Daily Thought.
Look up and down; look forward and not back; look out and not in; and lend a hand.—Edward Everett Hale.

How Coming Out, so it were.
Who Mary was in the room when the telephone rang and her sister Elizabeth, aged eleven, was being invited to go skating. Mary in great excitement ran to her mother, saying: "What you think, mamma, Elizabeth has her first attempt with a boy!"

Optimistic Thought.
Recollection affords the purest of enjoyments.

Proof of World's Great Age.
When we come to prehistoric man, Assyria is as yesterday. Discoveries made of skulls in various parts of Europe show that a low class of primitive man lived upon earth at least 250,000 years ago, and for 25,000 years a high type of man inhabited what is now central France.

Moved by Powerful Motives.
Recklessness is no part of courage. When Cromwell and his men gave the sublime picture of heroic courage which illuminates English history, it was not that they undervalued the enormous strength of what they fought against; it was that they saw righteousness and freedom shining out beyond, and moved toward their fascinating presence irresistibly.—Phillips Brooks.

Taking a Nap.
Nan was sitting on one of the smallest first-grade chairs with her legs crossed. After a while she extended them gingerly and exclaimed to the teacher: "Oh, my feet have gone to bed."

Many Interpretations Possible.
"Too much silence," says Booth Tarkington, "is open to suspicion. It may be reticence, or it may be a vacuum. It may be dignity, or it may be false teeth."

Won't Go.
"This thing can't go on!" exclaimed the shoe clerk, valiantly trying to get a number two shoe on a number four foot.—Boston Transcript.

"Some approbation now and then works wonder with our little men; and words of praise from lips held dear have often changed a girl's career."

TUNA FISH DISHES.

This delicate turkey of the sea should be more appreciated. The following dishes are but suggestions, as here are any number of combinations making most delicious eating.

Tuna in Peppers.

Cut peppers in halves lengthwise; remove the seeds and put peppers to soak in very cold water. Beat four eggs slightly; add one cupful of milk, two cupfuls of tuna, one cupful of bread crumbs, salt and pepper to taste. Pack the mixture into the peppers and sprinkle buttered bread crumbs over the top. Brown in the oven and eat hot.

Tuna Salad.

Take three cupfuls of tuna, one cupful of diced celery, one hard-cooked egg, one green pepper shredded, one cupful of thick mayonnaise, one-half cupful of French dressing, one-fourth of a cupful of chopped olives. If well made this salad is more delicious than the most inviting chicken salad. Several hours before serving, mix the tuna, egg, green pepper and celery together, adding the French dressing gradually. Just before serving add the chopped olives; toss lightly, put into a salad bowl and arrange a thick mayonnaise over the top.

Tuna Chop Suey.

Take one pound of fresh pork, one cupful of tuna flaked, one cupful of diced celery, one cupful of chopped onions, one cupful of chopped peanuts, one can of mushrooms, one tablespoonful of butter and salt and pepper to taste. Put the butter in a deep frying. Cut pork in small pieces and cook in the frying pan with celery and onions. Cover with one cupful of water, the mushrooms and the liquor; simmer one hour. Add peanuts, tuna, seasoning, and cook half an hour longer.

Tuna in Timbales.

Cook two eggs until hard. Cream three tablespoonfuls of butter and add yolks; when blended and smooth, add the juice of one lemon, salt and pepper to taste; two cupfuls of flaked tuna, one-half cupful of cream and two well-beaten eggs. Cook over hot water until well cooked. Fill the timbale cases and cover with parmesan cheese. Brown in the oven.

If the fresh fish is used in any of the above recipes, of course it must be cooked before using. These recipes call for the canned tuna. Salmon may be substituted, but it is not as desirable because of its oily, fishy taste, which is almost lacking in tuna.
