

WE CORDIALLY INVITE you to call at our store and see fine displays of fall and winter clothing, shoes and furnishings for men and boys, at prices far less than you would expect.

An Extraordinary Showing of Men's and young men's SUITS and Overcoats

For FALL AND WINTER

We wish to call especial attention to the men of Patton and community to our exceptional line of

McGraw, Benjamin & Hayes

HAND TAILORED

Suits & Overcoats

In silk and wool worsteds and cassimeres, patterns of neat stripes, checks and plain browns and blues, single and double breasted.

These suits are noted for their individuality and workmanship. Tailored to your individual measurement. Made for particular men who desire fit, quality and shape retaining garments. Former prices were from fifty to sixty dollars, but they're selling now at

$30.00 $35.00 $40.00

Dreyfous & Lang's Nu-Style Clothes for the Young Men

Specially designed in snappy, up-to-date models, fabrics come in neat pin stripes, brown checks, grey and tan Herringbones, and plain browns and blues. Single and double breasted, priced at

$25.00. $30.00 and $35.00

Boys' High School Suits

A mighty fine line of them in double breasted and sport models. Suits specially designed for boys in first long pants suits, all new and up-to-date patterns, priced at

$20.00 and $22.50

Suits and Overcoats for Boys

Mothers-- We want to call your attention to the remarkable values we have in Suits with TWO pairs of pants, for the boys. "DICK MANLEY" brand suits are strong, durable and fine appearing. The two pairs of pants is an essential feature that will later save buying another suit of clothes. Fabrics are all wool and every pair is guaranteed to give good wear and perfect satisfaction.

Priced at $10.00 to $16.50

W. L. THOMPSON,
Always Reliable. Patton, Pa.

Patton Personals

Send Us Every Item of News You Know and Help Swell The Department. Every Article Helps

Reports have that the demand for coal is steadily increasing. Let's hope that this winter conditions in Patton will be no exception.

Mrs. Maurice Smith family, the guest of the Patton family on Monday, returned to her home Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Jeanie Callahan has returned to her home here, after spending a few days in Pittsburgh with friends and relatives.

Miss Nell Lamadie has returned to her home after spending several days in DuBois with friends and relatives.

Polk Bender of Colver spent the last few days with friends here.

Walter Wankland of Hastings has returned to his home, after a brief visit here.

William McNulty, of St. Augustine visited his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Farabaugh during the last few days.

Oliver Delonier of St. Augustine spent the last few days here on business.

Edgar Cooper who had been spending the summer in Somerset county, has returned to his home here. He will leave soon for the University of Pittsburgh, where he will resume his studies in the dental school.

Miss Mae Leiden spent the last few days in St. Lawrence with her parents.

James Zahorsky spent the last few days in Westover with friends and relatives.

Isadore Overberger spent the last several days in Pittsburgh with friends and relatives.

Russell Little has returned from Pittsburgh, where he enrolled as a student in the pharmacy department of the University of Pittsburgh.

Clark Heston has gone to Pittsburgh, where he will enroll as a student at Carnegie Tech.

Mrs. John Campbell and son of Bakerton are spending a few days here with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Winslow.

Miss Lorette Prindible, of this place, was a caller in Cresson last week.

Reed Cornelius of Patton, was a caller in town this week.—Cresson Record.

The Courier was in error last week when it tabulated the vote received by Mr. Lester Larimer in the first ward on the Republican ballot as being 139. This should have read 159.

How do the nominations suit you? The hogs are coming into their own. There are more on the farms hereabouts now than there are in the business world.

The firm of Allison & Allison, local plumbers, have opened a branch shop in Hastings.

Now for the regular campaign. The Penn Central Company, according to the Altoona Tribune, is erecting a sub-station in the vicinity of Carrolltown, which will shortly be ready for service.

On Sunday the following children of Mr. and Mrs. John Sharpe, of Chest Springs, gathered at the parental home: Mrs. Mary Cable of Pittsburg; Mrs. Harry Weaver, of Conway, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. John Eckensie and family, of Carroll township; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McCartney and family, of Cresson; and Miss Margaret Sharpe, of Chest Springs.

Frank Schurf, of Carrolltown, transacted business in town on Friday.

P. J. Wilson, John A. Wilson, and Theo. Vail, of Johnstown, were business callers in Patton and the north county on Saturday afternoon.

A marriage license has been issued at Ebensburg to John D. Burley, of Carrolltown, and Miss Ethel D. Vaughn, of Lorain. Mr. Burley is very well known in Patton, having been manager of the Patton Creamery while it was in operation.

Two little children of Frank Strittmatter, the honey man, of near Bradley Junction, were accidentally shot by pellets from a shot gun in the hands of some person or other, probably a hunter, the other day, but were not much injured.

John W. Luther, the former Patton zimmer, will on October 1st, open a business at Cresson to be known as the Cresson Tin, Sheet and Iron works. A complete line of stoves, ranges and furnaces will also be carried in stock in addition to the regular nature of the business.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Brown of Lewisport, former Patton people, spent several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Strohm of Harrisburg were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rhody on Palmer Ave.

Frank "Butch" Yeager of Altoona was a business caller in town the first of the week.

Mr. Hugh Katsen of Reynoldsville motored to Patton last Monday and spent the day with friends.

Russell Little, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Little has gone to Pittsburgh where he has enrolled in the University of Pittsburgh. He will take a course in Pharmacy.

