

HOME ITEMS OF TIMELY INTEREST

Edward Callahan was a Chest Springs visitor Monday.

Fred Mellon is moving his family this week to his farm near Chest Springs. Mr. Mellon purchased the farm last fall and since that time has made considerable improvement on the property making it one of the most modern and attractive homes in the vicinity.

Andy Fornadley, who has been critically ill with pneumonia at his home, while still in serious condition has improved and all hopes are for his recovery.

James Haley called on friends in Barnesboro Sunday evening.

FOR SALE—One mare 5 years old, weight 1100 to 1200 pounds, good speed. Inquire of W. H. Dumm, Box 362, Patton, Pa.

The many friends of Ardell Closs who has been suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia, will be glad to learn that his condition is very much improved.

Ed. Smith, Jr., was a Barnesboro visitor Sunday.

Mayor Gardner, while a few of his political friends claim he was Stage Struck Friday evening when he was unable to deliver his address has established beyond a doubt that he was really suffering from a severe cold.

Elden L. Patterson and Jane H. Westwood, of Phillipsburg, were united in marriage Tuesday evening by the Rev. Peters, of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Angel Stock Company, one of the most up-to-date companies had an open date for the coming week so the management of the Grand has secured the troupe starting Monday night for the week.

Mrs. Abe Jenkins is suffering from a severe attack of La Grippe.

Misses Cregg, Witherson and Leslies, of Spangler, attended the dance in town Saturday night.

Mae Marsh in "The Beloved Traitor" at the Grand Saturday night.

Adam Smith was a business caller in Johnstown this week.

Mrs. Howard Holes left on Saturday for Jersey Shore. Mr. Holes was formerly fireman for the New York Central at this place but recently was promoted and sent to Jersey Shore, where they will make their future home.

Charles O'Neill, District Vice President of the U. M. W. was a business caller in town last week and while here was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Cairns.

Frank Keenan shows an unscrupulous, unprincipled man, whose law is success and let nothing stand in its way, will be seen in the "Loaded Dice" at the Majestic Tuesday evening.

Jobe Sperry is able to be around again after suffering from a severe attack of La Grippe.

William Fox presents William Farum in "The Heart of a Lion" at the Majestic Thursday night.

Mrs. Thomas Baker of Dysart, spent several days last week at the Fitzpatrick home on Main street.

A young son of Mr. and Mrs. Pius Anna of near town is in a critical condition following an operation for appendicitis last Sunday night.

Mrs. Mary Patterson is recovering from a severe attack of heart trouble. The many friends of W. J. Morgan and family will be sorry to learn that Mr. Morgan has resigned his position as superintendent of the Patton Silk Mill, to take effect May 1st.

Mrs. Albert Law, of Windber, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. John Radcliffe.

Trespass Notices for sale at this office.

Misses Alma Farabaugh and Alva Radcliffe were Carrolltown visitors Friday.

Austin McCully, of Westover, spent Sunday at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Sauter of Main street.

Mrs. Jos. Bevkwith returned from Tyrone where she has been the guest of her sister for the past week.

Miss Hilda District, who has been spending some time in Pittsburgh returned to town Monday evening.

Adam Heist was injured in mine No. 28 Saturday, while not injured seriously Adam will walk with the aid of a crutch or so for a while.

George Closs and daughters, Misses Edna and Anna and Mr. Bland of Blandburg, motored to town Sunday and were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cornelius, where Ardell Closs is confined with an attack of pneumonia.

James McGonigal went to Ebensburg Monday and enlisted. Jim will fire an engine in "No Man's Land," similar to the one he has been firing around here.

Ebensburg has an epidemic of pneumonia, there being about 31 cases on the list with Dr. Frank Bishop the only physician at present to care for the patients.

Joseph Elliott, who has been confined to his home for the past week with a severe attack of La Grippe is able to be around again.

Dr. Rice, of Hastings, made a professional trip to town Friday.

Mrs. Reed, of Jacksonville, Fla., is visiting her brother Thos. A. McQuillen who is in training at Camp Lee, Va.

Miss Myrtle Goal, of Josephine, returned to her home Tuesday, she was accompanied by Madeline McQuillen.

David Saltzger left on Tuesday afternoon for an extended visit with friends in Altoona.

Matilda and Raymond Trinkley spent Sunday with relatives and friends in Spangler.

