GREATEST OF ALL PHOTOPLAYS COMING TO SMITH'S THEATRE, BARNESBORO

D. W. Griffith's wonder spectacle, "Way Down East," which comes to the Smith Theatre, Barnesboro, for 3 days, commencing Monday, January 9th, is assured a wonderful reception from the hearty response that that Manager Smith has evidenced from his patrons.

No theatrical attraction of the year has created the stire that has followed since th opening presentation of this production at the 44th Street Theatre in New York City early in September, 1920. It crowded that theatre twice daily from the start and was given such unstinted praise that it has been acclaimed the greatest picture of all times.

"Way Down East" as you know was a play by Lottie Blair Parker which Joseph R. Grismer helped adapt to the stage and enjoyed unusual popularity for over a decade upon the regular stage. D. W. Griffith has taken this basic story and by his new art form which represents a combination of music, drama and motion pictures, has produced a classic. It pictures New England rural life with a fidelity and charm which cannot be approached under any other circumstances. To this absorbing tale of love and lovers Mr. Griffith has given it those touches which make his work something apart from all other forms of dramatic and pictorial entertainment. Its great punch comes after the former story would ordinarily terminate and is the greatest scene ever conceived in the theatre.

An augmented orchestra will be on hand to render a special music score.
