

Patton Personal Briefs

Send Us Every Item You Know, and Help Swell This Department.

Miss Thomasine Holter spent Sunday at her home in Cherry Tree.

Leo Maurer was a business caller in Mahaffey, recently.

Miss Gladys Fuller spent last Wednesday with friends in Hastings.

Russell Commons was a caller in Hastings last Monday.

Miss Loretta Prindible spent Tuesday evening with friends in Hastings.

Mrs. John Campbell, was a Johnson shopper Friday.

Derr Winslow spent the latter part of last week with friends in Lock Haven.

Mrs. Ed. Wine, of Altoona, is spending the week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. John Delozier, of Palmer avenue.

A marriage license has been granted to Miss Ruth Shankwiler and Martin Brown, both of town.

Miss Marie Sanker was a Carrolltown shopper last Wednesday afternoon.

Misses Ruth Noonan, Margaret Frank and Marian Geist, were Johnson shoppers Friday.

Mrs. A. C. Winslow and sister Mrs. Stewart, of Brookville, were Johnson shoppers last Thursday.

George Woomer has been confined to his home for a couple of days, suffering from a severe cold.

Joseph Delozier has accepted a position as druggist in Johnstown and began his new work Monday.

John Dinsmore is able to be about again after a short illness which confined him to his home.

Mrs. Howard Woomer spent Sunday with her daughter Mrs. E. T. Williams, Jr., of Bakerton.

Glenn Dull and Rudy Miller, of Hastings, spent Sunday evening in town.

Frank Fuller, the outside foreman of 28 mines, has his leg broken while at work Saturday morning.

Mrs. Arthur Commons and Mrs. James McAlarney and daughter Olive, of Hastings, spent a couple of days last week with relatives and friends in town.

Mr. Robert Swopes and mother, Mrs. Lena Swopes, spent last week at the Noel home in Hastings.

Mrs. J. R. Cornelius, and Mrs. Robert Morrow, of Altoona, spent last Tuesday in Hastings.

Mrs. John Noonan spent several days last week with friends in Burnesboro.

John Campbell, of Bakerton, attended the N. N. N. Club Minstrel last Thursday night.

Miss Ruth Monteith, who has been suffering from a nervous breakdown, for some time, is slowly improving.

Mrs. John Delozier is confined to her home on 5th avenue, suffering from a severe attack of grippe.

Dr. C. I. Baldwin is able to attend to his practice again, after a short illness.

E. A. Bailey, of Connellsville, spent Wednesday in Patton on a business mission.

Blair Kelly who has been confined to his home for the past week suffering from a severe attack of grippe, is able to be about again.

W. L. Thompson, the local clothier who has been suffering from a slight attack of grippe, is able to attend to his business duties again.

Chief of police, Gill, who has been confined to his home with a severe cold, is able to be about again, and attend to his business duties.

A. N. Smith, of Jersey Shore, was among the many out of town people who were in Patton on business last week.

The High School boys have organized a club and taken up headquarters in the Good building. John Maycoch has been elected president of the club, and Frederick Morey the vice president.

Mrs. James Monteith was called to her home near Ebensburg last week on account of the serious illness of her father, Mr. Fleming and brother "Bill."

E. C. Poorman, the cigar man, of Patton, was seen about Patton Wednesday of last week and we expect the smoke of Poorman's cigars will be flying in all sections of the town soon.

M. J. Maurey, of Philadelphia, called on Patton trade Friday.

V. R. Martin, of Altoona, called on Patton trade Wednesday.

V. R. Maurey, of Ebensburg, transacted business in Patton Tuesday.

John R. Dale, and Ralph E. Morris, of Altoona, were recent business visitors in Patton.

Miss Anna Fitzpatrick, saleslady in Ratowsky's Department Store, has been on the sick list this week.

K. L. Storm, of Altoona, transacted business in Patton on Wednesday of last week.

Miss Carrie Short, who has been a student at Pierce's Business School, in Philadelphia, in spending this week at her home in this place.

W. M. Prosser, of Philadelphia, was a Patton business visitor several days last week. He has a new car, which was registered at the Palmer House.

Joseph Delozier, who was to have taken charge of his work in Johnstown, Monday, is managing the Gunn Drug Store during the absence of Dr. Davis.

