

Patton Personal Briefs

Send Us Every Item You Know, and Help Swell This Department.

Tick Quinn is able to be about again after a short illness.

John Delozier has returned from a business trip to Pittsburgh.

Henry Leiden, of St. Lawrence, was a Patton business caller last week.

Andrew Rbody was a business caller in Patchinville, last Friday.

G. A. Clark, of Puncsutawney, transacted business in town Thursday.

P. W. Price, of Pittsburgh, called on trade here Friday.

C. L. Bone, of Spangler, transacted business in town Friday.

D. W. Walker, of Mahaffey, called on Patton friends last week.

W. H. Hoover, of Harrisburg, called on Patton trade last week.

B. F. Frazer, of Tyrone, transacted business here recently.

W. H. Patterson, of Johnstown, spent Thursday as a Patton visitor.

T. E. Bergh, of Ebensburg, was a recent business transactor here.

C. Geisman, of Pittsburgh, was a trade caller in Patton last week.

A. M. Steckman, of Altoona, was a Patton business caller Tuesday last.

Mrs. Charles Fletcher, of Hastings, called on Patton friends last week.

Dr. H. S. Harding, of Westover, called on his many friends Thursday last week.

Last Saturday night, a sled load from St. Boniface, attended the dance in town.

Mary Elizabeth and Bernard Flynn spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. D. R. Lovette, in Hastings.

J. E. Weaver, of Davidsville, Pa., well-known in Patton, was circulating in town Wednesday.

George B. Keller, of Altoona, was seen in Patton Wednesday of last week.

D. Deitrick and E. Brown, both of Clearfield, spent Wednesday afternoon in Patton on business.

D. F. Davis, of Johnstown, was among those registered at the Palmer House on Wednesday last.

Charles P. Kufron, of St. Louis Mo., spent Thursday in town on a business mission.

Lawyer Sommerville was in Ebensburg Wednesday transacting legal business.

Mrs. Don Coulter has as her guest this week her cousin, Miss Shankwiler, of Akron, Ohio.

J. Edward Stevens, the Carrolltown undertaker, was a business caller in Patton last Friday afternoon.

The Courier's subscription list is growing by leaps and bounds. Are you a subscriber?

"Pindie" Larimer, of Ebensburg, spent Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Larimer.

J. E. Donaghy, of Ehrenfeld, was in Patton on a business mission last Saturday.

Lewis Jones, of Ebensburg, was among the out-of-town callers in our town last Friday.

P. G. Moses, of Johnstown, transacted business in Patton on Thursday.

The Keystone Diamond Drilling Company have one of their drilling machines located on the Wentz farm near Carrolltown.

Charles Heist, who has been confined to his home this winter on account of rheumatism, is improving nicely, but still unable to be out.

Miss Mary Fitzpatrick, who has been employed by the Bell Telephone Company, at Elmira, N. Y., has returned to her home in this place.

Mrs. David Kline and Miss Clara Bender of Hastings, were visiting Patton friends the latter part of the week.

Among the out-of-town visitors noticed in Patton the latter part of last week, was Norman P. Urcan, of Indiana, Pa.

Mr. Burch, the general superintendent of the Commercial Mining Company at Big Bend, was a business caller in town last Wednesday.

Mrs. Jennie A. Sanker spent the latter part of the week visiting with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Buck, of Cresson.

A number of persons from the Calvary Chapel and Baptist church attended the Forward Movement conference at Westover last week.

George F. Davis, one of Pattons most respected citizens, fell on the ice last week and received a painful injury. Mr. Davis is improving nicely.

Blair L. Kelly, the local tailor, has been confined to his home the past week, suffering from a severe attack of grippe. Mr. Kelly was taken suddenly ill when returning from a business trip to Baltimore.

Gib Tozer, of LaJose, was attracted to Patton on Sunday.

Paul Strong, of Bakerton, was among the callers in Patton Saturday.

Henry Hoppel, of Spangler, was a pleasure caller here Saturday evening.

