She was a lassener—a girl who took all she could get out of life without giving anything. Happiness—the kind of happiness that is derived from money—was her one desire. She fell in love with a man who had so money.

One of the richest men in New York proposed to her. She was another man's pal. His wife threatened to name her as co-respondent in a divorce case. What did she do? Whom did she marry? See this delightful story with charming Alice Brady at the Majestic Thursday night.

IMPROVED UNION INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By REV. F. S. FITZWATER, D. D., Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.

LESSON FOR JUNE 22
LOVE.

LESSON TEXT—1 Cor. 13.
GOLDEN TEXT—New 13:1-3.
HOPE, LOVE, THESE THREE, BUT THE GREATEST OF THESE IS LOVE.—1 Cor. 13:13.

ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Lev. 19:18; Deut. 10:17; John 13:35; 1 John 4:7-8.
PRIMARY TOPIC—How to Show Our Love.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Whom We Should Love and How.
INTERMEDIATE TOPIC—The Greatest Thing in the World.

SENIOR AND ADULT TOPIC—The Strongest Bond Between Men and Women.

The best gift of the Holy Spirit is the love of God shed abroad in our hearts. Not all can teach, preach, work miracles, speak with tongues; but the gift of love is within reach of all. The "more excellent way" of the last verse of chapter 12 is the way of love. Love is not a mere sentiment or emotion, but a mighty dynamic which transforms the life, expressing itself in practical service to men.

1. The Pre-eminence of Love (vv. 1-3).
It transcends:
(1) Speaking with tongues. For men to possess the loftiest eloquence, to be able to speak in other languages, and to be lacking in love is to be as sounding brass and a tinkling cymbal. Pleasing and powerful speaking is desirable, but to love is better.

(2) The gift of prophecy. To disclose the events of the future, to be able to unfold all mysteries—of nature and providence—is good but to love is better.

(3) Faith of the most vigorous kind. Such as would remove mountains.

(4) Philanthropy of the most generous sort, prompting one to surrender all earthly goods for the sake of the poor.

(5) Heroism which leads even to martyrdom without love is profitless.

II. The Attributes of Love (vv. 4-7).
1. It is long-suffering and kind. It means not only to bear long but to be kind all the while. Patience is a remarkable virtue. It is much easier to bear long than to show the spirit of kindness all the while.

2. It is free from envy. Those who love are free from that envy which is engendered because of the good, or the success of others.

3. It is free from empty boasting. Love has as its supreme aim the doing of good to all and does not seek their admiration and applause.

4. It is well behaved. Love is polite and mannerly. It knows how to behave at all times.

5. It is unselfish. Love seeks the good of others and is forgetful of self.

6. Does not give way to passion. It is not quick-tempered. It is not easily aroused to resentment.

7. It takes no delight in evil; does not impute evil motives to others; is not suspicious, but forgiving.

8. It rejoices in the truth. It sympathizes with that which is true and has a common joy with it.

9. It beareth all things—that is, it incases itself with its own mantle and shuts all evil out.

10. It is trustful, hopeful and firm.
11. The Permanence of Love (vv. 8-13).

Prophecy, as prediction, will be fulfilled; prophecy, as teaching, will be brought to an end in the day when teaching is not needed. "And they shall not teach every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest" (Heb. 8:11; cf. Jer. 31:34).

Tongues shall cease, for as the languages of earth were caused by God's judgment for sin so shall Christ's redemption bring the nations back to one tongue. Knowledge shall be done away with by a wider and nobler intelligence. The twilight shall be lost in the day. Childhood shall be lost in maturity, for at Christ's coming we shall see him face to face and be like him. Love will always abide, for God is love.

The School of Gentleness.
With what infinite gentleness the Great Physician ministered to bruised reeds and broken hearts! What tender names he gave them! "Son," "Daughter!" He was never rough, never brusque, never impatient, never in a hurry! His tender approach was part of the cure. His very touch had healing power. He handled the burdens of men in such a way as to immediately make them lighter. Many a broken heart was strangely comforted by his presence even before the life had been made whole. Most surely the hospital work of our Saviour was a school of gentleness!

Do Not Shun the Light.
The man who shuns the light forfeits his own first possession of heart. He who refuses to face his worst faults the possibility of finding his best. He does not solve the question of his sinfulness; he shames it.—Percy C. Ainsworth.

Silence.
If the prudence of reserve and decorum dictates silence in some circumstances, in others prudence of a higher order may justify us in speaking our thoughts.—Burke.

WOMEN GIVE OUT

Housework is hard enough when health. Every Patton woman who is having backache, blue and nervous spells, dizzy headaches and kidney or bladder troubles, should be glad to heed this Patton woman's experience:

Mrs. A. Atkins, Linwood Avenue, says: "I had a very bad spell of kidney trouble and it came on with a pain in my back. My back ached so I could hardly get around to do my house work, and I could hardly bend over at all. I was tired all the time. After I had used the first box of Doan's Kidney Pills, I noticed quite a difference. The second box of Doan's relieved me entirely and I have never been troubled since. I am sure Doan's Kidney Pills cured me and I recommend them to any one having kidney complaint."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Atkins had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
