

HOME ITEMS OF TIMELY INTEREST

Wishing to procure ground for a War Garden can do so by applying at once to Mr. H. O. Brown, Local Chairman, at the office of the Pennsylvania Coal and Coke Company.

Now Andy ought to give us all a ride in his new Buick.

David Nelson of the U. S. S. P. 482 returned Wednesday to his ship which is stationed at the present time at Hampton Roads.

Chief of Police Gill is suffering a severe attack of rheumatism.

Ted Brown of Kiaki is spending his vacation in town.

Ed. Detrick of Hastings called on friends in town Wednesday night.

Wm. Way left for Port Matilda last Saturday to attend the funeral of a relative.

Mrs. Harry Blair of Barnesboro spent Sunday in town.

W. H. Strawbridge of Williamsport is at the home of his Mrs. F. B. Morey.

Ms. Goodyear and sister-in-law, Miss Lucile Goodyear, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sincow this week.

H. C. Yerger has returned to Cumberland, Md., after spending a pleasant visit at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rhody announce the birth of a son.

He sure to send the children to the matinee at 4 o'clock next Thursday to see Francis Carpenter and Virginia Lee in that world renowned play, "Jack and the Bean Stalk."

Mrs. Miss MacNamara visited relatives in Houdsdale last week.

Coming to the Grand Theatre this week of the 19th—The Belgrade Stock Company.

Bernice and Mrs. Met Detrick are at home.

"The Garden of Allah" featuring Alice Headly at the Majestic next Friday.

Ed. Thompson of Johnstown, spent several days at his home here.

Shipment, the picture "Million" which was advertised at the Grand Theatre last Saturday night was not shown but the picture has re-booked this Saturday night and it will be shown in the evening.

Miss Margaret Moren of Cleveland spent the Easter holidays at her home here.

Martin Commons has received word from the government that his son, Ernest has arrived safely at a foreign port.

Miss Thelma Holter, a teacher in the First Ward School, spent several days this week at her home in Rossiter.

Blair Kelly transacted business in South Fork on Wednesday.

"The Garden of Allah" at the Grand Wednesday night.

Miss Mary Shannon who is attending school at Cresson, spent several days at her home here this week.

The many friends and patients of Dr. J. I. Van Wert will be sorry to learn that at the present time his condition is reported as serious, following an operation last Tuesday. He has been a patient at the Bellevue Hospital in New York City for some time.

"Paying the Price" featuring Cecil Kane at the Majestic Monday night.

E. M. Smab has sold his property on Beach avenue to Charles Hanlin. Mr. Hanlin is agent for the Prudential Insurance Company.

Philip Camm left Thursday afternoon for a visit with relatives in Atlantic City.

Miss Irene Rhody and Mrs. Leo W. Maurer and daughter Mildred have returned home spending the winter in Florida.

Mrs. Charles O'Rourke of Ithaca, N. Y., is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mulen.

Supt. M. S. Bentz of Ebensburg, was a caller in town Wednesday.

Donald Holtz of Arcadia visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morrow Monday.

M. D. Beemer was a Johnstown visitor this week.

Mrs. J. R. Cornelius was called to Houdsdale by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Harry Sweeney.

Mrs. Hays of Mahaffey visited friends in town this week.

Miss Kathryn R. Ivory was a caller in town Wednesday.

James Smith of Cresson and B. H. Hurd of Hastings have accepted positions in the Western Union Telegraph office at this place.

Miss Colette Kirkpatrick of Spangler has accepted a position as clerk in the Patton Bakery.

E. C. Poorman of Tyrone transacted business in town Wednesday.

Pat Campbell of Pittsburgh, was a caller in town this week.

Paul Bearer has sold his property on Beach avenue to Dominick Stevens. The Stevens family will move into their new residence in the very near future.

Miss Margaret Keiper spent Sunday and Monday at her home in Clearfield.

Dick Hill of Johnstown transacted business in town Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Denlinger, Sr., and daughter, Anna Mary, attended the wedding of Wm. H. Denlinger, Jr. and Miss Ruth Gardner in Altoona on Monday.

