

ZANE GREY'S
GREAT STORY
The Border Legion
A Melodrama of the Lawless West in the days of the '49
Grand Theatre
Wednesday

ALFRED ERICKSON

Agent for

Oakland Sensible Six
Studebaker and
Ford Automobiles

Full Line of Auto Accessories

Main Street

Patton, Pa.

Look at the Prices on Groceries of the Highest Grade

Peanut Butter, only 20c Pound. One of the best grades.
Lima Beans, only 11c Pound. Best California Stock 6c a cake; Export is the name. Everybody knows it does the work.
Coffee at 33c Pound. A real bargain in a high grade coffee.
Syrup, only 80c Gallon. Think of it, syrup of quality canned, only 18c can. A full 2-1/2 lb. can of good pears.

EVERY DAY PRICES

Granulated Sugar, per pound ..... 10c
Baker's Chocolate, a cake ..... 18c
Cocoa, loose, a full pound ..... 20c

We deliver

Spot Cash Store Patton

CARROLLTOWN, PENNA.

J. Edward Stevens
FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND EMBALMER

Careful and Up-to-Date Service

Modern Equipment

Telephone Service—Office and Residence.

Type Writing Ribbons for all
Machines, For Sale at -
Kinkeads Stationary Store

PERSONALS

Quite a number of Patton, Old Fellows will journey to Ebersburg Sunday and will join with the Highland Lodge in celebrating their 100th anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Apel, of Ebersburg spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Larimer.

Over There, somewhere in Germany, I've got a kid brother. He's been in the fight since the beginning and now they've made him a corporal. I've watched that kid grow up. I've helped him out of scrapes. I've raised the devil with him for being fired from school. I've loaned him money I never expected to get back—and never did. Yesterday I had a letter from him. It was written with a pencil a month ago. He said he would be home when his job is over. If that kid is going to stick to his job until the whistle blows, I'm going to stick to mine. I'm going to buy three Liberty bonds this time.

Fred Blankenhorn is spending the week in Philadelphia looking after the interests of the Patton City Works.

Miss Collie Lacue returned home this week from a two week's visit in Washington, D. C., where she was the guest of her friend, Miss Bernice Shunkwiler.

Miss Anna Ratowsky visited friends in Barnesboro this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Maurer of Cresson, spent Easter at the home of the latter's parents.

Mrs. Ray Brown of Garrett spent Easter at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Monteth.

Miss Ethel Anderson was a Johnstown visitor this week.

Concern Grange will hold a dance in their hall Wednesday, April 30. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Alfred and Desmond Gill of Akron, O., spent several days last week at the home of Chief of Police and Mrs. Gill.

Telly Gill and two school friends, who spent Sunday at the home of the former's parents, returned to State College Wednesday morning.

Mrs. William Shunkwiler and two sons of Clymer, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shunkwiler of this place.

Sealed bids will be received by the Rev. A. P. Adrian, pastor of St. George's church, until the first of May.

Mrs. Alfred Hanwell was a Johnstown shopper Tuesday.

Marriage license was granted to Thomas Coogan of this place and Alice Mills of Cokesburgh at Cumberland Wednesday.

W. R. Rees, Samuel Brown, W. H. Denlinger and M. B. Cowher were among the Shriners, members of Jaffa temple, Altoona, who attended the April ceremonial held there Thursday afternoon and evening.

W. R. Rees attended the meeting of the bituminous coal operators at the Fort Stanwix hotel, Johnstown, Wednesday afternoon.

T. M. Craver, John Johnson and George Kane have been drawn as jurors for the June term of court.

America never repudiated an obligation. Money is needed to maintain our soldiers and bring them back to their homes, to pay war risk insurance, to adjust cancelled war contracts, to pay bills for supplies which smothered the Hun, and to generally clean up the debris caused by the war.

Michael Ryan, of State College, spent Easter at the home of the Misses Emma and Malivana Weakland.

James Crawford, of Philadelphia, is a guest this week at the home of his aunt, Mrs. H. C. Yerger, of Palmer avenue.

Miss Clara Morey, who is employed at State College, is spending the holidays at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Morey of Palmer avenue.

Russell Commons, Harry Chapman and Dick Lilley motored to Clymer Sunday.

