

ENTER CAMBRIA PRODUCE AT HARRISBURG

This County To Have Active Part in Coming Farm Products Show At Capitol.

In Harrisburg Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, January 20 to 23, there will be held the largest and most complete farm products show ever held in the state of Pennsylvania. The best farm products from every section of the state will be exhibited in competition. Advance news is to the effect that 30,000 visitors are expected to take part in the meetings that will be held in conjunction with the farm products show. Forty thousand square feet of floor space will be occupied by the exhibits. Keen competition is developing throughout the state for prizes offered for the best corn, potato, fruit, vegetable, egg, wool, butter and milk exhibits. Cambria county will be represented in the competition by an exhibit of 10 half-peck lots of potatoes and some exhibits of farm butter. The Cambria County Potato Growers' association will have a booth at the show to exhibit the kind of potatoes grown in Cambria county.

The meetings that will be held in conjunction with the farm products show will be interesting to every man, woman and child interested in agriculture. One of the most important meetings will be held in the Chestnut street auditorium, Tuesday evening, Jan. 20, at which meeting Gov. William C. Sproul will be the principal speaker. In addition to Gov. Sproul's message, State Highway Commissioner Lewis S. Sadtler will outline his program for 1920, Attorney General William I. Schaffer will talk on the state constitution revision, while Colonel Edward Martin, commissioner of health, will address the meeting on the farmer's greatest asset, good health. Hon. Frederick Rasmussen, secretary of agriculture, will preside at the Tuesday evening meeting. Secretary Rasmussen is personally known to a number of Cambria county people and all who know him appreciate the effort he is making to have this show the greatest in the history of Pennsylvania.

INVESTIGATE MANY FIRES DURING 1919

Harrisburg, Pa.—More fires were investigated in Pennsylvania in 1919 by the Fire Marshal's Department, now the Bureau of Fire Protection, than in any previous year, according to figures just announced. Exclusive of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, which have their own fire investigation systems, 10,000 fires were reported, of which the State authorities had to investigate 353.

In 112 instances no evidence of incendiarism was found. In 94 other cases not enough evidence could be obtained to start prosecutions. In 53 convictions were obtained and 14 persons were acquitted after trials. Twelve are awaiting trial and one has disappeared. Sixty-six cases are under investigation.

License Tags of 1919 are good until January 31st

Owners of automobiles who have not received their 1920 license tags will be permitted to continue to use the 1919 tags until midnight of January 31, according to information sent out last Thursday, from the State Highway Department, the days of grace for the 1919 tags being extended from midnight of the 15th of this month. Police are also notified to recognize license tags of Ohio for 30 days.

$300,000 Railroad Charter is Granted

A charter has been issued the Salt Lick Railroad Co., with a capitalization of $300,000.

The Salt Lick railroad is supposed to run a distance of 5 1/2-10 miles from a point on the proposed railway of the Cambria & Indiana railroad from Nanty-Glo to Kingston Run reservoir and ending at the banks of the Little Salt Lick creek in Jackson township. Nine of the members of the board of directors are from Cresson.

A suit has been instituted against the borough of Gallitzin by T. E. Murphy and his wife, both of Trafford, Westmoreland county, to recover the sum of $3,000 for injuries received by Mrs. Murphy and money expended by her husband for medical treatment. It is claimed that Mrs. Murphy was seriously injured as the result of a fall on a street in Gallitzin July 22, 1919. The plaintiffs allege that the borough negligently permitted a stretch of sidewalk on Craig street, Gallitzin, to become unstable.

Washington, D. C.—The second resignation from the Senate sub-committee investigating Bolshevik activities in this country took place, when Senator Knox, Republican, Pennsylvania, asked to be relieved because of the illness of his wife.

REPORTS OF VIOLATIONS OF HIGHWAY LAW DUE

Failure To Make Quarterly Returns Punishable By Fine or Imprisonment.

Under section 35 of the act of June 30, 1919, burgesses, magistrates, justices of the peace or other officers are required to make quarterly reports of all fines and penalties collected for violations of the law, and these returns must be made to the state highway commissioner.

