Although it was opposed by a strong German-language element, the Nebraska American Legion has obtained the passage of a bill in the General Assembly making English the official language of that state. The new law prohibits the teaching of any foreign language in common school branches and forbids discrimination against the use of English in any meeting.

The King of Italy last fourteen subjects in Seattle, Wash. when Angela Maria Pavona saluted the Stars and Stripes and swore allegiance to the United States. He is the father of twelve children. Members of the American committee of Raper Post No. 1 of the American Legion were in Federal Court during the naturalization ceremonies and gave pamphlets to all newly admitted citizens. The flag of the Legion post and the American flag, guarded by a soldier and sailor in uniform, were displayed on either side of the judge's bench during the day.

All posts of the American Legion may obtain copies of a Memorial Day Service, prepared by the War Camp Community Service Inc., 1 Madison Ave., New York City. The same organization will provide also numbers of a Memorial Day Pageant, written by Miss Josephine Thorp.

"White Wings, outside and police up" was the familiar command given by former service men at a Legion meeting. More than 100 members of the Ross County post, of the American Legion responded, shouldering shovels and brooms to give the city a thorough cleaning. Twenty teams of horses and fifteen dumping trucks were borrowed for the work which was undertaken by the Legion members because of the city's depleted finances. The clean-up saved Chillicothe $2,000.

Motion picture films were made of Harry Kelley, a member of a New Orleans, La., post of the American Legion, who risked his life several times daily in the interest of the Legion's campaign for new members in New Orleans. Kelley hung by his toes from the tallest buildings, climbed up the highest flag poles he could find and raked it until it broke and then he dropped into a net below.

All industries and travel in the state of Oklahoma were stopped for a minute at eleven o'clock on the morning of April 28 during which Oklahomaans with bowed heads repeated a creed of loyalty to the American flag. "SWAT THE FLY"

"Swat the fly" winter "fly" is the slogan adopted by the State Department of Health for its early spring campaign against this dangerous pest. Dr. William C. Miller, Chief of the Division of Public Health Education stated that the killing of one large fly at this time of the year means the elimination of millions of others during the latter part of the season.

"Flies," Dr. Miller stated, "have a tendency to hibernate during the winter."

PRESS COMMENT ON PHILIPPINES

The Philippines (Shenandoah (R) Post)

The idea of the Philippine question is to get out as quickly as possible and stay out. What does that say?

Our Little Brown Cousins (Argus, Rock Island, Ill.)

There is no mistaking that the Philippines want their independence. And it is just possible, as they insist, that they in the islands, better than we Americans over here, are the best judges of whether they are fitted for independence. The United States wants to outlive in the Philippines as England outlived in Ireland. The easiest way to head off a rebellion is to give the islands their independence before they have cause to rebel.

Shall We Let Philippines Go? (Solar Eagle, (R) Republican)

The United States must continue to hold the Philippines unless this nation wants to give the debt to its own professors in the north. The United States must keep faith with the world. The American people do not want the Philippine islands to become their Irish question.

Philippines Are Making Headway (The Tribune (O) Republican News)

The Philippines are making an impressive and intelligent campaign for their independence. They are urging their claims with persistence and vigor. They declare that they have proven beyond question that they are capable of self-government, and they believe that, with independence the Filipinos will be enabled themselves to gain the respect of the world.

The Female Crawls Under Boards and Into Dark Crannies in the Outback (The Argus, Melbourne)

The female crawls under boards and into dark crannies in the outback and settles, remaining there until the warm days of spring arouse their mission of perpetuating the species, and sally forth to find a suitable place in which to deposit their eggs.

From the moment the maggot is hatched until the adult is reared, it lives in an unspeakable filth. Its entire life is spent in a manure heap, and it is from a long line of such ancestors that the entire race of flies is descended. It is the duty of a citizen to assist at the extermination of this pest wherever it goes.

It is the duty of a citizen to assist at the extermination of this pest wherever it goes.

Herbert Bettermann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Bettermann of Johnstown, was painfully scalded last week when he fell into a hole out at the plant of the Ferguson Packing Co., Cambria City, having both legs scalded from the hips down. He was removed to the Memorial Hospital.
