OVER THE COUNTY

The Young People's Missionary society of the United Evangelical church, South Fork, under whose auspices a concert was given in church Wednesday evening, by the Albright College Glee club, has announced that $25 was cleared from the venture and this money will be turned over to the fund for foreign missions. The large church auditorium and balcony were filled to capacity and the glee club scored a decided success.

J. A. Barrish, foreman at the Pennsylvania coal mine in Greenock, has been confined to his home for a week by a severe attack of sciatic rheumatism. Mr. Barrish left Monday for Mt. Pleasant, Mich., where he will undergo treatment for the ailment.

Among the members of the Albright choir in several United Evangelical churches in the county last week, are Vincent L. Hetrick and Miss M. Grace Hetrick, son and daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. F. E. Hetrick of Dale. Miss Hetrick is the accompanist for both the male and female glee clubs of Albright college. Mr. Hetrick is in the first tenor group of the chorus and is tenor of the quartet.

While operations may be slightly curtailed during the coming week, it was announced yesterday by officials of the Cambria Steel Co. that virtually the same mills will continue to function on the schedule maintained during preceding weeks.

A large number of parents and friends of the Richland township schools attended the child welfare day celebration Tuesday evening in the Richland High School, at which time an elaborate program was rendered in commemoration of welfare day. Bristol Hartly, president of the parent-teacher association, delivered an address on the founding of the National Congress of Mothers and the Parent-Teacher association in 1897.

At a joint meeting of the Lilly council and Fire company last week a move was started for the erection of a municipal building and better fire apparatus for Lilly.

Mrs. Rachel Belle (Metzger) Gates, aged 68 years, wife of John C. Gates, of Harrisburg, formerly resident of Cambria county, died Monday at her home in the Capital City. The body was taken to the county and buried to rest in the Beaver Valley cemetery. Short services were held at a home in the city.

A committee of citizens of Albright township composed of S. R. Miller, George F. Dea and H. R. Shewmaker of Lovett, F. B. Horner, J. J. Harshberger and J. W. of Salix, P. P. Miller, Daryl and P. M. McLean, Sr. met and called on the county commissioners last Wednesday relative to obtaining aid to improve the highway between Salix and Lovett. Construction, on approximately 2,800 feet of this road, was approved by the commissioners.

Investigations from East Taylor and O'Leary townships also conferred with the commissioners regarding county aid in the improvement of roads in the respective townships. The commissioners took the requests under advisement.

Upon approval of the Board of Voles, comprised of Adam Sturman, of Jackson Township, Dixon Tomb, Johnstown, and A. M. Shoemaker, of Ellensburg, the new bridge spanning Hinkok creek in Vintondale Borough was taken over by the county. The bridge replaces the structure which collapsed in October, 1919, and was designed by County Surveyor O. P. Thomas, Johnstown. It was built by Elmer and Evans, contractors, Ellensburg, at the cost of $30,295.

THIEF.—The safe in the ticket office at the Pennsylvania railroad station was broken open Friday morning about four o'clock and the thieves made a getaway with about $17 in cash. Evidence was gained to the effect that the safe was broken by a heavy charge of nitro-glycerine which was injected into the cracks of the safe door and the explosion was of sufficient force to blow out all of the windows, upset the heavy stove and make a complete wreck of the safe. Station Agent Lynch never leaves much of value in the office, so that the loss was confined to the cash. People living in the neighborhood of the station felt the shock of the explosion, but no person has been found who saw the robbers leave the station.

PRUNER-SNYDER NUPTIALS.
EBENSBURG.—Miss Audrey Snyder, daughter of William Snyder and John Walter Pruner, son of W. H. Pruner, of this place, were married at 7:30 o'clock Monday morning at a nuptial high mass by the Rev. Father Hugh M. O'Neil in the Holy Name Catholic church. The attendants were Miss Florence Pruner, a sister of the bridegroom, and Edward Slattery, of Washington, D. C. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Pruner home, after which the couple left on a honeymoon and will visit in Philadelphia, Washington and Baltimore. On their return they will make their home in Williamsburg, where the bridegroom is employed.

MRS. MULHOLLEN DEAD.
GLASGOW.—Mrs. Mary Mulhollen, widow of Christ Mulhollen, died here last Friday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Schmitt, of this place. Her death was due to dropsy. Funeral services were held here, with burial in the local cemetery.

WED IN CUMBERLAND.
COLLYER.—Miss Inara Morton and David Parkin, both of this town, were married March 24 in Cumberland, Md. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Harry McCracken, Mr. Parkin is a son of Mrs. Henry Parkin. They will reside here.
