to turn up their noses and speak contemptuously of those who have the faculty of making a pleasant impression on strangers. But the art is not necessarily a selfish one, even though self interest urges us to master it. One must be fairly endowed indeed to make a success if he has not learned the primary ability to persuade them to look at things from his standpoint. But that is not all of it, by any means. A good example loses much of its force unless it is linked to an engaging personality. Good counsel is not likely to be taken, if offered by those we dislike. In order to help those about you, it is necessary that you should know something of human nature and the causes which produce the effect you are after. To be a good physician, a good teacher, a good business man, or a successful philanthropist, you must be something of an adept in the art of handling men.

Diamond Saw

To provide a means for cutting very hard stone, a saw with diamond teeth has been constructed by a French firm. The stones are common crystals worth about $3.50 a karat, and they are fixed in a steel disk over six feet in diameter, which is mounted on a spindle and revolved by electric power. There are 200 diamonds on the cutting edge, and the speed is 100 revolutions a minute. The saw does the work of cutting and dressing stone for ornamental building purposes at one tenth the cost of hand labor.

Recipes

Beans in French Way—For each pound allow a small teaspoonful and soak them overnight in water. Next day completely cover the beans with fresh cold water in a casserole or saucepan, adding more when necessary, but at the end not much liquid should remain unabsorbed. When they have cooked gently in the oven or by the side of the fire for an hour add salt to taste. For a dish to serve three or four, knead together with a knife on a plate a good tablespoonful of flour (preferably browned flour and as much butter or bacon fat as will form a soft paste. This stir in in small pieces as soon as the beans are soft, and season with pepper before serving the beans as a substitute for meat. Two or three fried rashers of bacon may be cut into dice and mixed with the beans at the moment of service those who must have animal food in some form.

Probably Not

Jealous women called her silly. But she always had a bonnet. And she married some rich Willie. Was she silly?
I guess.
—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Gentle Maid

"Are you in love with young Smith?"
"In love! I despise him."
"But I saw him kiss you good night."
"Oh, I couldn't be rude."
—Polk.

Brought Her to Town

"Ferdie is a mean boy. To tease him I refused to give him a kiss over the wire."
"Well."
"He immediately asked the telephone girl to give him some other number."
—Kansas City Journal.

She Didn't Mind Telling It

"Does your husband talk in his sleep?"
"No; he talks in other people's sleep. He's a bore, you know."
—Chicago News.

Her Training

She's quite a famous novelist. She writes best selling books. She got her start on fiction. Writing references for her cooks.
—Boston Transcript.

He Knew That

"What is the chief mineral wealth of the Alleghenies?"
"Dunno, mum."
"Yes, you do. What do you carry in a scuttle?"
"Suds, mum."
—Louisville Courier-Journal.

A Real Uprising

"There is no uplift about this establishment."
"Yes, there is. It has both freight and passenger elevators."
—Baltimore American.

MANY LIKE THIS IN EACH ISSUE

The following case is but one of many occurring daily in Pennsylvania. It is an easy matter to verify it. You cannot ask for better proof of merit. Mrs. G. S. Boyer, Factor, says: "I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for an exceptionally fine medicine for pains across the back and other ailments, caused by weak kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills lived up to their reputation by giving me quick relief from the backache and other ailments."

More than six years later, Mrs. Boyer said: "The benefit Doan's Kidney Pills brought me, has been permanent. I can't say too much for Doan's Kidney Pills, as they can be depended on to cure kidney complaint." Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Boyer has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