A. H. Woodward, George W. Gardner, and F. W. Klenzauer, all of Pittsburgh, were seen wending their way through the deep snows of Patton last week, and incidentally, conducting a little business.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ratowsky, of Burnesboro, announce the birth of a son, Friday, Feb. 6th. The new gentleman tipped the scales at 11 1/4 pounds. Mother and child are doing nicely. Mrs. Ratowsky was formerly Miss Grace Brenner of town.

The Misses Loretta Prindible, Mae Yeager, June Rhoody, Mary Jane Buck, Esther Fisher and Aenes Palchio, and The Messrs. Joe Kelsall, Pidge Larimer, Hayes Cornelius, and John Prindible, attended the dance at Hastings last Wednesday.

Early in the Spring, just after the frost is leaving the ground is the time to use the road drugs. It might be well for the supervisors in the townships adjacent to Patton to get them in readiness for service as the road drugs are a great incentive toward good, passable roads.

Home trade is one of the essentials of every thriving community, and in trading at home let us advise you that the Courier is in a position to handle anything in the job printing line. When needing that little order give us a call and trial.

J. Edwin Farley, of Indiana, a former Patton resident, was reviewing acquaintances in town this week. Mr. Farley is a member of the firm of Parnell & Cowber and has charge of the Indiana branch of that well-known insurance agency.

C. C. Watson, of Clearfield, had business in Patton Friday.

H. C. Smith, of Columbus, Ohio called on trade in Patton Friday last.

Serenus Miller, of near Carrolltown, had business in Patton Monday.

R. A. Campbell, of Dysart, was among the visitors in town Saturday.

Mrs. Harry Gartin is improving after a severe attack of grippe.

Charles T. Lies, of Punxsunawney was among the several who were in town on business Thursday.

F. K. Wood and C. Murray, of Clearfield, were Patton visitors last Thursday.

J. P. McLaughlin, of Dubois, called on Patton business friends last Friday.

Among the out-of-town visitors of last Friday, was Hammute Kramer, of Manor, Pa.

E. E. Brillhart, of Cherry Tree, was a visitor to the best town in the north of the county Saturday.

Undertaker H. S. Buck was a business caller in Pittsburgh on Saturday.

Mrs. David Buchanan, of Carrolltown, was a Patton shopper Tuesday afternoon.

Nate Brenner, of Spangler, spent Monday in town renewing acquaintances.

J. R. Hayes, of Pittsburgh, was calling on trade in Patton, the early part of the week.

G. C. Squires, of Springfield, Mass., spent Tuesday as a business caller in Patton.

Luther J. Kline, Mr. Rishell's assistant, spent Sunday at his home in State College.

Miss Maude McCulley, of Westover, spent the week with her sister Mrs. John Sauter.

Mrs. John Sauter has been confined to her home the past week suffering of an attack of grippe.

J. S. Sprout, of Ashville, braved the deep snows of last week and came to Patton. Mr. Sprout was registered at the Palmer House while here.

Mrs. J. Reed Cornelius, of Patton, visited her parents here a couple of days last week.—Houtdale Citizen.

Mr. Shank, of near Nicktown, was a business caller in town Monday afternoon.

J. G. By, of the Penn Central office at Spangler, was a caller in Patton Wednesday.

Mrs. W. A. Dinsmore spent Monday with her sister Mrs. Ray Brown, of Burnesboro.

I. S. Hummel, of Ebensburg, was a Patton visitor Monday. While here Mr. Hummel attended the meeting of the farmers at the Palmer House.

W. J. Strittmatter, proprietor of the local Garage, at Ebensburg, was a pleasure caller to Patton last Saturday.

Houses are in demand in Patton these days, according to reports. In fact this seems to be the case lately all over this section of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Dinsmore have returned to their home in Punxsunawney, after a pleasant visit with relatives in town.

Phil Fair, well-known in Patton was calling on the merchants of town Tuesday in the interests of the Leonard Miller Wholesale House.

Alex. Strittmatter and J. A. Farabaugh, of Ebensburg, R. D. 1, were among the many farmers in attendance at the meeting of the Farm Bureau at the Palmer House Monday.

Rev. Father Doggan, of Chest Springs, was a caller among his many friends and acquaintances in Patton Tuesday afternoon.

W. S. Dodd, who had been spending some time in Patton, was called to Philadelphia last week owing to the death of his mother. Mr. Dodd returned to Patton Monday.

J. F. Bartley, formerly of Patton, now traveling for the Anderson Paper and Twine Company, out of Altoona, was renewing acquaintances here Tuesday, and incidentally, also calling on his Patton trade.

