Pencilings of Patton

The other day while
 Down on the street, we saw
 A man driving an automobile
 With a sleigh trailing behind it.
 This, we think,
 Offers gay Lotharios
 A splendid and novel way
 Of courting, without
 Bothering about driving

A bothersome steed.
 Last week one day a
 Tramp printer called at
 The Courier office and Touched the editor for
 One Simoleon.
 Evidently said 'bone' didn't
 Last long, for he

Was back in a short while
 For more cash.
 Of all the thoughtless and
 Careless people, printers
 Are the worst, for any
 Printer ought to know that
 No other printer is a
 National Bank.

They say
 A reunion of former
 Clerks, etc., of the Palmer
 House, is slated to be held at
 The local establishment soon.
 Expected to attend are
 Ed. Hunter, Ed. Callahan,
 Bob Snyder, and a good
 Many more.
 'Twill surely seem like
 Old times again.

In conversation with Chief
 Gill, one some more, last week
 Patton in its infancy was discussed.
 There wasn't much here then,
 But Bill must have been.

Judging from the local School population statistics,
 We are fearing the day when the
 Patton children outnumber
 The grown-ups.
 They may take things in their Own hands from point of Numerical strength, and
 It isn't best to let children have
 Their own way.

More of this
 Next week.

4 SUBURBAN DAYS IN 1

January 26, 27, 28, 29

Altoona Booster Stores

AN Event Extraordinary is in store for the patrons of Altoona Booster Stores next week on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Appreciating the patronage of those who have made Altoona famous as a Wednesday Shopping center, Booster merchants will observe FOUR BIG SUBURBAN DAYS IN ONE WEEK.

January is always helpful to the thrifty shopper and to the merchant, as it is a time when shelves and tables and money are needed to display Spring merchandise, necessitating a sacrifice at prices below replacement value.

With two or three months of Jack Frost's reign yet before us and seasonable merchandise "cut to the quick," FOUR SUBURBAN DAYS IN A ROW will be "circus days" in Altoona Booster stores.

Four Suburban Days, one after the other, will give those from all corners of the five counties—Bedford, Centre, Huntingdon, Cambria and Clearfield—a great chance to come and stay during the entire period.

In Booster Stores,
 In Booster Hotels,
 In Booster Theatres.

The Altoona Booster Association urges you to spend your money where it will do the most good, in your district.

But, Booster Association Institutions insist that they will welcome you when you wish to buy or entertain yourself in Altoona.
