

Gladys George

This charming movie star is a native of Maine and has been on the stage practically all her life. She played her first role at the age of three with a stock company at Waterbury, Conn., and since that time has appeared with many notable stage stars.

ON THIS day I go round for Stock show me one place but I go back for more. Ever since we came when I less than hundred days I've gotta pay for the place. Let time I buy the stock and doesn't know how far stock—make no difference only little bit. I guess.

Anyways we plant and harvest and built up that show when I go round. Some time you could see the ball but mostly time you have to build. Seems like never more built up that place as we did before the Bullock.

That place where I go one night Union Stock Yard. Mette all the cattle being weath from the nation. I guess I figure out union cattle gotta same wagons as union horses. Leaves us no time for much time. Gets fat two, three steady work gotta fat and rich make time.

But I didn't want nothing butta cattle. I take one guy we got good egg for. He say preg makes pork cheap cow makes beefsteaks and do sleep made lamb stew. I take been fed to bull makes building and he says I was crass ever do lead.

I do say something, but me we ding it no figure out. Just between you and me and so for spreads round. I walk all day on dat place looks for something. I wanna see what do all look like when make da house and eggs.

Wet you that?

A LINE OF CHEER

THE BANK OF CHEER

I'd start a Bank if I could Where I could store the things of good That comes into my day The wants of love and joy The Good Will of my fellow men That drives away all sorrow That birth along my way And when the end all were full Of balance delicious.

I'd take my check-book out And send my right-hand drift to all Who labored hard and well And help beneath the grey pall Of Repentance and Doubt.

HIGH HEELS

QUEEN ELIZABETH'S reign started the fashion of high heels for women's shoes. The pair of her shoes which is preserved to the present date must have made her three inches taller when she wore them. The heels were added to increase the height of the wearer to make her more stately and impressive.

Load your DOLLAR with BARGAINS FRIDAY, MAY 13th ALTOONA COMMUNITY DOLLAR DAY

Q To you who are here and to the thousands who will be here we say that FRIDAY, May the 13th, Altoona merchants will join forces to celebrate 1911's second Community Dollar Day.

Q These Community Dollar Days are known far and near and are looked forward to with eagerness by those who come in the trolley, by horse, by motor, or by steam cars and by those who need only to walk.

Q On this special day each merchant tries to outdo the other in giving quantity and quality for the popular price of a dollar.

Q Hundreds of people come to Altoona on Community Dollar Day, even though they haven't a dollar, just to see the crowds.

Q Doesn't this prove that your dollar is worth much more during these "Carnivals of Economy" than at any other time?

Q Usually superstitious people stay at home on Friday the 13th because it is supposed to be an unlucky date. Proof to the contrary about the people of Altoona and the surrounding district will be given on that Friday, because nobody stays at home on Community Dollar Day, whether it be the 13th, or Friday—or both.

