GOING TO WORK

Going to work seems kind of rough, but like you ain't had rest enough. Get to workin', you surely do. That life was loafing, the whole way through.

And you feel that the factory whistle whistles.

Is a kind of a ghost that won't keep still.

But scares you before you've had sleep enough.

I tell you, goin' to work is rough. But after the Mills shut down a while, An' the neighbors kind a forget to smile.

And the town gets quiet and grievin' like.

An' folks talk nothing exceptin' strike.

The greatest comfort a fellow knows Comes when that good old whistle blows.

And he takes his tools and gets in line— I tell you, goin' to work is fine!
