Preaching at 8:00, subject "Great Faith From An Unexpected Source." Notice change in hours of evening services. No Junior League through the summer season. Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening at 7:45 o'clock. Our church is as cool as any other place you can find, and the sermons will be adapted to warm weather conditions. Strangers and visitors always find a hearty welcome.

The social room of the church has been renovated, and is being fixed up for the primary department of the Sunday school. It is our purpose to make this department as pleasant and interesting as possible for the little tots. Fifty or more attend now, and we hope to have a hundred before the summer is over. Let parents who are interested bring or send your little ones, and they will be cared for. Childrens Day will soon be here and we want as large a gathering as possible for that great occasion.

ATHLETIC CARNIVAL IN JOHNSTOWN

One of the biggest athletic carnivals that has been held in Western and Central Pennsylvania in recent years will be conducted in Johnstown, July 4, on the famous Point grounds, under the auspices of the Municipal Recreation Board of Johnstown. The program includes a big track meet in the afternoon of the National holiday and a complete amateur boxing tournament in the evening.

All events will be conducted on rules of the Amateur Athletic Union and Joe Donnelly, noted A. A. U. official, as well as other prominent athletic directors connected with the Union will be on hand to conduct the events and to certify all records as official.

Hundreds of medals and prizes will be awarded to the successful athletes. Each point winner in the track meet will receive a gold, silver or bronze medal and a number of expensive cups will be awarded to winners of various events. The winning boxer in each bout will be given a valuable gold watch and the loser will receive a cup.

The feature events of the afternoon program will be the 160-yard dash, the 220-yard dash, the quarter-mile, the half-mile and mile runs and the one-mile relay. A large number of entries have already been received by Paul Deiler, well known athletic director, who is supervisor of recreation in Johnstown and who is making arrangements for the meet. Among the entries received are those from the University of Pittsburg, the Westinghouse Club, of East Pittsburg; the Bahl Club, of Sharon; the Crosson A. A., under Joe Connell; the Greensburg Y. M. C. A.; and the Cambria Steel Club and Johnstown High School of this city.

The program for the evening includes eight three-round boxing bouts, which will be conducted on a strictly amateur basis similar to the method used in military camps. Several of the best amateur boxers in the State have already sent in their entries to Mr. Deiler.

George Swyres, one of Patton's oldest and best-known citizens, died at his home Sunday, aged 89 years. He had been ill a long time, being bedridden the last two years. Death was due to general debility. He leaves one son, George Jr. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at St. Mary's Catholic church, burial being in the church cemetery.

SANKERTOWN DEFEATS PATTON

The Sankertown sluggers defeated the Patton team of base ball players last Sunday by a score of 9 to 2. The boys made only one error in the last inning. Hughes pitched a good game striking out 13, and walked two. All the Sankertown boys hit hard. Earl Parry made a home run while Cleary Loomis showed some of his clever catching in the field. The boys have a game scheduled at home this Sunday.

RESOLUTION OF RESPECT

Brother William Spanagle, Who Died May 15th, 1919

Once again the "Great Spirit" hath summoned through death a brother Red Man, to take the long trail to the Kingdom of Ponemah, to a life in the Land of the Hereafter. He has been a diligent and faithful worker in our Tribe's labors of Freedom, Friendship and Charity, and has contributed freely of aid in relieving the necessities of the widow and orphan. As a recompense of his service he has received the plaudits, Well done from the Great Spirit.

And whereas, the all wise and merciful Father has called our beloved and respected Brother home, and he having been a true and faithful member of our Mystic Order, therefore be it

Resolved that Killbuck Tribe No. 369, Order of Red Men of Patton, Pa. in testimony of our loss, tenders to the family of our deceased Brother our sincere condolence in their deep affliction, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family and printed in the Patton Courier and the Pennsylvania Grit and our Charter be draped for thirty days.

A RECORD BREAKER

The fiscal year of the Clearfield Association closed May 31st. The Patton church goes to the association with a record-breaking report. Notwithstanding the severe test brought on the work by the war through the absence of all our young men and the removal and death of others, this ninth year of Rev. Zwyer's pastorate has seen advance beyond all expectations. The greatest work of all was the clearing of the old church debt by subscriptions of Liberty Bonds and cash. The chapel has also been entirely cleared of debt. The benevolent contributors are the largest in the history of the church. We went over the top for every missionary object, the average being more than two dollars per member. The average for all purposes is more than twenty dollars per member. Such a church can look for rich blessings in future. The people both at the Patton church and the chapel are rejoicing.

RED CROSS MEETING

There will be a meeting of the Patton Red Cross at the Public School Bldg. on Tuesday evening, June 10th, 1919, at 8 P. M., at which time a complete record will be made of our work up to date, the most important business of the meeting will be to take up the question of tendering our returned soldier boys a home reception, we trust that this meeting will be well attended as this is a matter of considerable importance in which everyone should be interested.
W. H. Denlinger,
Chairman.

