

GRAND JURY WILL HEAR MANY CASES

Trial of John McHush, State Trooper Is Slated For March 8.

The following list of cases will come before the grand jury on the dates under which they are placed:

Monday, March 1.
Earl Richards, Paul Rogers, John Lee, Edward Harrison, Francis Lapondana, Peter Bell, Joseph Lee, Clifton Kantner, George Swift, Katharine Deika, Robert A. Swapp, Steve Jakob, Edward Quinn, Merle A. Beam, Frank G. Enen, Albert Donough, Cyril Mulson, Tony Melkosky, offenses against morality.

Tuesday, March 2.
Frank Farrell, et al., nuisance; Emma Coleman, bawdy house; Garfield Wilkins, W. A. Mackie, embezzlement; Victor Mantilo, John Downer, Michael Barako, liquor laws; Joseph Watocho, et al., robbery; Stephen Balough, felonious assault and battery; Stephen Nagy, assault and battery; J. M. Hoffman, Mike Stavoich, et al., William Dugan, Joseph E. Parrish, Joseph Kurtz, H. G. Steele, larceny; Max Silverman, et al., Borhala Nagy, aggravated assault and battery; D. Orendorf, fraudulent conversion; Alex Roberts, breaking and entering.

Wednesday, March 3.
Q. Margione, false pretense; Dominick Lavalla, felonious use of dynamite; Harry Bonnel, John Picklo, Joseph Ziburt, accessory; John Migut, malicious mischief; Charles Wright, burglary; Frank Mardis, auto laws.

ISAAC J. WEAKLAND.
Isaac J. Weakland died at his late home at the X Roads Sunday morning at 6 o'clock, after an illness of more than two years of a complication of diseases.

Mr. Weakland and Miss Annie Bagley were united in marriage in St. Benedict's church May 15th, 1879. They took up their residence at Baker's X Roads near here, where he engaged in farming.

Deceased is survived by his widow and the following children: Bertha Weakland, of Altoona; Lottie, at home; D. A. Weakland, a liverman, et al.; Adolph, who is in the coal business at Hostetter, Pa.; Otto, at home; Urban, at Josephine; Earl, at Nanty-Glo; Earnest, of this place, and Gordon, at home. One sister, Mrs. Emma Lantz, of Hastings, also survives him.

Funeral took place Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock from St. Joseph's church. Interment was made in the church cemetery.

JAMES A. McCLAIN HEADS BAKER-TON BANKING HOUSE.

At a meeting of the shareholders of the First National Bank, of Bakerton held Saturday of last week James A. McClain, cashier of the First National Bank of Spangler, was elected president of the new institution. E. P. Reed, of Bakerton is vice president.

The board of directors are: James A. McClain, E. P. Reed, William Lamont, John Muir, C. J. Myers, Frank Zavacky, John Kline, James Flora, Dr. T. O. Helfrick, J. Harrison Westover, Esq., and C. H. Ager.

The bank is capitalized at $50,000.00 and was considerably oversubscribed.

RUDEY CHILD DIES IN EAST CARROLL TOWNSHIP.

Mary, the two-year-old child of Michael and Annie Rudey, of near the Cross Roads, died at the parental home at 1:45 o'clock Tuesday morning. Her death was due to convulsions. Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Thursday with interment in the Fairview cemetery at Patton.

The Rev. McAfee, pastor of the Presbyterian church, conducted the services. Undertaker Stevens prepared the body for burial.

FARM ACCIDENTS INDUSTRIAL.

Harrisburg, Pa.—Accidents occurring in agriculture are to be considered industrial accidents within the meaning of the act of 1919 providing for a system of rehabilitation of persons handicapped by injuries due to their employment, according to a decision given by the Attorney General's Department to the Department of Labor and Industry. It is held persons hurt in going to or from employment are not to be considered as coming within the scope of the act if they are injured while on trains or in other kinds of transportation.

MEASLES EPIDEMIC IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Harrisburg, Pa.—Health department officials Saturday called attention to the prevalence of measles in Pennsylvania. In January the state had 2,906 cases or 2.97 more than in December and 6,647 more than in January, 1919.

The January record has been exceeded only once before in the history of the department, while mortality figures show measles cause more deaths than scarlet fever.

EDWARD BURGOON DIES AT HOME IN CRESSON.

Edward E. Burgoon, aged about 25 years, died at his residence in Cresson Wednesday of last week, death being due to pneumonia, following a brief illness. He is survived by his widow and three children; also his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Burgoon, of the Summit, and several brothers and sisters.

