

DAILY MARATHON FOR WIFE
FROM STOVE TO PANTRY

Montgomery, Ala., Jan. 5.—Preparation of meals for an average family means a two-mile daily marathon for the housewife, statistics compiled for the conference of vocational workers of the South, in session here, disclosed. A pedometer attached to students in the kitchen of the model home at Livingston school showed this measurement for the stove-sink and pantry route covered during the period from bacon and eggs to dinner and dessert.

Cut Out These Needless Steps With a
HOOSIER

You will know by the above clipping that the average woman walks at least two miles a day in her kitchen. But most of these steps are useless.

Two million women, the ones who own Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets, sit down at their work. They have practically no walking to do. They come out of their kitchen feeling as refreshed as when they entered.

You, too, will know this freedom from kitchen drudgery when you buy a Hoosier. Be wise. Investigate.

CELEBRATE THEIR
60TH ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Schwab
Renew Vows; Children
All Present

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Schwab of Loretto celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their marriage last Sunday by attending a solemn nuptial high mass in St. Michael's church and repeating the vows they made 60 years ago. At the mass, Rev. Father Ferdinand Kittell was the celebrant assisted by the Revs. Father Dr. John M. Royle, T. O. R. head of St. Francis' College, as deacon, and Father John H. Barry of Bridgeville as sub-deacon. The Rev. Father John P. Hackett, assistant to Father Kittell, was master of ceremonies.

The venerable couple are the parents of five children—Charles M. Schwab, steel king, Joseph E. Schwab, New York City; Edward H. Schwab, Bethlehem; Gertrude, wife of David Barry of Johnstown; and Mary, known as Sister Cecelia, of the Sisters of Charity, Seton Hill, Greensburg. All the children were home for the occasion.

John A. Schwab was baptized by the Rev. Father Demetrius Gallitzin, prince-priest and pioneer missionary of the Alleghenies, who passed away May 6, 1849. Mr. Schwab and Miss Pauline Farabough were married at Loretto April 23, 1861, by the Rev. Father T. S. Reynolds in the chapel built by Prince Gallitzin. Mr. and Mrs. Schwab recently returned from their annual visit to the south, and are in good health.

Miss Anne Nowalk, of Patton, and John Plutko, of Hastings, were married on Tuesday morning of last week in St. George's Catholic church, the Rev. Father Adrian, rector, officiating. They will reside at Hastings.

Mr. Penatzer attending, after which the newly-married couple were attendants for the other couple.

Following the church ceremony, the two couples and the guests, who included only the immediate relatives were served a wedding breakfast at the Carpenter house and the newly-weds left later in the day for the east, where they will spend their honeymoon. They will return to Summerhill about May 1 and will make their future homes here.