J. E. Emmitt, of Bellwood, was noticed on our streets last Thursday.

J. S. Barry, of Puncsutawney, spent Thursday in town.

Mrs. H. C. Yeager was a Carrolltown caller Tuesday.

A. A. Grumblin, of Cherry Tree, was a Patton business caller Monday.

Glen Gates, of Coalport, spent Saturday among Patton friends.

Joe Delozier was a business caller in Johnstown on Friday.

Philip Catfield, of Johnstown, was a business caller in town Monday.

Mrs. Maud Richards visited Cresson and Wehrum friends last week.

Mrs. Dan Wilkie spent Sunday with friends in Westover.

Steele Clark, of Hastings, spent Monday in Patton on business.

Miss Jane Paterick spent Sunday at her home in Hastings.

Andrew Kingsberry, of Philadelphia, was a recent business transactor in Patton.

Frank J. Hollar and Frank A. Herab, of Altoona, were recent guests at the Palmer House.

W. G. Reighardt, of Altoona, was in Patton Thursday in the interest of his firm.

Isaac Straw, of Westover, was renewing acquaintances in Patton on Thursday of last week.

Miss Marie Sanker spent Tuesday afternoon as the guest of Carrolltown friends.

H. A. Weakland, of Carrolltown, was registered at the Palmer House Monday.

Mrs. Fred Smithbower spent the week-end with relatives and friends in Cresson and Altoona.

Miss Marie Anna, of Hastings, spent Sunday in town, the guest of Miss Bertha Farabaugh.

Dr. Sommerville, of Chest Springs, spent Monday with his brother, Lawyer Sommerville.

Mrs. William Denlinger, Jr., and Miss Anna Mary, were callers in Carrolltown Saturday afternoon.

Miss Ada Winslow has accepted the position at the Patton Clay Works, vacated by Miss Elvina Kane.

Mrs. John Kuhnley and Mrs. Clark Black, were Johnstown shoppers last Thursday.

Miss Gertie DeLawder, of Cresson, and Mrs. Bixler, of Phillipsburg, were visitors in town last Friday.

Clutton LeComte and family, attended the funeral of the former's brother, Richard LeComte, on Saturday.

Russell Williams, a former Patton resident, who now resides in Houston, Pa., is seriously ill of pneumonia.

Miss Margaret Miller, of Hastings, is spending the week with Jessie Montleth.

W. L. Thompson, the well known clothier of town, is suffering from an attack of grippe, this week.

Mr. Glen Humphrey, of Johnstown, attended the funeral of his brother, Norman Humphrey, in town, on Tuesday.

Rev. D. L. Ott, Methodist minister, who has been confined to his home this week, suffering from a severe attack of grippe, is able to be about again.

Mr. Alex. Montleth has been confined to his home on 5th avenue this week, suffering from a severe attack of grippe.

Miss Porter, a former manager of the 5 & 10 cent store in town, spent the week with Mr. and Mrs. Simpson, at their home on 5th avenue.

F. E. Law, of Cresson, well-known in the north of the county, was in Patton last week and while here was registered at the Palmer House.

Don't forget the N. N. N. Club Minstrel this Thursday evening. An enjoyable time for your money is assured.

J. S. Sprout, of Ashville, was among the many out-of-town people noticed on the streets of Patton Saturday.

Mrs. Bertha Marton, and Mrs. Flora Havar, both of Altoona, were among the visitors in Patton Thursday of last week.

Mrs. John Dingle was taken suddenly ill at her home last Friday night, but was somewhat improved at this writing.

The ground hog saw his shadow Monday. The poor animal found that it was unnecessary to come all the way out of his hibernating place, as the sun was there to greet him as soon as his head appeared.

Charles Swab is able to be about again after a short illness.

Mr. Carson, who put in the new machinery for the Patton Silk Mills, left for his home last week.

Mrs. Norman Stewart, of Brookville, Pa., is a guest at the home of Mrs. Winslow.

Peter and Henry Farabaugh, of East Carroll township, were in Patton on business Tuesday.

Wendell Larimer, of Ebensburg, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Larimer.

