

Patton Personal Briefs

Send Us Every Item You Know, and Help Swell This Department.

J. S. Barry, of Punxsutawney, called on Patton business men last week.

J. T. Nelson, of Altoona, was a caller in Patton, Thursday last week.

A. Barnhart, of Clearfield, spent Thursday in Patton.

F. L. Troxell, of Johnstown, was in Patton Friday last on business.

E. Schmidt, of Scranton, called on trade in Patton Friday.

C. P. Olin, of Philadelphia, called on trade here Thursday.

Nate Brenner, of Spangler, called on Patton friends on Monday.

Mrs. Louie Richards is able to be about again after a short illness.

J. Moran, of Pittsburgh, called on Patton business friends last week.

Wm. F. Hesterkamp, of Pittsburgh, was in Patton last week on business.

A. W. Covell, of Corry Pa., was calling on trade in Patton last week.

Charles Wolfe of La Jose, was a Patton visitor recently.

Mr. James Healy, Jr., is improved after a slight attack of grippe.

Tom Bradley, of Gallitzin, was a visitor in town Monday.

Mr. Elmer Smale has been on the sick list the past week.

Harry Gailor, of Indiana, was a business caller in town Tuesday.

Edward Little is again able to be about following an attack of grip.

Mrs. Blaire L. Kelley, was a business caller in Johnstown on Tuesday.

Thomas Buck was a business caller in Bakerton Monday.

J. E. Witherspoon, of Johnstown called on trade in Patton Monday.

J. J. Bradley, of Johnstown, called on trade here Monday.

Mac Denlinger spent last Tuesday evening at the Binder home in Hastings.

E. O. Bidwell, of Altoona, paid Patton a visit on Wednesday of last week.

R. H. Yeager, of DuBois, was a business caller in Patton on Thursday of last week.

Mrs. John Adams, who had been visiting relatives at St. Augustine, has returned to her home in Altoona.

Mrs. John Lezotier, who has been seriously ill at her home at St. Augustine, is slowly improving.

J. Bechhofer, of Altoona, braved the wintery snows of last week, and called on trade in Patton.

Charles Wilson, of Franklin borough, was calling on friends and acquaintances in Patton Friday last.

R. N. Smith, of Jersey Shore, was a Patton business transactor last Friday afternoon.

L. J. McConville, of Cranson, had business in Patton Friday of last week.

Harry Litzinger, of Johnstown, made a business trip to Patton Thursday of last week.

Mrs. G. J. Fitzpatrick attended the funeral of her nephew in Cranson, Saturday.

Mr. M. H. Gardner transacted business in Pittsburgh several days last week.

Mrs. Elsie Sandrine, is seriously ill at her home on Beech avenue, suffering from pneumonia.

Miss Jane Patrick spent last Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Jessie Patrick, of Hastings.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Parnell and son Gilbert, of Indiana, spent Sunday with the Brown family on Beech ave.

W. H. Martin was called to Frostburg, Md., on Friday on account of the death of his brother.

Miss Rachael Gwynn is able to attend to her duties as teacher in the public school, after a short illness.

Isadore Overberger, assistant cashier of the Grange National Bank, is ill at his home in town.

Mrs. Jenkins is suffering a severe attack of grippe at the home of her son Ed. Jenkins, of Beech avenue.

Fred Maurer, of the Caldwell Smokeless Coal Co., was a business caller in town on Tuesday.

Mrs. A. C. Fisher is improving after an illness at her home on Fifth avenue.

Miss Marguerite Fisher, is confined to her home on Fifth avenue, suffering from a severe attack of quinsy.

Mrs. F. E. Farbaugh is confined to her home this week with a severe attack of grippe.

Jerry Hayes and Harold Weakland, of Carrolltown, were week-end visitors in Patton.

Mrs. James Montieth attended the funeral of Mrs. Virginia Mannion, of Ebensburg, the other day.

Mrs. William Simpson, who has been seriously ill at her home, is improving nicely.

Mrs. Howard Dinsmore has returned to her home here, after a short visit with relatives in Punxsutawney.

C. W. Miller, of Williamsport, was among the out-of-town visitors here on Wednesday.

W. C. Dahynple, of DuBois, called on acquaintances in town Wednesday and also transacted a little business.

H. P. Mullen, of Johnstown, was in Patton Thursday on a business mission.

W. L. Matter, of Altoona, spent a couple of days last week in Patton, being here on business matters.

William Milton and T. A. Jackson, of Pittsburgh, were recent registrants at the Palmer House.

John Van Pelt, of Johnstown, was a Patton trade caller the latter part of the week.

C. I. Dietrick, of Hastings, was a Patton visitor for a few hours last Thursday.

Clarence Austin, formerly of Patton, but now of Clearfield, was in town on Tuesday.

Mrs. Ada Lieb, of Connellsville, is spending the week with her parents, Squire and Mrs. James Mellon.

Joseph Burgart, of Altoona, transacted business in Patton the first of the week.

F. B. Campbell and G. A. Raffetts, of Punxsutawney, were registered at the Palmer House Monday.

E. E. Brillhart, of Cherry Tree, was a caller among Patton friends Saturday evening.

Mrs. Charles Wolfe, of La Jose, attended the Eastern Star meeting in town Tuesday evening.