Funeral services were held at 9 o'clock Saturday morning from St. Aloysius Catholic church, with interment in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Ray E. Brown, of Barnestown, spent the latter part of last week visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Monteth, of town.

HERE AND THERE Everywhere

The Carrolltown Public school which had been closed for a week on account of the prevalence of sickness, reopened Monday.

Twelve patients, 11 children and one adult, were admitted to the State Sanatorium on Thursday, the regular weekly admission day. There are now 693 patients at the institution.

The convention of Cambria county school directors which was to be held during the last week in February has been postponed until the last week in March. Inability to secure speakers was held to be the reason.

Mrs. Peter Rishan, aged 68 years, died at her residence in Lilly, last Thursday afternoon, following an illness of about two weeks. Her death was due to influenza-pneumonia. Her husband died on February 10 of the same disease.

Ellen Lee, aged 16 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lee, of Jamestown, died at the parental home late Wednesday afternoon. Her death was due to influenza. She is survived by her parents and several brothers and sisters.

Joseph Bruno, aged 29 years, died at the Miners' hospital at 6:30 o'clock Wednesday evening, death being due to influenza-pneumonia. He was admitted to the hospital on February 17. The deceased is survived by his widow and several children.

The condition of A. J. Leonard, proprietor of the Leonard hotel, Gallatin, who is a patient at the Memorial hospital, Johnstown, is improved. He is suffering from an infected foot. Mr. Leonard was admitted to the hospital on February 3.

Mrs. Angelina Covaz, aged 25 years, of Mineral Point, wife of Emanuel Covaz, died at the Memorial hospital, Johnstown, at 3:45 o'clock Monday morning. Her death was due to pneumonia. She was admitted to the hospital at 6 o'clock Sunday evening.

Lawrence Glasser, aged 41 years, of Cresson, who is employed as a freight conductor by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, is a patient in the Miners' hospital, suffering from an injury to his back sustained Tuesday when he fell from his train. He is resting comfortably at present.

Robert Elden, aged 65 years, died at his home in Hastings at 6 o'clock Sunday morning, death being due to influenza-pneumonia. He was ill about one week. The deceased is survived by his widow, three sons and two daughters. Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon from the late residence. Interment was made in Union cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Flood and family of Rhaway, N. J., visited at the home of Mrs. Flood's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sandford, the past week. Mr. Flood returned to Rhaway Tuesday while Mrs. Flood and family expect to spend some time in town.

Miss Bridget McGlenn, aged 20 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barney McGlenn, died at the parental home in Nanty-Glo, at 7 o'clock Sunday morning, death being due to diabetes. She was ill about three months. The deceased is survived by her parents and several brothers and sisters.

Verna, aged 16 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sumerville, of Susquehanna township, died last Friday evening at the parental home. Her death was due to influenza. Funeral services were held from the parental home. Interment was made in the East Ridge cemetery. She is survived by her parents, three brothers and three sisters.

TO THE VOTERS OF CAMBRIA COUNTY, PENNA.
Many of you have written and otherwise communicated with me as to my being a candidate for re-election to the State Senate in 1920. I take this means to say I will not be a candidate.

I wish to thank the voters, however, for having twice elected me to this high office, both times over very worthy opponents.

Yours very truly,
H. A. TOMPKINS.

SUIT BROUGHT AGAINST GERMANIA BREWING CO.

An action in assumpsit has been instituted at Ebensburg by the Farmers' & Breeders' Mutual Reserve Fund Livestock Insurance Company of the United States, a Pennsylvania corporation, against the Germania Brewing Company. The plaintiff seeks to recover the sum of $144, with interest from June 12, 1918, for alleged unpaid premiums due on a policy covering livestock. Attorneys Davis & Burd represent the plaintiff.

PETER C. MANGOLD.

Peter C. Mangold died at his late home in Carrolltown Thursday at 10 o'clock, of meningitis following an attack of influenza, aged 52 years.

Deceased is survived by his widow and the following children: Mrs. J. B. Itell, and Martha Mangold, both of Youngstown, O.; Ira Mangold, of Cleveland, O.; Leo, Marceline, Rosella, Clara, Roy, Florence and Donald, all at home.

Funeral took place Monday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Benedict's church.

Having completed 54 years as a member of the Odd Fellows, Martin L. Gable, a Shamokin pioneer, was tendered a banquet.