John Farabaugh, of near Bradley Junction, was a business caller in Patton Tuesday.

A number of Patton folks attended the funeral of Miss Deitrick at Carrolltown on Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sincos spent Sunday with relatives in Winborne and vicinity.

Barney Blansfield and Harry Kusner spent some time in Johnstown last week. Both claim the city still has the same appearance.

Rev. Salter, of Altoona, former pastor of the Methodist church, of Patton, visited with Patton friends the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Samuel Weakland, Mrs. Sue Wentz Kelly, and Miss Leiden, attended the funeral of Mrs. Frank Arhart in Carrolltown Wednesday morning.

H. J. Krummacker and son, Gilbert, of near Nicktown, were in attendance at the meeting of the Farmers' Telephone Company here Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell have gone to Bakerton where they will take up housekeeping in the near future. Mr. Campbell is employed by the Sterling Coal Company.

Miss Larue Turnbull has accepted the position as manager of the Co-operative store during the absence of a permanent manager. The new manager is expected Monday.

The Patton W. C. T. U. have been supporting an orphan in France and at their meeting last Monday it was decided to adopt another of these little ones.

All job work executed by the Courier is guaranteed to satisfy you. We understand the business and can do a job that will be a credit to your business. Give the new Courier a trial.

John, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kuhnley, who has been seriously ill of pneumonia is getting along nicely and is out of danger at the present time.

The new board of trustees elected last week for the Baptist church, consists of the following: George F. Davis, Frank Fregley, Daniel Peters, T. H. Whitehead and John Simpson.

Miles White, Samuel Byers, Glenn Gates and James Peacock, came up from Coalport on a business and pleasure mission last Saturday and while in town registered at the Palmer House.

The members of the Junior Class of the Patton High school, enjoyed a sleighing party to Barnesboro and Spangler last Thursday night. They were accompanied by the Misses Leiden and Wirtner, teachers in the High School.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Trinkle, former Patton people, who now reside in Hillwood, will be glad to know that the Stork visited their home Friday 23, and left twin boys, both mother and babies are doing fine.

J. W. Madigan, of Greensburg, who at present is located in Carrolltown, spent Monday as a Patton business visitor. Mr. Madigan has charge of the construction work on the Carrolltown-Patton brick road, as well as the Bradley Junction road.

At a monthly meeting of the O. E. S. held last Tuesday, a good sized class was initiated. About fifty members were present and all arrangements were made for their annual banquet to be held at the Brandon Hotel on February 20th.

Washington, D. C.—Repairs of hats worn by soldiers of the army are to be made hereafter at Camp Taylor Machinery has been installed and corps of operators has been engaged for the purpose. It is expected that there will be a saving through this new activity.

