JOSEPH KELSALL WRITES FROM FRANCE

Dear Mother, Father and Sisters:
I came over on the Liviathan ship and landed in Brest, where we stayed two days and then went to Beaumont, trained there for three weeks and went from there to the Alsace-Lorraine front. I was in the trenches there two weeks and during that time was in five patrols and two night raids. I will tell you about one incident there. There are many I could tell.

We left the trenches and went "over the top," at about 9 o'clock; walked about or crawled two hundred yards and laid in mud and wet grass for about an hour and a half, then we advanced a little more and one fellow run into some barb wire, making a little noise, and with that the Dutch opened up with machine guns and grenades. One fellow was shot through the forehead and he started to yell to beat the dickens out there in "No Man's Land." Well, we opened up on them and gave them the same thing. I began to think that my hard luck days were over. I fired one hundred and twenty five rounds of rifle bullets. Some of our men got to the right of their line, so that they advanced toward us, so our men opened fire on them killing a great number. We lost five men, but the observation reported the Dutch carrying in 23 dead the next day.

I came back to the hospital two weeks later and was operated upon, and after five weeks went back to the same place, when we started to the Verdun front and started the big drive two weeks when I fell into a shell hole and was forced to return to the hospital. The drive was sure hell, and there isn't enough paper in France to tell about it.

I suppose you will not believe me when I tell you I have slept in mud and water, and rain pouring down on me all night, and didn't catch cold. But it is the truth; it is remarkable what a fellow can stand when put to the test.

And still playing and singing and enjoying life with the best of health.
Best of love,
Pat. Joseph Kelsall.
A. P. O. 870, A. E. F.

CALVARY CHURCH

At the Calvary Baptist Chapel, both Sunday School and evening service was well attended last Sunday, notwithstanding rain and wind. Sunday there will be Sunday School as usual at 10:30 a. m., and divine worship at 6:15 p. m. General prayer meeting on Friday at 7:30 p. m. Everybody cordially invited to all meetings.

Elmer Miller, Francis Bearer, Francis Blum and Emil Buck, four young men of Carrolltown, charged with assault and battery by Dennis Bender, of Carrolltown. Monday morning entered a plea of guilty before Judge Stephens at Ebensburg. They were reprimanded for their misconduct, which the Judge said, was a reflection upon the community in which they lived, and were discharged upon the payment of the costs of prosecution and further sentence suspended. The prosecution did not press for severe punishment for the boys. The court told the boys that sort of business must cease in Carrolltown and they must not appear before the court again.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Although the weather was not by any means fine last Sunday, and in the evening the wind blew a gale, attendance at both the Patton church and the Calvary chapel was fairly good. We look for better weather this Sunday. But let us remember how Jesus was in the storm on Galilee, and the disciples with him, and all were safe and happy.

Worship as usual at 10:30 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. Sunday School 2 p. m., Y. M. meeting at 6:45. Prayer meeting Wednesday 7:45 p. m. Everybody cordially invited to all meetings.

A BOY ADOPTED

The Calvary Sunday School on Christmas raised sufficient money to support a child for a year. Word has just been received from France saying that the child given to the school is Louis Paz, born May 4, 1911, hence will be eight years old on the coming Fourth of May. The school will now write to him and found out all about him, and send money for his picture. This is a good work, and the Sunday School will no doubt continue to support its little orphan boy for as many years as it is necessary.

MEETING OF ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

The Central Pennsylvania Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, comprising about 275 ministers and representing more than that many churches, will meet next Wednesday at Sunbury. Bishop W. L. McDowell of Washington, D. C., will preside at the sessions. Many important matters, including the Methodist Centenary will come up for consideration. Rev. Robert C. Peters, the local minister, will leave for Sunbury on Monday to take part in the examination of candidates for entrance to the conference. Mrs. Peters will accompany him.

HAVE YOU PAID YOUR VICTORY MILLION CONTRIBUTION?

These contributions were due and payable December 1, 1918. Quite a number are still delinquent. The various war agencies are calling for money. 50,000 of our soldier boys are still in the hospitals of Europe and are being helped by the Red Cross and other organizations. The women and children of Belgium and France look to America for help.

