SOMETHING MERCHANTS SHOULD READ!

"If you had newspaper space to sell, and a payroll to meet, would you sell your space to business men who want it or would you hold it for local people who won't take it and who sometimes declare advertising doesn't pay?"

The question is one that concerns newspaper editors everywhere. In many places, notably smaller communities, the newspaper has a hard struggle for existence. It may be a live sheet, splendidly edited, but the local merchant feels that "everybody knows him" and it is not necessary to advertise; that he does about "the same amount of business anyway."

He fails to appreciate what it means to his community to spread the news abroad of its doings, of its achievements and of its opportunities for new welfare.

A family means at least $1,000 yearly spent in that community. Every merchant gets his share of this.

In supporting the newspaper by advertising, the merchant encourages enterprise on the part of the publisher, and the greater the publicity given the town and district the more rapid the growth.

The local newspaper is the chamber of commerce and publicity bureau combined. It should have the support of every one, to the end that the greatest amount of good may be accomplished.

Thousands of dollars' worth of free advertising is given every year to the community by the local newspaper. Every little thing is boosted, and people abroad begin to find out what a fine place your town is.

Only in advertising can the local newspaper find reward for its effort. The subscriptions do not more than pay for the cost of publishing and delivering the paper.

In supporting the paper by advertising, the merchant is contributing not only to his direct benefit, but to the future of the community.

Naturally, if there is not sufficient income from local sources to pay the bills, and leave a fair margin of profit, there can be no question of the justification of the newspaper in accepting advertising from abroad.

The people of Patton, for instance, would not have the Patton Courier for another issue if it were not for outside advertising. The fact that this advertising space is in demand by outsiders is a tribute to the paper—to its influence and wide circulation.

CURFEW IS NEEDED.

Some months ago, at a meeting of the Patton Chamber of Commerce, a discussion took place as to the advisability of again renewing Patton's Curfew Ordinance, and it seemed to be the consensus of opinion of the members that this local statute should be enforced when school again opened.

At this particular time it seems to be needed. Children of the borough, some of them small ones, reign supreme on Patton's business streets as soon as darkness comes. Of course, the most of these children attend school. Running at large at night doesn't give them a chance to study evening work that the teacher may have mapped out for them. The curfew would be instrumental in keeping them at home during the evening, and will help make better citizens out of all of them.

It's up to Council to make the move.

"DEAD" STREET POLICEMEN.

For several days past the "silent" policeman at the Corner of Fifth avenue at the First Ward School Building has been missing, and, upon examination was found to be laying in the ditch at the side of the street. The tendency of most auto drivers is to speed up a hill, and when doing this on Fifth avenue, with out the traffic "regulator" at the top of the hill, the lives of many school children playing around the corner at the front of the school building is endangered.

The fact that the "Silent Cop" has been left off duty so long is nothing more than carelessness on the part of local authorities. Just why it should be permitted to be away from its post, when it has the most important corner in town to take care of, we are unable to determine.

TEN YEARS AGO.

Patton's second suicide within the past month occurred last Sunday afternoon, when Hans Hauge, a prominent Norwegian, living near town, fired a load of small shot into his head, killing himself instantly. The only cause ascribed for the act is the fact that his wife had been suffering for some time of an incurable malady and it is thought that this preyed upon his mind until he became dependent enough to commit the deed.

Patton Fire Company has called a public meeting to be held in the Grange Bank building on Thursday, October 12th, for the purpose of presenting the plans for their new home to the citizens and to devise some plan for the raising of funds to complete the building. Some ready cash is available but more will be needed and it is necessary to take prompt action if the Fire Company is to get their new home.

Mrs. Matilda Sheridan, living near St. Augustine, was taken ill suddenly Sunday evening and died Monday morning. She was sixty years of age and suffered a paralytic stroke.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Scarborough will occupy the residence vacated this week by Mrs. Moore. Mrs. Scarborough is now on the water on her way home from England.

August K. Huber, who has been confined to his home for some time is still improving slightly. On election day he was able to turn out and vote.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO.

On Tuesday, Daily & McGrath, the gentlemen who recently opened the laundry in Patton, transferred their interests to F. H. C. Warren, who will continue this business in connection with his painting and paper hanging business.

A. C. Fisher, the painter and contractor, has been awarded the contract of painting the new Catholic church and parsonage at St. Boniface, and has already commenced the work. Mr. Fisher expects to have the church painted, ready for dedication, by November 1st.

Patton is steadily growing. Quite a number of new buildings have been and are being erected here since spring, and a large number will be built the coming spring. This is truly the banner town of North Cambria.

WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT, BUICK WILL BUILD THEM

Thank my many friends who so loyally supported me in my run for Jury Commissioner at the recent primaries. Realizing the number of worthy opponents I had, and the fact of a woman candidate being something new in the field in this county, I am very well satisfied with results, but wish to advise my many friends that I am, in no wise, really beaten, but will show my appreciation of their support by continued loyalty to my Country and to my Party and in my recuperative powers to "come back".
Sincerely,
MRS. ROSE H. NAVLOR

OCTOBER SERMON SERIES, METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Rev. I. D. Ott, pastor of the Methodist church, has announced a series of special sermons for Sunday mornings and evenings which he will preach during the month of October. The sermons in the morning are especially adapted to Christians and present day conditions and needs. Every Christian ought to hear them. The evening sermons were specially prepared for young men and women in their teens who are shaping character and getting ready to go out into the world to take their part in its social, political, industrial, and business affairs. To be set wise, is to win. Following are the subjects:
Morning—Oct. 2, "Present Day Christianity," Oct. 9, "Mistakes of Parents," Oct. 16, "Out of Touch and in Touch," Oct. 23, "Giving All to Christ," Oct. 30, "Hindrances to Evangelism."
Evening—Oct. 2, "Does it Pay to Do Wrong," Oct. 9, "Choosing Courses in Life," Oct. 16, "A Good Name," Oct. 23, "Does it Pay to Be a Christian," Oct. 30, "Breaking Home Ties."

Trio Caught by State Police
BROWNSVILLE.—Three highway robbers were captured Saturday afternoon by State Police during a wild night in the mining town of Adah where they tried to shoot up the town.
Families were terrorized in the middle of the night by the shooting when seven homes were entered and seven persons injured, one seriously. "This is only the beginning of what is coming," said M. J. Krisko, one of the men, State Police declared, as the three men, handcuffed, were being led into the county jail.
Mrs. Albert Morris, of Barnesboro, was the guest of friends in Patton the early part of the week.
