

Will Give Benefit Play

Monday, Wednesday and Thursday, the second and third at the Grand Theatre, the curtain will rise to a benefit play for the benefit of the...

PRESENTED WITH GOLD WATCH

E. J. Cleave, who has retired as superintendent of the Cresson division of the P. E. R., was presented with a gold watch and chain at noon last Thursday by employees of the Cresson division car shop, roundhouse and office.

NOTICE TO POST OFFICE PATRONS

Your attention is courteously called to the fact that the telephone in the Post Office is not intended to be used by the patrons to inquire for mail during the hours of distribution.

HELP THE BAND BOYS

The home talent play "Under Two Flags" which will be staged on May 2nd and 3rd is worthy of the patronage of the entire community.

"BOUGHT AND PAID FOR"

As a play, this was the biggest hit to appear on Broadway in years. The movie extensive resources of the motion picture version have greatly enlarged and improved the already masterful piece and will make of this production a masterpiece.

MRS. MARY ANN HAMMOND OF PATTON DIES, AGED 88

Mrs. Mary Ann Hammond, widow of John Hammond, died at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bart Young, of Patton, Pa., on Thursday evening, aged 88 years.

NOTICE TO CHAUTAUQUA GUARANTORS

Miss Jane Stewart Hamilton, representing the Chautauqua Association of Pennsylvania, Swarthmore Pa., will be in Patton on Thursday evening, May 3 and desires an interview with the guarantors of the Chautauqua as well as others interested in the success of the movement.

RECENT PATTON VISITORS

The following people were registered at the Palmer House recently: W. S. Long, Elmira, N. Y.; Chas. Bloom, Johnstown, Pa.; H. B. Wolfe, Altoona, Pa.; Geo. I. Dunagan, Philadelphia, Pa.; Joe J. Price, Youngstown, Ohio; J. E. O'Neil, Rochester, N. Y.; J. C. Kearney, Rochester, N. Y.; L. W. G. Vanden Berg, N. Y.; Kell, N. Y.; and Mrs. V. Clark, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Smith Married to Hastings Lady

A pretty home wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Van Dusen, at Hastings, last Monday evening, when their daughter, Miss May Elizabeth Van Dusen was united in marriage to Dr. Herbert Richard Smith, of Barnesboro, Pa.

BENDEL-GUYER

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Guyer in Spangler borough, when Miss Odessa Guyer, both parties being residents of the Spangler borough, about 12:30 o'clock the bride and groom departed for Washington, D. C. and will spend a honeymoon in Eastern and Southern cities.

BOSTROM-BROWN WEDDING

Mr. Leonard Bostrom, of Detroit, Michigan, and Miss Clara Brown, of Barnesboro, were united in marriage at 10:30 o'clock on Wednesday at the home of Mr. Bostrom in a waiting room at the depot in Barnesboro.

MARRIED AT HASTINGS

Leroy Sempt and Savilla Eckerd, each aged 16, were married at St. Bernard's Catholic church last Thursday morning, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Father Gabriel. The bridegroom is an employe of the Red Top Coal Company. They will reside in Hastings.

CIVIC CLUB IMPROVING THE BOROUGH

The Civic Club has distributed a goodly number of waste cans about the town in places where litter has previously been accumulating over the streets and sidewalks.

BIG DANCE FOR BENEFIT OF ITALIAN RED CROSS

The Italians of this community will hold a big dance Saturday night in the Miners' hall for the benefit of the Italian Red Cross Society. The orchestra of this place will furnish the music.

CATTLE MUST NOT RUN AT LARGE

Now that all available ground is being taken up for gardens it is only just that cattle should be pastured on otherwise restricted from running at large. Many of the small gardens will not have fences neither will there be tenants close by to prevent cattle from destroying the produce, which will take time and therefore it is up to the town people owning stock to keep them within their own rights.

Barnesboro Club Had 'Bal Brilliante'

With the National colors gorgeously decorating the Fridman Hall, the Phi Delta Gamma Club conducted one of the most successful dances of the season there on Monday night. The most hearty, good fellowship prevailed throughout the entire evening, every dance seeing the floor well filled; and the orchestra responded to repeated encores. A banquet, comprising all the choicest seasonable viands, was served at midnight.

FIGURES EXAGGERATED

Philadelphia, April 24.—At a meeting of the Philadelphia Lager Beer Brewers Association held this afternoon the recent newspaper statement that six hundred million bushels of grain were consumed annually by the Liquor Industry was discussed and the figures denounced as being grossly exaggerated and without foundation of fact.

