ANCIENT, BUT STILL AMUSING!
A noted physician, particularly expeditions in examining and prescribing for his patients, was sought out by an army man whom he "polished off" in about less than no time. As the patient was leaving, he shook hands heartily with the doctor and said:

"I am especially glad to have met you, as I have often heard my father, Col. Blank, speak of you."
"What!" exclaimed the physician,
"are you old Tom's son?"
"Certainly."
"My dear fellow," cried the doctor, "sing that infernal prescription in the fire and it's down and tell me what is the matter with you."—Harper's.

FOUR BODIES ARE FOUND IN JUNIATA RIVER
Four of the bodies of men drowned in the Juniata River about ten days ago, when a small boat capsized near Lewistown, Pa., have been recovered.
The body of J. C. Corbin was found about three-quarters of a mile from the scene of the accident Sunday afternoon. Monday the bodies of Clair Miller, J. S. Barmon, and Christian Glass were recovered. The first body was about a mile from where the boat went down, the second was about two miles away, and the third about eight. All the bodies were floating when they were discovered.
The search for the other three bodies was taken up with renewed vigor Tuesday and the searchers had hopes of securing all of them.

DID LEARN SOMETHING
The stubborn optimist had declared there was no one from whom he could not learn something.
We had disputed him, and had plotted to heap confusion upon his head by shutting him in with the village bore who never knew anything for use.
After two hours with the V. B., the S. O. emerged pale, but smiling.
"Arr-harrh!" we "staringly" gloated. "Did you learn anything from him?"
"Yes," replied the optimist bravely.
"I learned what an awful thing it is to be a person from whom no one can learn anything."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.