Barton "Tubby" Winslow, employed at Binder & Starrett's Hardware Store, left Monday for Pittsburgh where he will attend a convention of the Winchester Co., at the Wm. Penn Hotel.

Lonny Rhody, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rhody of Vandergrift, is visiting at his home on Maple Ave.

Mrs. H. W. Chester, of Carrolltown, was a Wednesday caller in Patton.

T. M. Sheehan Wednesday closed a deal whereby he became the owner of the Charles Wolfe residence property on Palmer avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Senytko, of Clearfield, former Patton residents, announce the birth of a son on Thursday last. This makes the eleventh boy in the family, the oldest of which is 13 years.

Victor Ivory, of near Ashville, transacted business in Patton on Tuesday afternoon.

A marriage license has been issued at Ebensburg to Vincenzo Bruno, of Yatesboro, and Marianna DeFranci, of Patton.

WANTED—Men to solicit orders for fruit and ornamental trees, roses, shrubs, etc. Part or full time. Pay weekly. Quaker Hill Nurseries, Newark, New York State.

Dance at St. Augustine Hall, Tuesday evening, October 11th. Ark-Man Dance orchestra of Altoona. Dancing 9 to 12. Admission Gents, $1.25; Ladies free. An excellent orchestra and a good time assured. 11pd

FOR RENT—Three furnished rooms with kitchenette. Mrs. H. C. Yarger.

FOR SALE—A number of wooden beds with spring, only $3.00. Apply at Commercial hotel.

Lewis Bearer, of near Hastings, was a business transactor in Patton on Thursday.

Patton High School will be strong contenders for all honors at the track meet of the Cambria County Schools at Ebensburg tomorrow (Saturday), and nearly every student who can possibly do so will be at the County Seat Fair grounds to boost for the local athletes. Practices, which have been held for some time, demonstrate that the local High School will likely get at least some of the Bacon.

A pumpkin, grown by Luke Ryan, of Clearfield township, and weighing 60 pounds, is on display in the window of the First National Bank. Another, weighing 50 lbs., and grown by J. W. Luther, is displayed at the Grange National Bank.

Several improvements are being made at the old Big-Ton property, now owned by Dennis Rambau. D. E. Carrier, local Ford agent, occupies the half of the first floor and is placing a gasoline tank this week. Mr. Carrier came to Patton from Hollidaysburg.

The road from Patton to Carrolltown is again filled with trucks hauling bricks from the Patton Clay Works. These bricks are being delivered to the Carrolltown-Baerston road and to the road between Nicktown and Spangler.

The High School days at the Palmer House Soda Fountain and Ice Cream Parlor last week netted the local students a handsome amount. Sunday proved a very good day, and the result was so much greater than had been anticipated that additional ice cream had to be secured at Cresson for Sunday afternoon and evening.

Mrs. P. C. Strittmatter and Mrs. Leonard Holtz were visitors in New Castle, Pa., on Wednesday of last week where they were in attendance at the funeral of W. A. Strittmatter, a relative, who was a prominent merchant of that place and was aged 81 years.

FOR SALE—Baby carriage in good condition. Inquire Mrs. Don Wright, next to Patton Auto Co.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Good is seriously ill at the Good home here.

Mrs. Joseph Daugherty and Mrs. Andrew Monteth, of Emigh Run, were among friends in Patton on Tuesday.

Mrs. Alex Monteth and family were Sunday visitors at Emigh Run, where they were the guests of the Andrew Monteth family.

Mrs. A. B. Clark, of Hastings, accompanied by her two sisters, Mrs. George McKay, of Burnside and Mrs. Madhaff, of New Jersey, were guests here Tuesday and attended the social meeting of the Eastern Star in their rooms here in the evening.

Mrs. W. H. Sandford, Mrs. H. L. Dinsmore and son, are visiting in Philadelphia at New Jersey this week. At Rahway, N. J. they will be the guests of Mrs. Henry Flood.

Earl Gill, Robt. Dinsmore and Miss Crawford returned on Monday to the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia, where they are enrolled as students.

Mrs. W. A. Dinsmore and Mrs. S. W. Worrill were visitors at the Mineral hospital, Spangler, where they called upon Mrs. Frank Wingard who recently underwent an operation at that institution and who is getting along nicely at this time.

Mrs. L. A. Busserman and Mrs. Frank McNulty were callers among friends in town Tuesday.

Are you giving your child a fair chance in his or her school work or are they held back on the account of defective eyesight? Send them here at once and we will give them advice as to the need of glasses or medical attention. Only Registered Optometrists at this store.

The Teizer Jewelry Co

THIS STORE WITH THE RED STREET CLOCK

PATTON,

PENNA.

- Style

- Quality

- Value for Price

The three combined briefly tell the truth about Fall merchandise in Altoona Booster stores.

Never have things been so beautiful as this season. Garments for everyone—man, woman or child—outrival those of former years in their reasonable becomingness, and quality for price.

When Altoona Booster merchants launched their Style Show Wednesday, Sept. 14, the stores were ablaze with those things which adorn the person and beautify the home.

Your local merchant DESERVES your patronage. Altoona as the centre of your district REQUESTS your patronage for that which he cannot supply.

Price comparisons for merchandise of equal value will make their own appeal to your better judgement.

YOU SAVE MONEY

Altoona Booster Association