Mrs. John Johnson is seriously ill at her home here.

Misses Emma Waring and Brumbaugh spent Easter at Miss Brumbaugh's home at Roaring Springs.

Mrs. J. R. Cornelius and son William visited relatives in Ehrenfeld Friday.

Miss Ora McCully and Mrs. Connelly of Westover are guests this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Sauter.

Paul Bearer was an Altoona visitor Monday.

Miss Mary Litzinger, Mrs. Paul Billard and son Raymond motored to Osceola Sunday.

Mrs. F. B. Williams is visiting relatives in Windber.

Harry Henderson of Johnstown called on his patrons in town Monday.

Miss Gertrude Dinsmore of Punksautawney, spent Sunday as the guest of her brothers here.

John Thomas is seriously ill at his home on Fifth avenue.

Miss Gladys Yindling of Gallitzin, visited Misses Marie and Ophelia Sanker this week.

Sgt. Albert Brown of Camp Lee is spending a short furlough in town. Mrs. C. A. Anderson and daughter Ethyl, have returned from Buffalo, N. Y., where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Anderson's father.

Mrs. Rebecca Kinkaid visited relatives in Philipsburgh last week.

Prof. William Simpson has sold his property on Fifth avenue and, with his family, expects to leave in the near future for Indiana.

Telford Gill of State College spent Easter at his home here.

Sgt. Wm. H. Denlinger, of Camp Lee is spending a short furlough in town.

Mrs. P. J. Kelly has returned home after a short visit in Pittsburgh and Homestead.

John A. Gunn was a business caller in New York this week.

Frank Schwab, who is a student at Kiaki, spent the Easter holidays at his home here.

Miss Adah Night of Clearfield was a Patton visitor the early part of the week.

Edward McCormick, formerly a druggist here, but now in the government Ordnance Department, has returned to Philadelphia after spending an enjoyable furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. McCormick.

Mrs. Hoven of Spangler was a caller in town Monday night.

Miss Mildred Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brown, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, is greatly improved at this writing.

John Prindible and "Skinny" Yeager are home from Philadelphia, where they were attending a business college.

Miss Madeline Mullen and Miss Margaret Beizer of Pittsburgh, spent Easter at the home of Miss Mullen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mullen.

FOR RENT—Two rooms on the fourth floor of the Kephart building on Caroline street. Inquire of L. A. Bosserman, Barnesboro, Pa.

DON'T BE DECEIVED
A Pittsburgh lady writes—please send me half dozen boxes

Wise Old Indian Salve
I hate neighbors calling at my house for it, and they all say they can find nothing else to equal it. One woman says I have tried twenty-five different kinds of salves and none of them approaches WISE OLD INDIAN SALVE in efficiency, nothing to be compared with it for family use (Name on application.)
Sold Everywhere at 25c PER BOX

CRESSON SCHOOLS ARE CLOSED FOR TWO WEEKS

CRESSON, April 1.—The Board of Health officials have ordered the closing of the first six grades of the public schools for a period of two weeks owing to a number of contagious diseases in this community. This is the second time this term that the Board of Health officials have closed the local schools.

Dainty Springtime Lingerie

Featuring the New Crepe Nightrobes

UNDOUBTEDLY as you go through your lingerie and lay aside the many garments that you had previously thought "would do," you will find your fancies here and there that must be supplied at once.

This section specializes in the garments of such excellent texture and workmanship as you would employ in the making of such wearables in your own home—besides, they are just as economical and you are excused from all designing, worry and work.

Tuesday, being our usual day for featuring lingerie, a special reduction will be observed in the new nightrobes. Fashioned of Windsor crepe in pink or white; plain or figured; slipover styles with kimono sleeves and low necks regularly priced at $1.50; special for Tuesday at $1.18.

Our Spring Lingerie of nainsook and longcloth is daintier and finer than ever before. The simplicity in the new designs allows for quality rather than quantity ornamentation—and its delightful freshness is a joy to behold—its very feel inspires coolness and enjoyment of a hot mid-summer day.