The first of these reports for 1920 is now due. The act provides that reports must be filed Jan. 10, April 10, July 10, and Oct. 10, of each year. Failure to make such quarterly reports or returns is deemed a misdemeanor in office and is punishable by a fine of not less than $100 and no more than $500, or imprisonment in the county jail for 60 days or both, at the discretion of the court.

The state highway department under the act of June 30, 1919, furnishes the forms on which the reports are to be made; and no other form will be accepted.

The fines and penalties collected under the provisions of this act, except those as to speed or weight of cars are to be paid to the state treasurer to be placed in a deposit fund available for the use of the state highway department. The collections for violations of the provisions as to speed and weight are paid to the treasurer of the city, borough, town or township in which a violation occurred, to be used for the construction, repair and maintenance of the highways of those districts.

Under the terms of section 34 of the act, every mayor, burgess, magistrate, alderman, or justice of the peace shall, in every case arising under this act, make, and preserve for the period of one year, an exact record of the proceedings showing fine and costs paid, if any, which shall be subject to inspection on demand of any person.

The mayor, burgess, magistrate, alderman, or justice of the peace shall deliver, with out charge to the defendant, a receipt, showing in detail the amount of fine and costs imposed upon and paid by him.

No mayor, burgess, magistrate, alderman, or justice of the peace shall divide the fees of his office with any constable or other officer or with any individual not an officer or with any individual not an officer, who may assist in making an arrest or furnish evidence in any case arising under this act.

Charles E. Brown, of Hastings, was removed to one of the Philadelphia hospitals Monday morning, where he will take treatment. Mr. Brown has been confined to his bed for the past month. It is hoped that it will not be long until he is among his friends again. His brother, Orrin Brown accompanied him.

FOIL BOMB PLOT

Colver Mine Supt. Carries Huge Bomb from His Porch and Explodes It With Rifle.

What was evidently an attempt upon the life of David Fleming, superintendent of the Ebensburg Coal Co., of Colver, was made Friday morning when a huge bomb, contained in a packing case, was found on the porch of the Fleming home.

Suspicious of the contents of the box, Fleming carried it to a field 500 yards from his home and fired into it with a high powered rifle. A violent explosion followed, which tore a large hole in the earth and shattered windows in the Fleming home.

The exact contents of the box could not be ascertained, as the explosion destroyed any mechanism that it might have contained. Dynamite evidently was the explosive used. It is believed that had the explosion taken place on the spot where the box was first placed, the Fleming residence would have been reduced to wreckage. That the death of members of the family would have resulted is certain.

The box containing the bomb first was discovered by Robert Fleming, a son. It stood directly in front of a door leading to the porch. The boy immediately notified his father and together they carried the box to the field.

An ordinary packing case, about 8 by 10 by 12 inches, was used. The box evidently had contained a proprietary medicine.

Mr. Fleming last night stated he is at a loss to explain the attempt upon his life and that of his family. So far as he knows, he said, he has no enemies among the men with whom he works. Chief of Police L. S. Crouse of Colver, began an immediate investigation, but last night had made no arrests. It is said that the person or persons who placed the bomb on the Fleming porch left no clue to their identity, and were not seen by anyone so far as can be ascertained.

No threatening letters were received by Mr. Fleming, he said. In fact, he stated, he had no intimation he had incurred the enmity of anyone in the vicinity.

A new organization which is to be known as "Community Girls' Club," was formed at Colver Tuesday evening, at a meeting held at the home of Mrs. S. B. Wixon. A club room has been secured and it will be open every evening during the week day and from 3 p. m. to 6 p. m. on Sundays. The club is under the direction of about 20 prominent women of Colver, who will instruct the young girls in sewing, basket-weaving, gymnasium work, dramatic work, etc. Mrs. Wixon was chosen Chairman of the senior members. Miss Dora Chilton was chosen President of the Junior members. There are about 40 girls enrolled in the club.
