LETTER FROM WELLWOOD WINSLOW

The following letter, taken from the Brookville Republican was written by a Patton boy, E. Wellwood Winslow, to his aunt, Mrs. Norman Stuart, who is secretary of the Brookville Chapter of the American Red Cross. "Bud" is stationed at Newport, R. I., and the letter is of recent date:

4-6 Co., U. S. N.
Newport, R. I.
Sunday evening.

Dear Aunt Lena:
At last I have gotten time to write to you after being here ten days today. Time is very precious here and we write just when we find time. Last Saturday we received our outfit which consist of the following: Two woolen blankets, mattress, cot, two white uniforms, two hats, sweater, sweater cap, shoes, boots, socks, leggings, four pair hose, three suits of underwear, bag, two turkish towels, hair brushes, comb, tooth brush, shoe polish, pencils, pen and points, and last but not least, scrub brush and soap.

After being in detention for three days we were vaccinated and inoculated for the first time. Have to be inoculated two more times. Moved to our present quarters, where we will stay until we leave. Go to bed at nine and rise at five, take shower bath, clean up our barracks, dress, roll call, breakfast at 6:30 and drill until eight, when we start to free, which is done until twelve. We have fifteen minutes intermission at the end of each hour to rest. At twelve we eat—EAT again and go to bed. After which our time is our own until nine o'clock when we have to go to bed. After 3:30 we play ball, pitch quoits, wash our clothes and write letters or other detail work, which makes the time fly.

Washing our clothes is a new wrinkle to me. We do not have washing machines, wringers or tubs. Nothing but a scrub brush, soap and water, and a concrete floor. You would be surprised how clean we get them. Have to put on a clean outfit every day and it is supposed to be spotless. Have clothes inspection once a week and never know when it is coming. I would sooner be clean than dirty and I am some wash lady. At first I was a little discouraged and did not think I would like it, but as the days roll by it gets better and better.

We have a fine bunch of fellows in our camp and have a fine time. I found some of the Patton boys here and am quite at home. Have a Victrola in our barracks, dance, sing and do everything to be merry. The Y. M. C. A. is very handy and every night there is something to amuse us there such as concerts, musicals, speeches, etc. Have an open air movie and at the end of each picture the orchestra plays and we sing and dance. It is a novelty to dance with a boy, but what are we going to do? No girls here, so we make the best of things as we have them.

Our fellows are from all over, some from Mass., Va., Ky., Ohio, N. Y., Mich., and last but not least Penna. I am glad that I am able to serve and feel so glad that mamma is contented and tries not to worry. It sure was hard to leave home, but I am or feel that at least one of us should serve our Country and our God and felt that I was more physically fit than any of the others. Mamma is proud I know and cannot help but feel that she is happy although I know she misses me more than I can express and am glad to have her miss me.

Many of the boys here do not have any mothers or any homes and it hurts to see the mail come in and not get a letter. I write home once a day and try and write one other letter to a different friend. Yours will come more often than the rest with the exception of home.

We go to church every Sunday, an open air church, and it is some sight to see fully five thousand pure white clad boys sing and pray. Deas gave me a little Bible and I try and read some every day and be just as good as possible. I sent a large picture of our company home and hope you may get there to see it.

My address is as first stated in the heading and any mail addressed to me in that manner will reach me. Have had letters from all of those at home and they were all well and doing their bit in the garden, etc.

I will try and write as often as possible and a letter from you any time will be greatly appreciated. I am tanned as black as a negro. It sure is hot here, and cool at nights. The ocean is within a hundred yards of our home.

With love and best wishes,
EUD.