Chemises of crepe de chine and wash satin $1.50 to $2.50
 Brassieres of muslin, lace, silk and satin 50c to $1.00
 The Burke in plain or figured crepe from $1.00 to $1.50
 Envelope Chemise of nainsook, crepe de chine and wash satin, trimmed in lace and embroidery $1.00 to $1.50
 Nightrobes of nainsook, crepe and silk, from $1.00 to $1.50

Penn Traffic Company

JOHNSTOWN, PA.

WIFE'S WEDDING A FURNISHING SOCIAL EVENT

One of the most elaborate social functions held in this city for some time took place at the home of William Emery on Saturday evening, Thursday night, when Miss Dainty's daughter, Hannah B. Emery, was united in marriage to Carl Frederick Wolfe. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George A. Darrow, pastor of the St. John's Methodist Episcopal church in the presence of a number of invited guests. Mr. Robert Hicks played the bridal march.

Miss Anna Christoff of Patton and Miss Esther Ostrander of Spangler were the bridesmaids and Blair Kelly of Patton and Thomas O. Lewis of East Pittsburgh, a brother of the bride, were groomsmen. The bride was beautifully gowned in crepe and gold lace and carried a large bouquet of roses. The bridesmaids were dressed in pink satin and carried bouquets of roses. The groom and groomsmen wore white carnations. Following the ceremony an elaborate wedding dinner was served.

The bride is a graduate nurse, the Spangler hospital, having completed her course of training a year ago. She has also been doing much nursing. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wolfe of Cresson. The young couple will make their home at a home of friends in Cresson, Pa. The bride is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Emery of Patton. The high esteem in which the responses are held was manifest in the many beautiful and useful wedding gifts which the bride received.

The following guests outside of the immediate family were present: Mrs. Shirley Hines of West Branch, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sherman of Lodi, Mrs. Thomas Hartley of Houdsdale, Pa., and Mrs. Zwayer of Patton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wolfe and family, Blair Kelly and Miss Anna Christoff all of Patton, Thomas O. Lewis of East Pittsburgh, Miss Esther Ostrander of Spangler, and the following of Barnesboro: Milton Spencer, Charles Williams and wife,

WILSON WEST AND FAMILY, Edward Brown and wife, Samuel Beacham, Mrs. Vera Beacham, Mrs. John HICKEL, William Matthias, Thomas Lestall, Elizabeth and Mary McCall, Robert Hicks and family, Daniel Alsup and Mrs. G. A. Davick.

MISS MARGARET KEIPER WILL SPEAK IN JOHNSTOWN

JOHNSTOWN, April 4.—Miss Margaret Keiper, the lady from Houdsdale, will speak on "Woman and the War" at the Columbia Theatre on Wednesday, April 10. Miss Keiper, America's first Congresswoman, was elected to the National House of Representatives in November, 1916. She is an unusually brilliant speaker. Johnstown men and women, interested in Miss Rankin and desiring to hear her and have Johnstown hear her, were instrumental in securing Montana's "first lady" for next week's engagement. Admission will be charged, the entire proceeds to be devoted to the Red Cross and the Workmen's Compensation and Benefit Fund.

Dancing has begun again in full swing. Come with your lady friend and pass a pleasant evening. Dancing Saturday night from 9 till 12—FRIDMAN HALL, Barnesboro, Pa.

FORD

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Ford cars are an important factor in every rural community. They help the family enjoy life, bring the pleasures and advantages of the city within reach, and give practical service every day. Ford cars require a minimum of attention; any one can run and care for them. Two million owners this world over prove their quality every day. We pledge Ford owners the reliable Ford service with genuine Ford parts standard Ford prices. Touring Car $450, Runabout $335, Coupelet $355, Town Car $395. Sold in $645—all f. o. b. Detroit. On display and for sale by

JAMES DUMM

Agent
SPANGLER, PA.

Orders received by Alfred Erickson, Patton, Pa.

"The Garden of Allah"

TO BE PRESENTED IN MOTION PICTURES

AT THE

Grand Theatre

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10th

ADMISSION 25 and 35 Cents