

The Patton Courier

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY.

PATTON PUBLISHING CO., W.A. DINSMORE, Owners and Editors, THOS. A. OWENS, Secretary, DERR G. WINSLOW, Secretary

Entered in the Post Office at Patton, Penna., as Second Class Mail Matter.

Subscription Rates—$2.00 Per Year IN ADVANCE.

RATE CARD

Legal Notices, $1.00 per month or fraction thereof; for three insertions, Business Cards, 10 cents per line, Business Cards, $10.00 per year, Full position, 25 per cent extra, Minimum charge, $1.00.

Cash must accompany all orders for foreign subscriptions. Advertising copy must reach this office by Tuesday evening, for sure insertion.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO.

The Patton Fire Company was represented at the State Firemen's Convention at Johnstown by about twenty members and during the immense parade on Thursday, the Patton boys who participated in a body, were heartily applauded all along the line.

On Wednesday morning a son of Dennis Cotton, while working in the Moshannon Colliery, north of town, had his left leg crushed between two mine cars.

On Saturday evening the young men of the Catholic church met in the Good Building for the purpose of instituting a local order of the Young Men's Institute.

On Saturday evening the young men of the Catholic church met in the Good Building for the purpose of instituting a local order of the Young Men's Institute.

A. Mellon, who is looking after the interests of the Patton hotel property, is making preparations for the coming season.

TEN YEARS AGO.

Fire of an unknown origin destroyed the Beech Grove Grange Hall about two and one-half miles from Patton on Tuesday morning.

Arrangements have been completed this week whereby Frank Cole, formerly proprietor of Cole's Theatre here, has taken over the theatre at Barnesboro, formerly known as the Gaity.

Chas. Heist has moved his barber shop into the room in the Grange National Bank Building formerly occupied by Geo. Langbein.

Two twenty-inch Roberts filters have been placed in the Public School Building this week. These filters are guaranteed to remove 97 per cent. of all bacteria that may be found in the water.

The Patton Fire Company has just received a new rapid hoist Hook and Ladder Truck from the Northern Fire Apparatus Company.

Mrs. Harry Hinterlietner, a daughter of James A. McClain, of Spangler, died at her home in Clearfield last Tuesday morning at 8:45 o'clock.

HARDWARE STORE AT BAKERTON ROBBED

Thieves broke into one of the show windows at the hardware store of Binder & McCormick in Bakerton late Saturday night and stole several revolvers.

GIRL SEEKS SLOW DEATH

JOHNSTOWN.—"I wanted to maintain myself so that death would be certain but not instantaneous," was the statement, it is said, of May Single, 17-year-old daughter of Noah Single of Barnesboro, who is in the Memorial Hospital here with both legs amputated just below the knees.

BASE BALL AND AUTO RACES

Carrolltown Fair Grounds, SAT. SEPT. 24th

PATTON vs. NANTY-GLO CASH PRIZE WILL BE GIVEN TO THE WINNING TEAM

Some of the Well Known Drivers

- Johnny Rose, of Johnstown, Chevrolet Special. D. G. Price, of Johnstown, Chevrolet Special. H. E. McMahon, of Altoona, 16-Valve-4. Francis Hoyer, of Altoona, Dodge Special.

- Harry Hoyer, of Altoona, 16-Valve Dodge Special. C. Miller, Mitchell Special. H. E. Hurley, of Johnstown, Hurley Special. Spangler Garage, Chevrolet Special. Ebensburg Garage, Cole Special.

Authorities are trying to discover the girl's motives for the alleged action. She is said to have stated that she had decided to kill herself, but desired the forgiveness of her parents.

Five Men to Have Hearing

HARRISBURG.—The Pennsylvania Board of Pardons will meet here Friday, September 23, to consider appeals for pardon or commutation of sentence of 40 convicts, including five now under sentence to be electrocuted.

WILL TAKE ACTION.

PHILADELPHIA.—Gov. Sproul will order all weakened bridges throughout the State closed to traffic unless county authorities take immediate action to eliminate the menace.

DEATH OF CHILD.

Agnes, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wetlow, who reside near the second Ward school building, died last Friday of a complication of diseases of which she had been suffering for some time.

Catholic church. Interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery.

H. D. Munroe, poultry specialist from Penn State College, gave six demonstrations this week in Cambria County, realizing the importance of culling the poultry flock.

ADMITTED TO HOSPITAL.

Mrs. Annie Rodgers, of Hastings, was admitted to the Miners' Hospital, Spangler, for surgical treatment, on Monday.

ADMIT EX-SERVICE MEN.

Five ex-service men, veterans of the World War, were admitted to the Cresson State Sanatorium Tuesday morning.

COUNTY CONTROLLER TO GET BIDS ON BRIDGE

EBENSBURG.—The Cambria County Commissioners Monday voted that the County Controller be requested to advertise for bids for the construction of a re-reinforced concrete bridge to span a branch of the Benscreek in Washington Township.

FOUR WRECKS NEAR THE COUNTY SEAT

Four automobile accidents were reported near Ebensburg Saturday afternoon, due to the wet roads after the heavy rain.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAM AT BARNESBORO, OCT. 14

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The Civil Service Commission announces that examinations will be held on October 14 for Presidential postmasters at the following places: Barnesboro, Pa., salary $2,000, date of vacancy, August 7, 1921; Portage, Pa., salary, $2,400, date of vacancy August 7, last; Hollidaysburg, Pa., salary $2,000, date of vacancy, August 7, last.

RURAL CARRIERS MEET.

CRESSON.—A meeting of the rural mail carriers of Cambria County was held here in the Anderson House last Saturday afternoon.

MAJESTIC TO-NIGHT MISS MAE MARSH Star of "The Birth of A Nation" in a Robertson-Cole Production 'THE LITTLE FRAID LADY' A Feature Production of more than usual merit, by a lovable Star. Grand on Saturday A Goldwyn Special That's Well Worth Seeing 'THE GREAT LOVER'