A petition to the County Commissioners to raise a modern road to the portland near and town of Reyle, two miles west of Keenleyside, was circulated here this week by Mr. Archie Beattie, and numerous signed. The road is very badly needed and there should not be any hesitancy about constructing it. A steady and substantial business is continually carried on between Reyle and the County Seat, and the road to the old Clay Pike is almost impossible. Reyle is now paying out wages to workmen about $40,000 per month, of which about $2,000 goes to Ellettsburg residents, who travel daily from their homes here to their work. Let us have this road by all means. Ellettsburg Monticomee Herald.
