CHAUTAQUA
Tenth Anniversary Program
1912-1921

John A. Emery, national commander of the American Legion, will head the party of 200 members of the American Legion who will arrive in Patton, Pa., on Sunday, August 8th, for the Tenth Anniversary of the Legion. The party will be composed of Legionnaires from every state in the Union. John Spry, son of the governor, will be the Pennsylvania party. The "New A. E. F." as the delegation has been called, will sail on the Mail Liner George Washington. An American Legion committee will meet at the docks of the former presidential ship when she sails out of port at New York. There will be an informal farewell at the docks.

TEN YEARS AGO
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bishop were pleasantly surprised on the third anniversary of their wedding when their children arranged a big basket party in their honor at Sunset Park.