Rev. Ott spent Tuesday evening in Burnesboro, at which place he preached at the revival services in the Methodist church. He also called on his son, Prof. E. Ott, principal of the High school while there.

Miss Rose Tate, a teacher in our local schools has returned from Latrobe, where she buried her sister Mrs. Louis Galaridi, who died of pneumonia. Met. Galaradi leaves two children.

"Jerry" Hayes and "Patie" Weakland, of Carrolltown, simply cannot stay away from Patton. It seems deep snow has no terrors to them. They were here again on Saturday night as usual.

In last week's Courier we mentioned the fact that Miss Stella Meuss was the winner of the first prize, at the Firemen's ball. We have since been informed that Augusta Nuss was the lucky person. Also that Frank Chevrolet received the second prize awarded the men.

The heavy snow fall last Wednesday practically blockaded all the roads around Patton, thus wiping her off the map. The street car did not succeed in getting into town until 5:30 o'clock. The employees in the Peale

Coal office in St. Benedict thus were afforded a holiday, as they depend on the street car for transportation.

Taxpayers of Patton will be assisted in making out their income tax returns this year by deputy tax collectors sent out from the Pittsburgh office of the collector of internal revenues. Deputies Gardner and Cartwright, of that place, will be at the First National Bank, Patton, on the first and second days of March. If you are undetermined as to the procedure necessary, call at the bank on those days.

RATOWSKY'S

Dollar Day Sales

Friday : Saturday : Monday

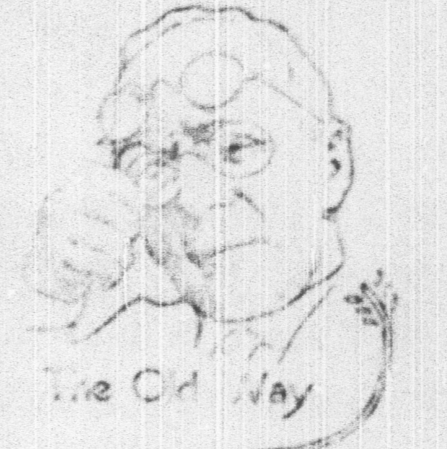

February 13th, 14th and 15th

Don't fail to attend Patton's greatest dollar sale. Smashing sharp reductions in every department in our large store. Make your dollar do double duty.

Men's $2.50 All-wool Shirts and Drawers for	$1.00	$1.50 Linoleum for	$1.00
Heavy dark and light Outings, 4 yards for	$1.00	Men's $1.50 Rubbers for	$1.00
White Lawn Waists, 2 for	$1.00	$4.00 to $5.00 Ladies' and Misses' Hats	$1.00
$1.00 Table Linen, 2 yards for	$1.00	One lot Children's School Dresses, worth $2.50, for	$1.00
40c Percales, 4 yards for	$1.00	Boys' $1.75 Knee Pants for	$1.00
Colgates Talcum Powder, 5 boxes for	$1.00	50c Table Oil Cloth, 3 yards for	$1.00

RATOWSKY'S Dept. Store,
Patton, Penna.

If You Have Ever Said to Yourself:

The Old Way

The KRYPTOK Way

"I'm tired of scowling over my reading glasses," or
 "I'm tired of fussing with two pairs of glasses. (One for near vision and one for far vision)," or
 "I wish I didn't have to wear these cumbersome affairs that make me look old,"

—you are just the person we hope this little story of KRYPTOK Glasses will reach, for KRYPTOKs will end your eyeglass troubles just as they have already ended them for many of our other patrons.

Tell your eyesight troubles to us. If, upon proper examination, we find that glasses will not improve your vision, we will advise you to that effect.

Please feel that we are glad to serve your every optical need. You can rely on us as optical specialists.

M. H. Gardner

Optometrist

TOZER JEWELRY CO. PATTON, PA.

"Sometime-- I'm Going to Have An Electric Washer."

—that's the decision of every American housewife who needs this labor-saver to lighten the home work. What she seeks is results—year-after-year satisfaction—not mere possession.

This attitude of discriminating women is responsible for the tremendous popularity of the A-E-C line of Electric washing machines.

Every woman, when buying a washing machine, should consider it an investment from which she will receive dividends not only in money actually saved each week, but in genuine satisfaction and efficient service.

Let us show you these great labor-savers and place our easy terms of payment.

Binder & Starrett,

Patton, Pa.