I haven't any money. If you are without employment and have no savings which will permit you to buy a victory note, even on the instalment basis, then contribute your services in getting other subscribers.

Miss Bernice Shunkwiler, in the government employ at Washington, D. C., is spending several weeks' vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Shunkwiler.

Miss Maud Tyler of Hastings spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Coder.

"Seed" Farabaugh in the U. S. navy service, returned to New York Monday evening after spending several days' furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farabaugh.

Word was received here Saturday that the following Patton boys were on the Von Steuben Friday evening landing at New York harbor: Sgt. Russell Barton, Cpl. Walter Noonan and Tolbert Davis. They left at once for Camp Mills, and will probably be home within the next few weeks.

R. Peter Short returned to Philadelphia Monday evening after spending Easter with his many friends in town.

Miss Margaret Brown, who has been attending school in New York, is spending the holidays with her mother, Mrs. Francis Brown.

Miss Esther Sherry who underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Spangler Hospital last week is getting along nicely.

Little Elory Lynn, Jr., is suffering with a severe attack of pneumonia.

Talk loan. You know that the Victory loan is here, and you know we are going to take it. It will be the last general loan. Down in your heart you know that you are not going to fail your government now. Therefore, don't hinder—help. You are a citizen of the richest country on earth. This loan is a mere trifle to people as rich as we are. Talk loan.

A marriage license was granted this week at Ebersburg to Peter Furlage, of Hastings, and Miss Pearl Yahner of Patton.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nagle spent Sunday at the home of Thomas Nagle at St. Augustine.

Marcellus Anna, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pius Anna, who has been stationed at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, spent the holidays at the home of his parents.

Fred Maurer, a well known coal broker of Philadelphia, spent several days the first of the week at the home of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Maurer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Morn are in Toronto, Ohio, this week attending the funeral of the former's brother, who was killed in an accident Monday.

Mayor Gardner purchased a new 7-passenger Buick this week from Cole brothers.

Miss Yvonne Yerger returned to her studies at State College Tuesday after spending the holidays at her home in this place.

Mrs. Earl Sharbaugh and children of Carrolltown spent several days last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Morey.

ing Easter with his many friends in town.

Miss Margaret Brown, who has been attending school in New York, is spending the holidays with her mother, Mrs. Francis Brown.

Miss Esther Sherry who underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Spangler Hospital last week is getting along nicely.

Little Elory Lynn, Jr., is suffering with a severe attack of pneumonia.

Talk loan. You know that the Victory loan is here, and you know we are going to take it. It will be the last general loan. Down in your heart you know that you are not going to fail your government now. Therefore, don't hinder—help. You are a citizen of the richest country on earth. This loan is a mere trifle to people as rich as we are. Talk loan.

A marriage license was granted this week at Ebersburg to Peter Furlage, of Hastings, and Miss Pearl Yahner of Patton.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nagle spent Sunday at the home of Thomas Nagle at St. Augustine.

Marcellus Anna, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pius Anna, who has been stationed at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, spent the holidays at the home of his parents.

Fred Maurer, a well known coal broker of Philadelphia, spent several days the first of the week at the home of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Maurer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Morn are in Toronto, Ohio, this week attending the funeral of the former's brother, who was killed in an accident Monday.

Mayor Gardner purchased a new 7-passenger Buick this week from Cole brothers.

Miss Yvonne Yerger returned to her studies at State College Tuesday after spending the holidays at her home in this place.

Mrs. Earl Sharbaugh and children of Carrolltown spent several days last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Morey.

Mrs. Robert Prosser, residing near Sunset park, is recuperating from a serious operation at the Spangler hospital.

Word was received here this week by Major Bell that his son, James, a former well known resident of Patton but now of Johnstown, is seriously ill at his home.

Miss Charlotte Davis spent Easter with relatives in Morrisdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hayden spent several days the first of the week with relatives in Philipsburg.

Mrs. W. H. Denlinger is spending several days at the home of her sister in DuBois.

Isn't the Victory loan the church down the road for the American nation; the chance to thank God for life, for liberty, for peace; the place of promise that this peace and freedom won by the blood of the men who fell in France shall not be forfeited by our indifference?

John Prindible and sister, Miss Loreto, of Philadelphia are spending the week with relatives and friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Smithblower of Cresson, were guests this week at the home of the former's parents.

