

Said Us All
the News
You Know

THE PATTON COURIER

PATTON, MISSOURI, APRIL 1, 1921

Try Our Job
Printing
Department

SUBSCRIPTIONS

FIRE DAMAGES WORRELL HOME

Fire in the residence of Mr. Worrell, located on the corner of Main and Second streets, destroyed the building and its contents. The fire was caused by a gas stove in the kitchen. The loss is estimated at $10,000. The insurance company is expected to pay the claim.

JOSEPH J. EASLY DIES IN HOSPITAL

Joseph J. Easley, 65 years of age, died at the Patton hospital on Saturday afternoon. He had been ill for several weeks. The funeral will be held on Monday at the St. Benedict church.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL NEWS

WEDDING
A wedding was celebrated at the Patton hotel on Saturday. The bride and groom were both from Patton. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Stolz.

AT THE GRAND MONDAY
The Grand Monday celebration was held at the Patton hotel on Monday. It was a very successful affair. The proceeds from the event will be used for the benefit of the Patton hospital.

Special Easter Music Proved A Feature

The special Easter music program at the Patton church was a great success. The choir and soloists gave a beautiful performance. The service was well attended.

SUMMER NORMAL SCHOOL FOR PATTON

The summer normal school for Patton will be held at the Patton hotel from June 1 to June 15. It is a free school for young women. The course of study includes English, history, and music.

Grange to Meet at Ebensburg

The Patton Grange will meet at Ebensburg on Monday, April 11. The meeting will be held at the Ebensburg Grange. The Patton Grange is a very active organization.

Jon T. Culp Is Claimed by Death

Jon T. Culp, 45 years of age, died at the Patton hospital on Saturday. He had been ill for several weeks. The funeral will be held on Monday at the St. Benedict church.

Jon T. Culp

CLEAN-UP DAYS ARE NOW IN FULL VOGUE

Clean-up days are now in full vogue in Patton. The community is helping to keep the streets clean. The Patton Grange is leading the effort.

C. L. Stolz Dies at Carrolltown

C. L. Stolz, 60 years of age, died at Carrolltown on Saturday. He had been ill for several weeks. The funeral will be held on Monday at the St. Benedict church.

PETER DABER DIED THURSDAY

Peter Daber, 70 years of age, died at the Patton hospital on Thursday. He had been ill for several weeks. The funeral will be held on Saturday at the St. Benedict church.

MR. AND MRS. WILKINSON CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wilkinson celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Saturday. They have been married for 50 years. They have five children and 12 grandchildren.

CHARLES YEACKLEY ANSWERS SUMMONS

Charles Yeackley has answered the summons in the case of the Patton Grange. He is a member of the Patton Grange.

The Patton McCoy Post

The Patton McCoy Post is a monthly publication for the American War Veterans. It contains news, articles, and stories of interest to the veterans. The Patton McCoy Post is published by the Patton Grange.

Westover News of the Week

Westover News of the Week: A collection of news items from the Westover community. The items include news about the Westover school, the Westover church, and the Westover Grange.

St. Benedict News Brieflets

St. Benedict News Brieflets: A collection of news items from the St. Benedict church. The items include news about the St. Benedict school, the St. Benedict church, and the St. Benedict Grange.

AT THE GRAND MONDAY