JOHN T. MENTZER DIED AT CRESSON SANATORIUM.

John T. Mentzer, aged 58 years, a former resident of Altoona, died at the State Sanatorium last Thursday evening. His death was due to tuberculosis. He was admitted to the institution on February 3 from the Hamburg sanatorium. The body was shipped to Martinsburg for burial, funeral services being held Sunday afternoon.

FOOD RECEIPTS LARGE.

Harrisburg, Pa.—Receipts of the bureau of foods of the state department of agriculture were $541,487 last year. This breaks all records and is largely due to the numerous licenses issued for the sale of oleomargarine. In the same period the bureau expenditures were $87,961. The chemists of the bureau analyzed 6,851 samples during the year.

CARPET RAG SOCIAL AT CRESSON M. E. CHURCH.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, at Cresson, will hold a carpet rag social in the basement of the church this evening. The general public has been invited to attend. A lunch will be served. The ladies have been requested to each bring with them one-half pound of carpet rags and the men are to bring a thimble. Those failing to bring the carpet rags or a thimble will each be fined ten cents.

ASK AID OF FARMERS.

Washington, D. C.—American farmers were asked by Secretary of Agriculture Meredith to give their hearty co-operation in securing a full and accurate census of the farms. He reminded the farmers that according to law information they furnish the census enumerators is absolutely confidential and cannot be given to income tax collectors or tax assessors.

GEORGE LEITZ DIES AT HOME NEAR EBENSBURG.

George Leitz, aged about 55 years, a prominent farmer of Cambria township, died at his home Thursday death being due to pneumonia. He resided about four miles north of Ebensburg. The deceased is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Murphy Leitz. He was a member of the Holy Name Catholic church, Ebensburg. Interment was made in the church cemetery.

WAR CAMP COMMUNITY SERVICE ESTABLISHED.

Miss Mae Dillon, of Johnstown, was in Bakerton Tuesday night of last week in the interest of the War Camp Community Service. She gave a lecture to a number of people at the Miners' Hall Tuesday night. A class of twenty has been organized and will be taught by the Rev. D. A. Sower, assisted by Miss Ellen Reed. Tuesday and Thursday nights were set aside as the regular meeting nights of the class, to be held in the Reed Hall. A special invitation is extended to all who wish to acquire more knowledge.

Miss Clementina Kirsch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Kirsch, of Spangler, received the appointment of instructor in home nursing and care of the sick, by the Lancaster Chapter, A. R. C., infirmed by the representative of the national committee A. R. C. service in Philadelphia. Miss Kirsch is especially fitted for the position, being a practical nurse and having years of experience in both professions.

Forty students of the Crosby School Saving Society, McKean county, carried the message of thrift to their homes and succeeded in having their parents invest $1,570.46 in Government securities.

A Last Opportunity to Buy These Records

Whenever Victor Records are withdrawn from the catalogue and are no longer obtainable, we know that a great many people will some day experience a keen disappointment. In an effort to avoid such a disappointment on the part of our customers, we wish to call your attention to a few of the records which we have in stock. We also wish to direct your attention to the large display of these records in our show window.

- 17206 (Spanish Dance—Violin) Pilzer
- Petite Valse—Violoncello Bourdon
- 17238 (First Heart Throbs—Orchestra Bells) Reitz
- 60051—Melody in F (Rubenstein) Victor Herberts Orch.
- 64667—The Old Refrain—(Kreisler) Clap
- 74497—It Was Not So To Be—(Nessler)—Witherspoon
- 87240—The Mother Sings—(Grieg) Schumann-Heink
- 87253—Thy Dear Eyes—(Bartlett) Farrar

M. H. Gardner Optometrist

TOZER JEWELRY CO. PATTON, PA.

BUY YOUR

Garden SEEDS

NOW

We have received our new stock of garden seeds and are prepared to supply you with everything for the garden. Our seeds are all in bulk and we keep them fresh. We destroy all old seeds that will not germinate.

Some of the best market gardeners in this section use our line of seeds because they grow.

Place your seed order with us and watch results.

Binder & Starrett, Patton, Pa.

Spring Announcement

New Arrivals Here This Week

Ginghams, Percales, Figured Voiles

We also have received an advanced shipment of Ladies' New Spring Suits and Skirts

Removal Sale Is Still Going On

This is a good chance to save on needed merchandise.

Kusner & Blankfeld
Patton, Pa.