Ward Coder and Gordon McQuillen were Ebensburg visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodyear and daughter Miss Lucille, of Windburne, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sisco, of Palmer avenue.

Mike Crawford of Hastings, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. H. C. Yerger of Palmer avenue.

Misses Esther and Mary Strasser, of Portage were guests this week at the home of their parents.

Joseph Kelsall of Ebensburg, spent Sunday at the home of his parents.

Misses Margaret Frank and Ruth Noonan were Altoona shoppers Friday afternoon making the trip by motor.

Patrick Meehan has recovered from an attack of La Grippe.

John and Kathryn Mater, of Johnstown were called to town last week on account of the serious illness of their brother-in-law, Andy Fornadley.

John McGonigal and daughter Miss Corrine, of Carrolltown, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mellon, of Magee avenue.

Mrs. Frank, who has been spending some time at the home of her daughter Mrs. Meade Cowher, left on Saturday morning for an extended visit with relatives in Punxsutawney.

Chief-of-Police Gill transacted business in Ebensburg Monday.

Harvey Brown, an employee of the Penn Heat, Light and Power company at Huntingdon, spent Sunday at the home of his parents on East Magee avenue.

Mrs. Rebecca Kinkad returned Saturday from a several weeks stay in Phillipsburg, having been called there on account of the illness of her sister, Mrs. Croyle.

Mrs. C. I. Baldwin was an Altoona visitor Monday.

Miss Julia Frank, of Johnstown, spent Sunday at the home of her parents near town.

Miss Anna Moore, an employee at the Freight station, left on Wednesday morning for a two weeks vacation in Philadelphia.

Mrs. A. G. Anderson, of Ebensburg, spent several days with friends in town the first of the week.

Tom Cox, returned Tuesday evening from Pittsburgh, where he had been called on account of the serious illness of his brother Paddy.

Miss Margaret Palcho was a Johnstown visitor the first of the week.

Misses Esther and Mary Strasser visited friends in Hastings the first of the week.

Patsy Callahan is around again after being confined to his home for the past two weeks with a slight attack of pneumonia.

Adrian Weakland made a business trip to Wehrum the first of the week.

Bill Platt, Raymond Biller and Frank Sinsari were Arcadia visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Somerville were called to Clearfield Tuesday on account of the death of Mrs. Somerville's father.

Mae Marsh, who starred in the "Fields of Honor" and "Polly of the Circus" will star again in "The Beloved Traitor" at the Grand Saturday night.

"My Mother"—The first of a series of pictures to be shown every Wednesday at the Majestic. The series known as the "Sons of Democracy" featuring Abe Lincoln, they are not dry history but stirring fights, amusing complications.

Mrs. Nicholas Anstead left on Wednesday morning for a visit with relatives and friends in Johnstown.

Angel Stock Company at the Grand next week. Seats for Monday night on sale at Gardner's Friday—Prices 15c, 25c and 35c. The comedy trio Monday night.

Mrs. L. Clair Smale returned Tuesday evening from a visit with her sister at Alexandria, Va.

Dancing has begun again in full swing. Come with your lady friend and pass a pleasant evening. Dancing Saturday night from 9 till 12—FRIDMAN HALL, Barnesboro, Pa.

5,000 MILES GUARANTEED TIRES.

Clincher or Straight Side.
30x3 Non Skid $3.20; Tubes $2.15.
Set of 4, Non Skid $35.00 Tubes $7.50.
30x3 1-2 Non Skid $12.46, Tubes $2.15.
Set of 4, Non Skid $47.50, Tubes $8.00.
Prices of Other Sizes in Proportion.
Write for List

If a tire fails to run 5,000 miles we will replace with a new tire at one-half price.
Shipped same day as Check or Money Order is received, Express Charges Prepaid.

EASTERN SALE CO.
500 Fulton Street
UNION HILL, N. J.
DEALERS WANTED

GRAND THEATRE, PATTON, PA.

RETURN OF THE FAVORITES

One week only Starting MONDAY, APRIL 29th One week only

JOE ANGELL, Presents

THE ANGELL STOCK CO.

With The Charming Leading Lady, MISS ALICE BOWDISH

Opening Play Monday Night

The Play that Strikes "Sex" O'clock

"The Marriage Question"

drama full of red blood, dash and emotional situations, with a sprinkling of comedy shocking but not immoral, it deals an awful blow to hypocrites

Special Scenery New Special

The Same Great Company as when here last

Seats Now on Sale

Days Change Nightly