The convening of an Americanism conference in every state, followed by the assembling of a national congress, to be attended by Americanism directors, and representatives of schools, industries, and various civic and patriotic societies is on the program of the Americanism Commission of the American Legion for 1921. The Legion's plan was formed as a result of an Americanism conference in Massachusetts, which was held under the auspices of the Bay State Legionnaires.

To provide funds for the maintenance of a Salvation Army hostelry for unemployed veterans, the American Legion in St. Paul, Minn., the World War Veterans and the St. Paul Trades and Labor Assembly will unite in the production of a benefit entertainment. The Legion's decision to cooperate with the union members was made at a post meeting address by a prominent Minnesota labor official.

Unified action in bringing about better conditions for disabled of the Southwest was insured at a meeting of post commanders and adjutants of the Arkansas, Colorado, Texas and Oklahoma Departments of the American Legion at Dallas, Tex. The Southwestern Conference was established as an annual affair, the next meeting to take place at Oklahoma City, Okla. Dr. Guy D. Shroyer, commander of the Texas Department, was elected permanent chairman of the organization. Among the speakers at the convention was Russell G. Greviston, Assistant National Adjutant.

American Legion members, scattered over the world, continue to band together. The latest application for information in regard to establishing a foreign post came from the island of Ceylon where two members of Akron, O., post have decided to organize the ex-service wanderers. The nearest posts to Ceylon are located at Singapore and Yokohama, more than a two weeks' journey.

A fighting chaplain quoted scripture to the members of the Missouri legislature in behalf of a boxing bill which the American Legion is pushing in that state. The quotation which was made by the Rev. Earl A. Blackman, is from Paul in the ninth chapter of Corinthians. It is: "I am a boxer and I hit hard and straight, not as one who beats the air, but I buffet my body."

A survey of street conditions was made by the public welfare committee of Woodhaven, N. Y. Post of the American Legion in co-operation with local authorities. American history, civics and English are being taught to foreigners in evening classes conducted by the Woodhaven Post as a part of a campaign to naturalize every alien in the community.

To inform the world "where my heart is" Miss Alice Robertson, the new congresswoman-elect from Oklahoma, attended a dance of Muskogee, Okla. Post of the American Legion. Miss Robertson, who is an ardent church worker, took sides with the Legion when a Muskogee minister assailed the Legionnaires for condemning Sunday blue laws.

The "dead line" for payment of American Legion dues has been fixed for February 28. The names of members who fail to pay on or before that date will be stricken from the subscription lists of the American Legion Weekly.

Miss Mizetta McCoy, of Salina, Kan., has been selected as state secretary of the Kansas Department of the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion, which has established headquarters with the state office of the Legion.

A tour of Europe for $635, with emphasis on the battlefields of France will be conducted under the auspices of Hyde Park Post No. 34 of the American Legion this year. The itinerary will include Switzerland, England, Belgium and France. Reservations may be made through the Hyde Park Post.

Indiana members of the American Legion are investigating a proposal to establish a Legion state monthly magazine, following authorization by the state executive committee.

Upon the finding of an honorable discharge from the army in the clothing of Ed Foley, of Clinton, Ia., who had been buried in a potter's field, June Van Meter Post of the American Legion obtained permission to exhume the body so that it could be reinterred with military honors. Foley was killed in a quarrel at a Clinton hotel.

The palms of Florida do not bend to the ex-service man without funds, according to advices from that state. A number of American Legion posts in that state have gone into debt to take care of job hunters and now Legionnaires warn their buddies that jobs are scarce.

Lebanon county. Fifty machinists at the Ashmore shops of the Lehigh Valley Railroad received notice of a two weeks' suspension.

Caught under a fall of rock while working in a Hazleton colliery, Mark Brito was smothered under tons of dirt.

Robert O. Hoyer, of Lebanon, formally announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Prothonotary and Clerk of the Court.

Lester, 27-year-old son of Ammon Lehman of Elizabethtown, was drowned in the Conoy Creek, one square from his home, while playing with companions. County Commissioners were notified it would cost $150 per week instead of $250 per week to keep insane patients at State hospitals.

The McKean County Sheep & Wood Growers' association today named a committee which will ask the legislature to extend the season for the legal killing of bear. Action was taken because bears have become as troublesome to McKean county sheep raisers.

A bill has been introduced in the State Legislature at Harrisburg, increasing the fee paid jurors to $5 per day.

The Mountain City Water Company, which supplies Frackville and vicinity in Schuylkill county, was ordered by the Public Service Commission to reduce its rates.

The Potter County Commissioners have been asked to pay a fine of $100 each by Game Warden McIntosh, for having eaten of a doe sent to the Potter county home. It seems that a doe, which had been sent to the Potter county home to be eaten there, Superintendent Mitchell invited the county commissioners to the feast, which invitation was promptly accepted and they partook on their regular monthly inspection. The commissioners refuse to plead guilty and pay the fine.