Nazimova at the Grand May 5th. And so it is that a woman's sinister lure finds in Salome only one of its myriad manifestations. Her type is as old as the world—as old as beauty, passion and sin. Truly it runs thru eternity like a scarlet thread. Theda Bara as Salome at the Grand May 15.

Opening dance at Friedman's hall, Barnesboro, Pa., Saturday, April 26. Music rendered by the Young, Faivre and Young saphonic orchestra. Admission, gents, 10c; ladies 10c; spectators 25 cents. Dancing from 9 till 12.

Spangler Auxiliary from Patton will give a supper May 1 in the Municipal hall for the benefit of the refurnishing the Patton room.

The Catholic community club will hold a cinch party in their newly purchased clubrooms May 5th.

Private Tolbert Davis of the 20th Engineers landed at New York last Friday and went from there to Camp Upton to await his discharge. He has worked for Uncle Sam faithfully in the electrical work.

Mrs. William Mitchell was called to Portage this week, the occasion being the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mitchell, who moved to Portage a short time ago.

Miss Mary Zwayner, who is a student in the California normal, spent Easter at the home of Dr. Harrington of New Salem, Fayette county, visiting there with Dr. Harrington's daughter who is also a student at the normal.

It was announced last Sunday that nearly fifteen hundred dollars of the bonds and cash for the debt of the Baptist church has already been paid in, and the balance is expected this week, which means that the church will be entirely cleared of debt.

The Danday family of Reyleys have moved to Monongahela city. Last Friday night a delightful social gathering was held in honor of the girls who are members of the Calvary chapel. Everybody enjoyed the occasion, passing the time in games, and ending with elaborate refreshments.

First Lieutenant and Chaplain Wayland Zwayner, army supply base, Norfolk, Va., held a superb Easter service in the camp last Sunday evening. There was a splendid musical program. He secured the services of some of the best singers and players of the Norfolk churches. The topic of his sermon was "The Betrayal of the Dead." Chaplain Zwayner is doing an excellent work, both as chaplain, morale officer, and in vocational and English classes. He adds much to the interest of the meetings by enlisting the services of the best talent of the churches of Norfolk.

Everybody enjoyed the occasion, passing the time in games, and ending with elaborate refreshments.

First Lieutenant and Chaplain Wayland Zwayner, army supply base, Norfolk, Va., held a superb Easter service in the camp last Sunday evening. There was a splendid musical program. He secured the services of some of the best singers and players of the Norfolk churches. The topic of his sermon was "The Betrayal of the Dead." Chaplain Zwayner is doing an excellent work, both as chaplain, morale officer, and in vocational and English classes. He adds much to the interest of the meetings by enlisting the services of the best talent of the churches of Norfolk.

Everybody enjoyed the occasion, passing the time in games, and ending with elaborate refreshments.

First Lieutenant and Chaplain Wayland Zwayner, army supply base, Norfolk, Va., held a superb Easter service in the camp last Sunday evening. There was a splendid musical program. He secured the services of some of the best singers and players of the Norfolk churches. The topic of his sermon was "The Betrayal of the Dead." Chaplain Zwayner is doing an excellent work, both as chaplain, morale officer, and in vocational and English classes. He adds much to the interest of the meetings by enlisting the services of the best talent of the churches of Norfolk.

Everybody enjoyed the occasion, passing the time in games, and ending with elaborate refreshments.

First Lieutenant and Chaplain Wayland Zwayner, army supply base, Norfolk, Va., held a superb Easter service in the camp last Sunday evening. There was a splendid musical program. He secured the services of some of the best singers and players of the Norfolk churches. The topic of his sermon was "The Betrayal of the Dead." Chaplain Zwayner is doing an excellent work, both as chaplain, morale officer, and in vocational and English classes. He adds much to the interest of the meetings by enlisting the services of the best talent of the churches of Norfolk.

Everybody enjoyed the occasion, passing the time in games, and ending with elaborate refreshments.

First Lieutenant and Chaplain Wayland Zwayner, army supply base, Norfolk, Va., held a superb Easter service in the camp last Sunday evening. There was a splendid musical program. He secured the services of some of the best singers and players of the Norfolk churches. The topic of his sermon was "The Betrayal of the Dead." Chaplain Zwayner is doing an excellent work, both as chaplain, morale officer, and in vocational and English classes. He adds much to the interest of the meetings by enlisting the services of the best talent of the churches of Norfolk.