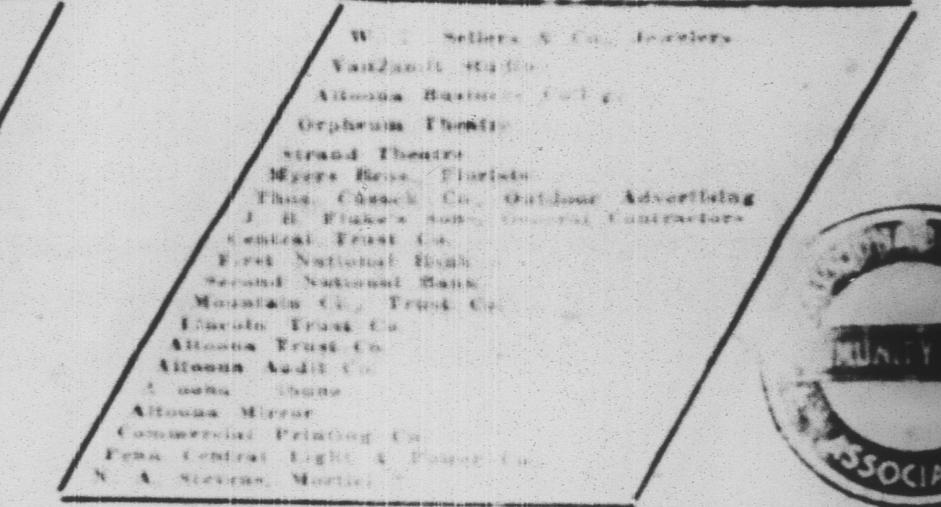

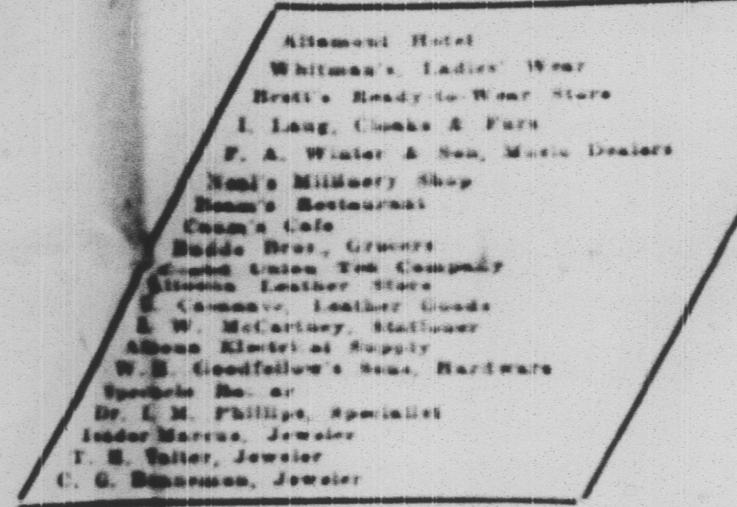

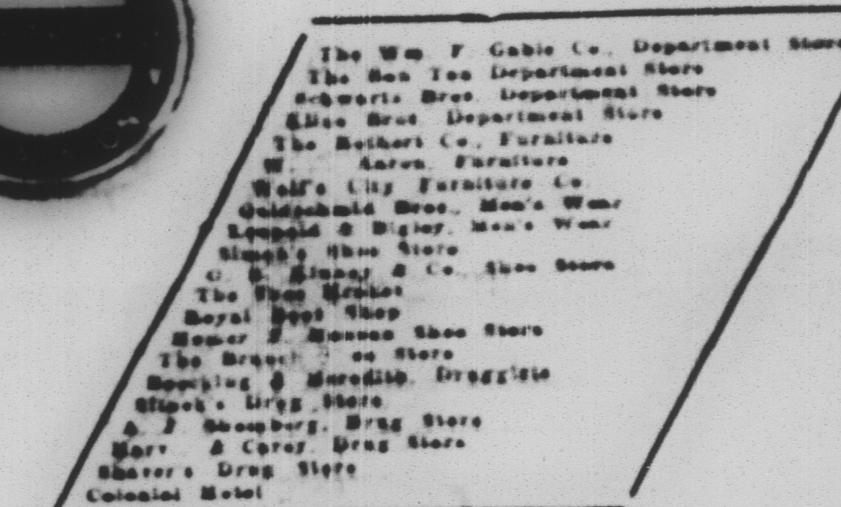

Q A list of the live institutions who are responsible for this great money-saving event appears in this advertisement. They are Booster members, every one of them and they only are permitted to display the Booster emblem of honesty and integrity.

Q Look for it!

Q Get the habit of looking for it

Q For your own protection!

The Automobilist.
The man in front drives like mad all day and the Indians still and look at the scenery. MG at the wheel has no time for that. When they stop for the night, he's too tired for conversation.—From the Atlantic.

Two Classes of Women.
In this country the women are divided into two main classes—those who don't believe in their husbands tell them and those who haven't any husbands.—Indianapolis News.

Ignorance, Oh, Ignorance!
A young clerk was called before the manager to explain why he was doing his work carelessly. "Mr. Jones," said the manager, "of all your work has been very poor." Just as he was going to ask for an explanation the young clerk broke in: "Mr. Smith I've been working here for three months now, and though I have tried my best, that's the first bit of praise I have received since I've been here. Thank you.—New York Sun.

Largest Bible.
The largest Bible ever printed is an English copy. The pages two inches high, three feet six inches wide, and ten inches thick. The binding is made from 12 g. leather.

It requires a certain amount of tact to be sincere with your friends and still keep them.—Philadelphia Record.