D. K. RISHEL, The Graduate Optometrist

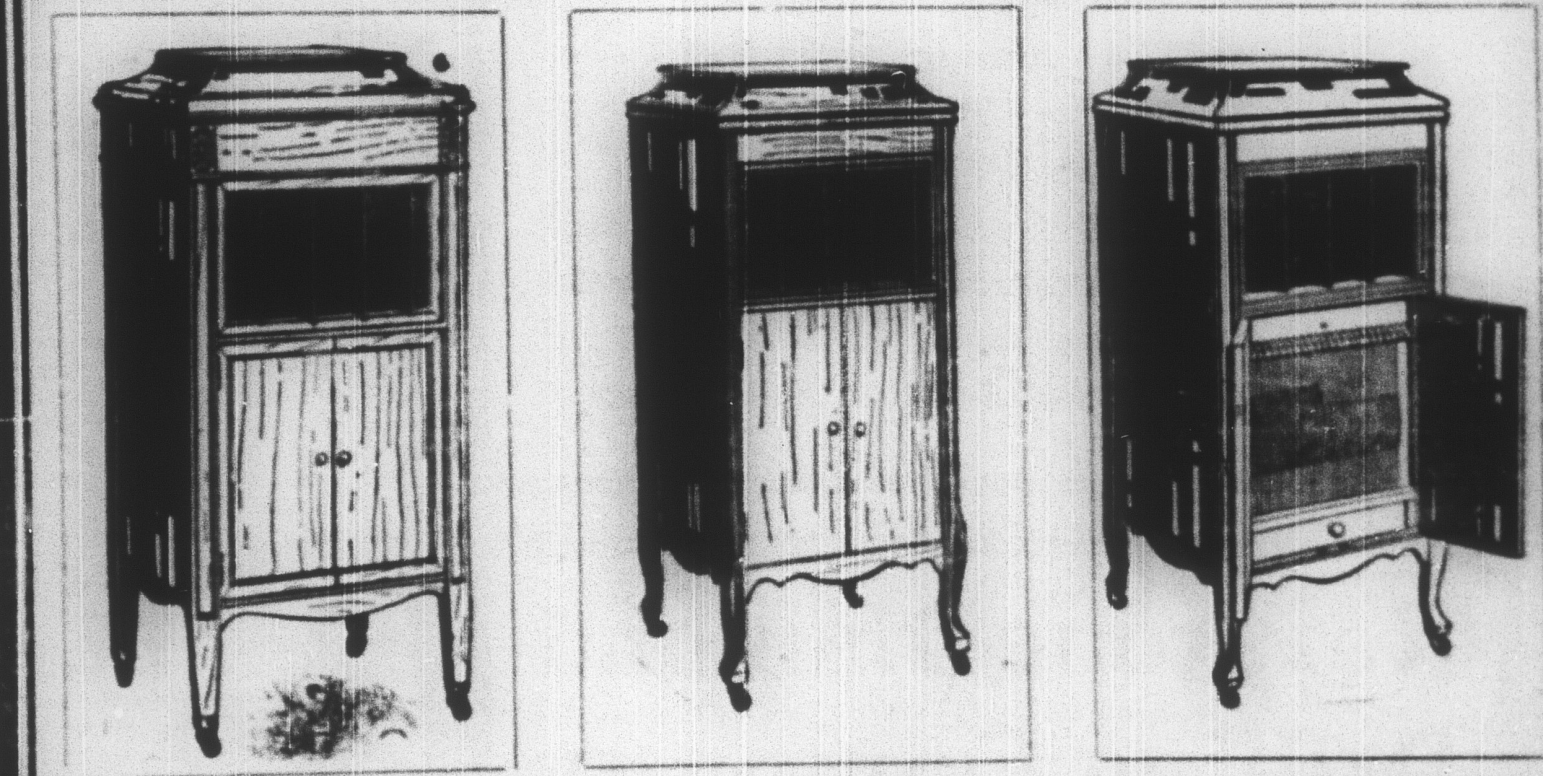

They Don't Look Like Double Vision Glasses, Do They?

That's because they are

Kryptox Glasses

THE INVISIBLE BIFOCALS WITH NO HUMPS OR SEAMS

Our desire to win your satisfaction is our constant incentive to be minutely thorough in all that we do for you. We can better satisfy you because all our work is executed under one system and one roof.

Latest and Complete Line of Records

Machines sold on small deposit with ten monthly installments.

Rishel-Sauter Jewelry Co.

Patton, Pa.

WANT ADS.

WANTED—Girl for general housework. Apply to Mrs. Fred Blankenhorn, Patton, Pa.

WANTED—A good scrub woman. Apply to G. G. Giattas, Candy Kitchen.

FOR SALE—A Studebaker Six. Seven passenger car. In fine condition. Good reason for selling. Inquire of Rene D. Beunier, Rural Mail Carrier, Route 2. 3p-F19

WANTED—Good girl for general housework. Good wages to right party. Apply Mrs. Rose Kusner, Patton, Pa.

FOR SALE—An 8-room house. Inquire of Mr. Jerry Flynn, Patton, Pa. 3p-F13

NOTICE! Pay your dog tax and get your tag for 1926 from Binder & Starrett. All dogs must wear a tag. 3c-J29

FOR SALE. Ten-room house, near Silk Mill. Reasonable payments. Address L. J. Bearer, Hastings, Pa. F53tpd