F. B. Morey, of the Spot Cash store, was a Carrolltown visitor on Monday.

H. S. Hahn, of Reading, was among the travelers seen on the streets of Patton, Monday.

R. F. Barley, of Altoona, paid a business visit to Patton the early part of the week.

G. F. Burd, of Johnstown, transacted business in the best town in the north of the county Monday.

Mrs. John Saltgiver, aged 93 years, one of the oldest residents of this vicinity, is seriously ill.

John W. Gailley, of Bedford, was in Patton last week. Mr. Gailley states that Bedford had the same amount of snow that we have.

C. A. Hile, of Clearfield, was renewing acquaintances in the best town in the north of the county last Wednesday.

Raymond Johnson, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Johnson, is confined to his home on Beech avenue, suffering a light attack of grip.

Professor Luckey, who has been confined to the house the past few weeks, with typhoid fever, is able to be about again.

George Prindible, of the Patton Clay Manufacturing Co., is spending several days this week in Pittsburgh on business.

Vinton Cappotono and N. B. Besetzella, of Akron, Ohio, attended the funeral of Peter Marchinna, Thursday.

Miss Yvonne Yergler, who was called home on account of the illness of her mother and little sister Sylvania, has returned to her studies.

Miss Lu Shunkwiler, Bell Telephone operator, spent Sunday in Ebensburg, the guest of Miss Mae Rosensteel.

Mart Brown, who was severely hurt about the hand and arm, at the Glenside Coal Mines, at Shanktown, last Tuesday, is improving nicely.

Earl Campbell is seriously ill at the home of his sister, in Bakerton. He was on his way home from the Mercy hospital, Johnstown, when taken ill.

John Seitz, of Johnstown, called on friends in Patton Friday, and incidentally conducted a little business while here.

Gib Tozer, of La Jose, was a pleasure caller to Patton Friday evening. While here, Mr. Tozer registered at the Palmer House.

J. B. Esch, of Spangler, was a business and pleasure caller to Patton Monday. While here Mr. Esch registered at the Palmer House.

James Williamson, Jr., who has been ill from an attack of grip for the past two weeks is now suffering of influenza.

Miss Francis Mellon spent last week and part of this in Pittsburgh attending the Spring opening for milliners and buying her spring stock.

Robert Graham, local superintendent of the Pennsylvania railroad, was in town Tuesday looking after their interests.

George H. Fulmer, local manager of the Bell Telephone Company of Penna., located at Johnstown, was a

Some REAL VALUES

Right When You Need Them

Note the Price Slash on these Water Proof Garments

Men's Raincoats, Cravenettes, ... Spring Top Coats, $10

Regular $15, $18, $20 Values

See the Window Display

W. L. THOMPSON, PATTON, PA.

Has Turned Loose THE GREATEST COAT VALUES Ever Offered the Men In This Section.

Majestic Theatre
Friday, this week

ROBERTSON - COLE ANNOUNCES

"The Third Generation"

WITH A NOTABLE BRENTWOOD CAST

SEE IT

business caller in town Tuesday.

Word has been received here that Thomas Gibbons has been transferred from the United States general hospital at Carlisle to New York.

Raymond Cavanaugh, who has been stationed at Fortress Monroe, Va., visited his mother, Mrs. James Cavanaugh last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Humphrey have returned to their home in Johnstown, after a short visit with relatives in Patton and Barnesboro.

Ellsworth and Alexander Delozier, of Bradock, have returned to their homes in that place, after a short visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Delozier, of Palmer avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. James Monteith returned Tuesday evening from a short stay with Mrs. Monteith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fleming, of near Ebensburg.

Mrs. Ed. Wise returned to her home in Altoona on Tuesday, after a visit of a couple of weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Delozier, of Palmer avenue.

John Hodge, Jr., of the Merchants Marine, is spending from two to three weeks in town, having just returned from a cruise to Peru, Chile, by way of Panama Canal.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDermott, of St. Augustine, were called to Greensburg recently on account of the serious illness of their son Arthur who is suffering of pneumonia.

Edward T. Kranefuss, who had been spending several days in Patton, and who was called to his home in Boston on account of the serious illness of his family, the week before last, has returned to Patton. Mr. Kranefuss is located at the Palmer House.

Mrs. Thomas Krise, Mrs. S. A. Ryan, Mrs. Joseph Hoover, Mrs. Andrew Kline, Mrs. R. Delozier, Mrs. G. Weakland, Mrs. LeGorran McNulty, Mrs. J. Krise, Mrs. James Carl and Mrs. B. B. Krise, were guests at a quilting bee held by Mrs. William McNulty at St. Augustine last week.

Mrs. S. A. Cooper is spending the week in Pittsburgh, where she was called on account of the serious illness of her daughter, Edna, who is suffering of pneumonia. Miss Cooper is in training at the Nurses' Training School at the Mercy hospital. Her sister, Miss Virginia, also is in training at the same hospital.

Miss Carrie Brennan, of Gallitzin, came here Saturday to take the place of Miss Bishop, at the hospital, the latter being promoted to the place made vacant by the marriage of Superintendent Morris. Miss Brennan graduated from the Mercy hospital, Pittsburgh last year and has been doing private nursing since that time.—COLVER-REVLOC WEEKLY.