Everybody enjoyed the occasion, passing the time in games, and ending with elaborate refreshments.

First Lieutenant and Chaplain Wayland Zwayner, army supply base, Norfolk, Va., held a superb Easter service in the camp last Sunday evening. There was a splendid musical program. He secured the services of some of the best singers and players of the Norfolk churches. The topic of his sermon was "The Betrayal of the Dead." Chaplain Zwayner is doing an excellent work, both as chaplain, morale officer, and in vocational and English classes. He adds much to the interest of the meetings by enlisting the services of the best talent of the churches of Norfolk.

J. A. SCHWAB, President. Dr. J. I. VAN WERT, Vice Pres.
LESTER LARIMER, Cashier. L. A. OVERBERGER, Asst. Cashier
JAMES WESTRICK, Vice Pres.

THE GRANGE NATIONAL BANK
Patton, Pa.

4% paid on Savings Deposits
3% paid on Time Deposits

Directors

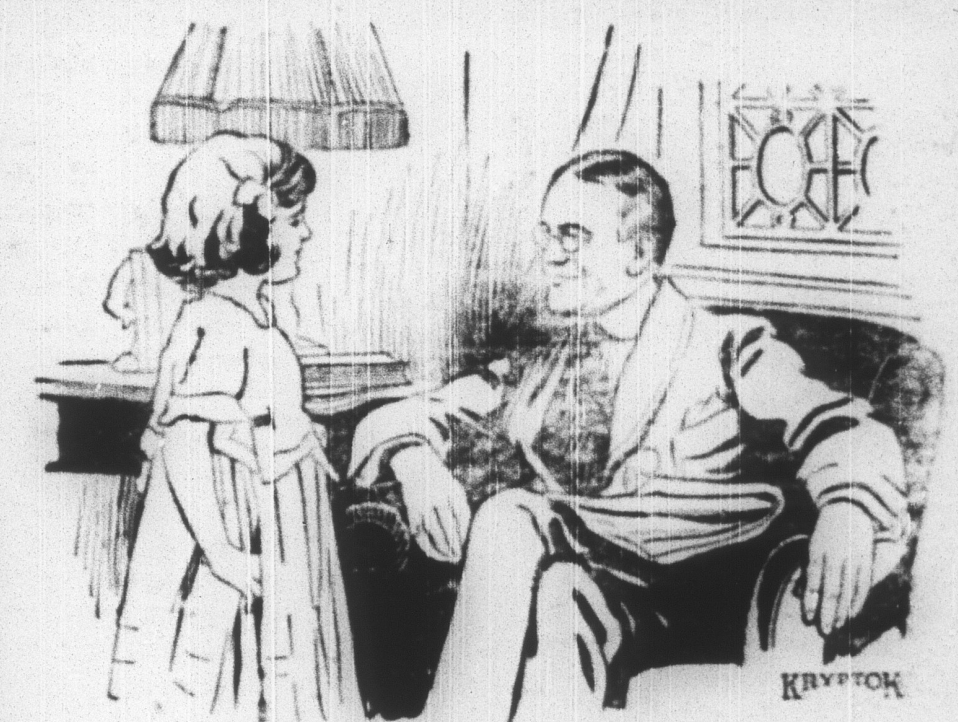

J. A. SCHWAB J. I. VAN WERT JAMES WESTRICK
T. M. SHEEHAN LESTER LARIMER A. O. SOMMERVILLE
JOHN S. MCCOY HENRY LEIDEN C. J. NOON
D. A. LUTHER LEONARD LACUE BARTH YOUNG

Lost - Strayed - or Stolen

from the owner W. J. McDermitt, at Patton April 15, 1919

Large dog with white spots.
Tag No. 125.
Finder notify W. J. McDermot, Ashville, Pa., and receive suitable reward.

"You don't look old or cross with those glasses, daddy"

That's because they are
KRYPTOK GLASSES

The Invisible Bifocals

which have no seam nor lump to blur his vision or distort his appearance.

RISHEL, SAUTER JEWELRY CO., INC.
Jewels and Optometrists

PATTON

PA.