In The Churches

Public worship Sabbath morning at 10:30. Subject, "Eggs Glorify the Study of God." Evening worship at 7:30.

TRINITY METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. Robert C. Peters, Pastor 9:30 A. M.—Class meeting. 10:30 A. M.—Morning worship. Theme, "Walking With God."

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

At the Baptist Church worship at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. This Sunday has been appointed by the Northern Baptist Convention as Denominational Day.

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH

At the Calvary Chapel Sunday School at 10:30 A. M. Everybody enjoys this bright cheerful service. Preaching by Pastor Zwyer at 11:15 P. M. Bible study and prayer meeting Friday at 7:30 P. M.

BAPTISMS

Last Sunday evening a large and deeply interested congregation witnessed the baptism of Miss Sarah Walker and Miss Deborah Medgett. Mr. Zwyer spoke on "The Power of the Resurrection."

GARDENING URGED BY THE SCHOOLS

The State Board of Education, convinced of the imperative need of husbanding all the resources of the Commonwealth, urges upon the school officials and the great army of pupils who have talent of capacity for service of any type, the patriotic duty of making their contribution in this hour of national need.

ROSE STAHL

When it was first announced that Rose Stahl was to play a department store girl "Magie Pepper," there was a general uprising of these girls in all the large stores in New York, Chicago, and Philadelphia.

70TH ANNIVERSARY OF PATHER KITTELL

The Rev. Father Ferdinand Kittell, rector of St. Michael's Catholic parish at Loritto, was 70 years of age yesterday. He was reminded of the anniversary in a number of ways, although no celebration was planned and none was held.

HOME TALENT PLAY TO BE GIVEN AT HASTINGS

The local talent play, entitled "College Days," which scored such a success last Wednesday night in the Barnesboro Opera House, under the auspices of the Cymaria Band, will be given soon at Hastings. A splendid evening's entertainment in 8 acts, including many specialties, and music by a magnificent array of local talent forms the program.

TWO OF THE WORLD'S GREATEST STARS

Mary Pickford and Annet Steward will appear at the Grand theatre Monday and Tuesday of next week—Mary Pickford in "The Eagle's Mate," Annet Steward in "The Combat." Come and judge for yourself as to which is the best.

DR. SOARS IN TOWN

Rev. C. A. Soars D. D., Secretary of the Pennsylvania Baptist State Mission Society spent Tuesday visiting Mr. Zwyer with whom he was a classmate at the Seminary. While here he visited the new Chapel which he had not seen since it was finished.

BIG FIRE SALE

A big Fire Sale in the building of the Lovejoy Apparel Company on Beech avenue, near the Miners' Rest Hotel, beginning Tuesday, May 1st until Saturday May 5th. Everything must be sold and it will pay to give us a call as we can save you money.

Charity Ball For Hospital Benefit

Arrangements have just been completed for the Annual Charity Ball of the Miner's Hospital, Spangler, Pa., at Sunset Park on Wednesday, June 6, 1917. The famous Russian Orchestra of Pittsburgh will be here for this occasion. This is one of the greatest musical organizations in the country and this will be their first appearance in this section of the State.

ROSE STAHL

When it was first announced that Rose Stahl was to play a department store girl "Magie Pepper," there was a general uprising of these girls in all the large stores in New York, Chicago, and Philadelphia.

HOME TALENT PLAY TO BE GIVEN AT HASTINGS

The local talent play, entitled "College Days," which scored such a success last Wednesday night in the Barnesboro Opera House, under the auspices of the Cymaria Band, will be given soon at Hastings. A splendid evening's entertainment in 8 acts, including many specialties, and music by a magnificent array of local talent forms the program.

TWO OF THE WORLD'S GREATEST STARS

Mary Pickford and Annet Steward will appear at the Grand theatre Monday and Tuesday of next week—Mary Pickford in "The Eagle's Mate," Annet Steward in "The Combat." Come and judge for yourself as to which is the best.

DR. SOARS IN TOWN

Rev. C. A. Soars D. D., Secretary of the Pennsylvania Baptist State Mission Society spent Tuesday visiting Mr. Zwyer with whom he was a classmate at the Seminary. While here he visited the new Chapel which he had not seen since it was finished.

BIG FIRE SALE

A big Fire Sale in the building of the Lovejoy Apparel Company on Beech avenue, near the Miners' Rest Hotel, beginning Tuesday, May 1st until Saturday May 5th. Everything must be sold and it will pay to give us a call as we can save you money.

Philip Chait