We must not renege our pledges to relieve suffering humanity.
W. H. Denlinger,
Chairman Red Cross.

NOTICE TO RETURNED SOLDIERS

The government has authorized a payment of a bonus of $60.00 to each soldier in the service.
The Patton Red Cross is ready and willing to help you secure your bonus.
Please call at my office at your convenience.

"MRS. LEFFINGWELL'S BOOTS"

One of the best pictures in which Constance Talmadge has ever been seen is her latest Select Picture, "Mrs. Leffingwell's Boots," which will be seen at the Majestic theater on Thursday and in which she is presented by Lewis J. Selznick.

"Mrs. Leffingwell's Boots" is a story of a young woman who loves pretty clothes, and much against her husband's wishes she buys a pair of expensive embroidered slippers to wear to a fashionable dance. Unknown to both, a replica of the pair is in existence, and were purchased by Walter Huntley to give to his fiancée, Mabel Brown. Mabel becomes angry at Huntley and breaks off the engagement, so Huntley gives the slippers to his maid.

During the evening of the dance Huntley is very attentive to Mrs. Leffingwell. Her husband is furious and goes for a walk in the garden, but as he passes the window of Huntley's room he looks up and sees someone removing a pair of slippers, but he thinks it is the maid trying on the slippers that Huntley gave her.

Leffingwell immediately demands an explanation, which runs over a period of several weeks, involving other persons. The two pairs of slippers keep making their appearance at very inopportune moments. Huntley's maid has gone away and is working in another place, and it is not until the maid is located that the mystery of the two pairs of slippers is solved.

MANY CANDIDATES TAKEN INTO CAMP

Gilbert Brown, assistant state vice president of the Pennsylvania Patriotic Order of Americans, was in Patton this week and assisted Camp No. 221, of the P. O. of A. in initiating a class of 15 candidates. This camp was formed by Mr. Brown two years ago. Mrs. Mary Patterson and Mrs. Elizabeth Feiker, of Lilly, were present and took part in the exercises. Mrs. Patterson is the district president of the Northern District of Cambria County. Many members of the Patton camp attended the exercises.

ELSIE FERGUSON

"The Rise of Jennie Cushing," the Artercraft production to be shown at the Majestic Friday is a big human subject. Elsie Ferguson, the noted stage star and beauty, who recently capitulated to motion pictures, plays the title role. The struggles of this girl, born in the slums, of unknown parentage, present an arraignment of modern society. In the book by Mary S. Watts, Jennie Cushing commanded admiration, appealing to the sympathies not by her helplessness but through her grit and determination to rise from her lowly surroundings. As played by Miss Ferguson, the role receives added virility and the play will long be remembered by those who see it.

CARD OF THANKS

The Patton Fire Company extends their heartfelt thanks for the generous donation of $25 made to them by Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Thompson for their prompt and efficient service during the recent fire at the Thompson home last Tuesday.

W. C. T. U. BAZAAR

Everybody likes to help a good cause, and the cause represented by the W. C. T. U. is surely a good one, not only in temperance work, but in all kinds of Christian and philanthropic work. On Friday and Saturday, April 18-19, the two nights before Easter, the local W. C. T. U. will hold a bazaar in the primary rooms of the Baptist church. The church voted at the last business meeting to give the use of the room for this purpose as requested. The people of Patton will help the organization to make it a big success.

A GOOD WORK

Mrs. E. G. Zwyer spent Saturday to Monday visiting Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Evans of Clanghoun, Pa. This is a coal town not more than a few years old. It is only a small place.

No Christian work was being done in it. Mrs. Zwyer canvassed the town and on Sunday, as a result, 51 persons attended the Sunday School which she had gone to organize. Mr. Abrams, superintendent of the mines, was elected superintendent, and B. L. Evans assistant and secretary. Mrs. Rowe was elected treasurer and organist, and Mrs. Davis and Miss Barr assistant organists. Supplies have been ordered from the American Baptist Publication Society, and so the school is in running order. The attendance at public school does not exceed 40, so the attendance at Sunday School included all the children who go to school, or at least as many. The State Mission secretary will see that some one goes there to preach.