CHILD IS LOST

Considerable amount of excitement was stirred up Monday evening, when a child was found wandering near the Clay Works Mines. The child was too young to reveal its identity and it was not until the fire alarm was given and a general alarm given that it was discovered that the child was the 18 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Crosby, of Beech avenue who had wandered from the nurse maid, who was calling on friends and had not missed the child.
Mr. Crosby is Superintendent of the Levy Silk Mill at this place and moved his family but recently from Scranton.

Commencement Exercises

Without a doubt one of the most successful and entertaining exercises ever held in Patton, marked the close of the Public Schools and the graduation of twenty-seven seniors last Wednesday and Thursday evening. Wednesday night at the Grand Theatre, "The Captain of Plymouth" was staged by the class. The play included three acts, each with several different scenes, Eddie Golman taking the part of the boastful Captain of Plymouth, who decides to marry the fairest lass in the colony, Priscilla, Miss Gladys Fuller taking that part, but is too busy to wed her, so asks John Alden to carry his offer of marriage to her. Alden, who is in love with Priscilla himself agrees, feeling that loyalty to friendship demands that he serve his captain.

The second act is staged in Priscilla's home and later on at an Indian meeting, where the Captain and his Lieutenants are held captives by the Indians, but are saved by the Chief's daughter, who is in love with Captain Standish.

The third act is staged on a New England field where the timely arrival of Katonka straightens out the matrimonial affairs of the Plymouth colony.

The stage scenery and costumes were both suitable and elaborate and would put the majority of road shows to shame.
The cast of characters included the following:

Captain Miles Standish...Ed. Goldman
John Alden...Thomas Mitchell

Florence Reed's Latest Superpicture Raises Interesting Question
How far is character self formed, and how far is it inevitably inherited; in her latest superpicture Florence Reed, the emotional screen and stage star, plays a dual role. First she portrays a struggling young artist in the Latin Quarter of Paris, with its Bohemian life and Bohemian love. She falls into an error of conduct through human frailty. Her infant daughter, removed from every soothing that way in which the children and young people read the parts. There will also be read an account of visits to the holy places in and around Jerusalem. The recitations, songs and emblematic pieces are splendid. Come and enjoy the evening and get the blessings such a programme brings.

At 10:30 A. M. Pastor Zwyer will continue the Old Testament studies. Sunday School 2:00 P. M. Let us make the Children's Day Sunday School the largest possible. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening. Everybody is cordially invited to all meetings.

CALVARY CHURCH

Children's Day
The great day of the children has come once more. At the Calvary Baptist Chapel the day will be observed as follows: At 10:30 A. M. Sunday School as usual, but let us make it an unusually large Sunday School on Sunday by all coming out. At six o'clock in the evening the splendid programme "Garlands of Peace" will be rendered. It is fully equal to the programme of past years. There will be singing, recitations and emblematic pieces. Remember 6:00 P. M. Tell everybody about it. bring your fathers and mothers and friends with you. wonder if we will hear from our little boy in France by Sunday? We have written to him for his picture. Everybody cordially invited to all meetings.

Mrs. M. H. Gardner, wife of Burgess M. H. Gardner, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Spangler hospital last Tuesday, is very much improved.
W. J. Gill and Chas. Helst who have been undergoing treatment for rheumatism at Mt. Clemens, Mich., returned home last week, both very much improved.

Harry Jenkins visited friends in Ebensburg Wednesday evening.

HEARD THIS WEEK

THAT—John can't quite figure out with the war tax on luxuries and the moving pictures how he is going to pay for his Liberty Bond.
THAT—he stayed out until 4 o'clock Thursday morning and was lost on his way home. The next day in accounting his experience to his friends he insisted that the telephone poles were about 3 feet apart the whole distance.
THAT—Claire Smale, Dutch Noonan, Derr Winslow, Bud Winslow, Mac Denlinger, Danny Link, Patsy Callahan, Peck Kiboney, Cyril Fieber, Tubby Winslow, Fidge Larimer, Russell Commons, Sleepy Mitchell, Hayes Corbellis, Rummy Buck, Eddie Goldman, Penny Kisher, Tom Buck and Dick Lilley are sporting new 1919 straw hats; while John Campbell and Tom Cox are sporting their summer before last hats; G. Henry Miller had his last year's cleaned and the Burgess is considering the purchase of a 1920 model.

THAT—both continue going to the pictures, first he and then she and then she and then he at the question of who will go to the picture.
THAT—he is going to spot a Palm Beach suit if enough of the necessary material can be purchased because its going to take more than a little bit.

THAT—a well known Main Street business man whose hair was turning to what has always been known as aristocratic grey came down to business Monday morning with the self same hair a beautiful shade of brown.
THAT—while she is as steady, his brother took her to the dance.

THAT—it seems as if there will be two weddings among the staid folk, since each was sure it was the other fellow.
THAT—he goes to see the widow every Sunday night.

THAT—they both continue going to the pictures not nearly so often since they go together and he pays.
THAT—Dutch Noonan will probably start out with a carnival, his two trained cottes which he brought back from France being about ready for exhibition.

THAT—action should be taken by the proper authorities to prevent Harry from going back to Pittsburg for a visit, since on his last trip he wandered through the streets until 4 o'clock in the morning and it was only after he appealed to the police that he found his way back to his friends.
