

Its Good Stores

SUCCESSFUL storekeeping today is a matter of vision and hustle, and Johnstown Merchants are as progressive as any group of business men in the country. American initiative has found 100 per cent expression in Johnstown's modern department stores, as well as in its hundreds of individual shops, maintained on a high plane of service.

Johnstown is the logical trading center of more than a quarter million people. Its stores more than measure up to their responsibilities and opportunities. Broad selection is offered in all lines. Values are sure inducements for buying in Johnstown. Yes, the city itself, as well as the community of which it is the center, appreciates Johnstown's wonderful stores.