OUT OF THE ORDINARY

The patrons of the theater who like the unusual in their dramatics will find it in "Stolen Sweets," M. Pierre Dumas' latest Parthian masterpiece which comes to Barnesboro Opera House next Monday night, March 17. Not since Olga Nethersole played "Sapho" in New York, and called forth a storm of protest from the self-constituted censors of the stage, has a drama been written that has created such a sensation as "Stolen Sweets." But the plays justifies itself, because it tells the truth. The subject of which it treats is a delicate one, but it is handled in an artistic way. It is not likely that the narrow-minded bigot, who continually looks for something to censure, will be disappointed, for the author has not hesitated to "call a spade a spade." Those who want to be shocked may have their wishes gratified, but the fact remains that "Stolen Sweets" teaches a lesson that all should hear, and inculcates a moral that all should understand.

NEWS FROM SOLDIERS

The people of Patton have reason to be proud of their boys in army and navy. First Lieutenant and Chaplain Wayland Zwyer, in addition to his religious work, superintends classes in English and in vocational training. This work has kept him very busy and sometime ago he was appointed as morals officer. His work along all lines has been very efficient. Last week he was given an orderly, which will not only relieve him of much routine work, but will enable him to do still more efficient work.

Last Sunday Chaplain Zwyer preached in Calvary Baptist Church, a church of 1200 members. The pastor of the church availing himself of the privilege of preaching to the boys.

David Black, who was severely wounded during the hostilities, but is almost recovered, wrote last week that he expects to sail any day.

George Mitchell, who was made sergeant some time ago, has again gotten an advance and is doing splendid work at Camp Upton.

Toobert Davis is probably on the seas on his way home, as he wrote sometime ago that he expects to reach home in March.

All the letters from our boys show that while they are anxious, of course to be at home, they are quite willing to serve Uncle Sam to the finish. This is the right spirit, for Uncle Sam knows the outlook, and will send all the boys home as fast as he can spare them.

MRS. SARAH CHAPMAN

Mrs. Sarah Chapman, widow of the late Henry Chapman, died last Saturday morning in the Clearfield Hospital, following an operation for a gastric. The deceased was aged about 60 years and was born in the Red Eagle Valley of Pennsylvania, coming to Patton about 25 years ago. She is survived by the following: sons, Charles and George of Hazlet; Mrs. Edith Morgan and Mrs. Berne Morgan of Patton; Mrs. Ida Washburn of Nesquehoning; Mrs. Stella Cassel of Barnesboro; Thomas of Cresheim; and Harry, Edna and Dorothy at home.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from the J. H. Church, the Rev. R. C. Peters in charge. Burial was made in Fairview cemetery.

TRINITY METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. Robert C. Peters, Minister. Next Sunday will be a special Fourth Quarterly Communion Sunday. The pastor will give a brief report of the work of this conference year at the ensuing service.

The class meeting and Sunday school convocations at the regular hours. The Epworth League, devotional meeting at 6:45 will be led by Miss Miriam Lilly.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will again be observed in the evening at 7:30 and the pastor will speak on "A Lusty Moral Code."

SATISFACTION

Satisfaction is what the Bon Ton Store promises all its customers, and what more could anyone ask than the satisfaction of getting the full value when buying.

For the past several years wearing apparel and materials have advanced in most cases to twice their value as to before, the market is gradually being readjusted and prices on many articles will be almost normal again. And as these things are regulated the Bon Ton store is regulating their prices accordingly.

Starting with Saturday, March 15, and ending Saturday, March 22, Mr. Shannon is having what is known as a Satisfaction Sale, in which he is showing a handsome line of New Spring Coats which are being offered at special prices to early buyers. There can also be found a full line of new percales, ginghams, muslins, and white goods for early spring seasons, at the very lowest prices of today.

Customers and friends will gain satisfaction by calling on our well-known merchant and seeing for themselves these new satisfactory spring offerings at satisfactory prices.
