INDIANA DETECTIVE IN SERIOUS CONDITION

INDIANA, Pa., March 5.—County Detective Samuel L. Minser is in the Indiana hospital in a serious condition as the result of a brutal attack made on him at Lucerne, this county, Saturday night while he was securing information in an alleged speakeasy. The officer was disguised but in some manner his identity was discovered and the attack followed. During the mix-up he was struck over the head and rendered unconscious. He was then dragged into a nearby field and left there in an unconscious condition. He was found several hours later by Sheriff Harry A. Boggs and District Attorney William N. Liggett of this place, and brought to the Indiana hospital. One side is paralyzed and he is suffering from a blow on the head. Lucerne is six miles south of Indiana and alleged speakeasies in that territory have been under the surveillance of county officers for some time.

"MOTHERS WE ARE COMING"

(By Rev. E. G. Zwyer)

To the tune of "Tramp, Tramp, the Boys are Marching," Pain and longing fill my heart, "Thinking Mother dear of you, And on bright and happy home so far away;

And the tears they fill my eyes 'twixt of all that I can do." But I'll sing of Freedom's triumph, and be gay.

Onward, comrades, on to glory; Victory complete will come! Then in Mother's loving arms "We shall breathe the air again, Of the free-land in our own beloved home."

"Tramp, tramp, tramp the boys are marching!" Oh, cheer up loved ones, we will come! "And beneath our country's flag We shall breathe the air again, Of the free-land in our own beloved home."

In the battle front we'll stand, When the fiercest charge is made— When our men by hundreds wounded fall and die. We'll advance in Freedom's name. Coward Huns will be dismayed. When they hear our shouts of victory rend the sky.

Do your part at home as nobly! Cheer up loved ones, we will come! "And beneath our country's flag We shall breathe the air again, Of the free-land in our own beloved home."

Drive them out of Belgium, France, Till across the Rhine they go, And the Allies march Berlin's head Linden Street.

They shall feel war's bitter pang, Till the Kaiser's overthrow, And the victory of Freedom is complete.

Then we'll turn our faces homeward. Cheer up, Mothers, we will come! "And beneath our country's flag, We shall breathe the air again, Of the free-land in our own beloved home."

The above was sung at the Honor Service last Sunday in the Baptist Church, by the D. L. M. C. The verses being rendered as solos, and all the boys singing the chorus.

HONOR SERVICE

The service in honor of the boys at the Baptist church last Sunday evening was simply superb. Everybody was taken completely by surprise, as no one was expecting so elaborate and beautiful a service. The large congregation was thrilled with patriotic enthusiasm. All joined in singing the Battle Hymn of the Republic and the Flag Song. Those who recited or rendered solos had selected their own pieces, and they were appropriate and perfectly rendered in every case. Many of the more illustrated by emblems and appropriate costumes which added much to the effect. Mrs. Zwyer called the Honor Roll of thirty names, and a large number of interesting letters was read from the boys. Two little children hoisted the Service Flag, which is large and beautiful. Pastor Zwyer had arranged a special song for the boys to the tune of Tramp, Tramp, the boys are Marching, which was rendered in solo and chorus form. A girls' chorus sang "Keep the Home Fires Burning." The climax was reached when, at the close, a large chorus of young people which filled the spacious platform, rendered the national airs of England, France, Italy and America. Before each anthem a young lady stepped forward with proper flag. The Belgian flag was displayed after the French anthem, and the Pastor offered a prayer for Belgium. After the Star Spangled Banner, the congregation joined the chorus in singing America and God Save Our Men, and then came the beautiful tableau. But it is impossible to tell in words how splendid the whole program was. Only those who witnessed it can possibly realize its beauty and inspiring effect.

WELL-KNOWN CARROLLTOWN RESIDENT KILLED IN MINE

MINERS REQUEST AN INCREASE IN WAGES AFFECTING 15,000

Adopt Policy Committee Recommendations; Joint Meeting with Operators

DUBOIS, March 5.—The miners of District No. 2, U. M. W. of A., this morning accepted the report of the Policy Committee recommending an increase in wages.

The increase recommended by the Policy Committee is 20 cents per ton for pick and machine mining, $1 per day for day work, and 55 cents per day for boys.

The committee recommends that a joint meeting with operators of the district be held, the time and place to be fixed later. In case the operators refuse the demands of the miners, the Policy Committee will call another convention.

The Policy Committee based its claim for an increase in wages on the fact that the Fuel Administration allowed the operators an increase of 60 cents per ton.

Opposition to the acceptance of the report developed during the session this morning, some delegates believing that the increase should be greater in some sections, but President Brophy held the delegates to the report of the Policy Committee and the convention adopted the report.

The Constitution Committee submitted a recommendation that the dues be increased slightly. The proposition was under discussion when the time arrived for noon recess. The committee pointed out that the expenses of the organization have been mounting while the receipts have not been coming in correspondingly.
