NEWSY NOTES PERTAINING TO THE AMERICAN LEGION

Preamble of Constitution of the American Legion.

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purpose:

To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order, to foster and perpetuate a one hundred per cent. Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our association in the Great War; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.

The Pennsylvania State Department of the American Legion following the action taken at the last meeting of the Executive Committee will conduct a state wide drive for new members starting January the sixteenth and ending March first. Every district in the state will be organized by the local Legionnaires and an intensive drive under the direction of the local posts and district officers will be carried on. The state committee headed by State Commander Jos. H. Thompson, will consult with the local committees and in addition a four weeks' speaking tour will be handled by them.

The tremendous prestige which has come to the Legion both through the work which they are doing for their sick and disabled buddies and from the creditable way in which Marshal Poch, General Diaz and other Allied officers were brought to America and entertained has resulted in many new members joining the organization which now numbers over a million veterans of the World War. As the real aims of the Legion are becoming known to the citizens in general and the veterans in particular thousands who hesitated have finally endorsed this all embracing outfit. This increase the capacity of the Legion for helping the sick and disabled of which there are still hundreds in this state who need attention and aid.

Following the decision for a membership drive and before the announcement had been made, many posts volunteered to double their membership in 1921 over what it was in 1920. This has been shown by the large percentage of new members which appear in the reports being sent into state headquarters. Each county will be called upon to meet this requirement of 100% increase and announcements will be made from time to time concerning the progress being made by thousands of more individual posts.

Jim ("Jules") White, the strong man of the Navy, is in the habit of pulling loaded freight cars with his teeth and cracking railroad splices between his thumb and forefinger. When he entered state headquarters of the American Legion, he offered to lift desks and chairs with one hand, he wanted to use up radiators by their roots, he wanted to bash in the front of iron safe.

He was out of a job, and his energy, with no outlet, was becoming terrific. The Legion succeeded in placing him opening and closing doors in a club.

A national archives building in which would be assembled all the records of the World War is the aim of the American Legion's committee on memorials. A bronze tablet erected to a comrade who gives his life "in line of duty," upholding law and order, is a further recommendation of the committee.

Government nurses will not rank with "scrub maids" if a protest to the Senate made by John Thomas Taylor, of the legislative committee of the American Legion, bears fruit. Taylor objects strenuously to the section of the pending reclassification bill which he says "will tend to lower the nursing profession in the eyes of the public."

Loans, without security and at a low rate of interest, will be provided for sick and wounded ex-service men by a big rotating fund, plans for which are being worked out at national headquarters of the American Legion. Ex-soldiers who do not need the ready cash from Government compensation would contribute their bonus to the fund.

English ex-civilians will be taught at American Legion posts in Greater New York, at the request of the Board of Education. This furthers the Americanization campaign already under way.

All that the Veterans' Bureau has accomplished in hospitalization and rehabilitation of ex-soldiers will be wrecked if medical reserve officers are placed on a civilian status, according to John Thomas Taylor, vice-chairman of the American Legion's legislative committee, who is protesting the recommendation of the Bureau of Efficiency. "Behind the recommendation is an attempt to make the treatment of the disabled man a football of politics," Taylor declares.

ties of the American Legion employment bureau at Birmingham. Also, which recently registered 145 men from all parts of the country and only 105 residents of Birmingham.

A thousand dollars, farm experience, and an agreeable wife are the requisites of an applicant for a tract on the state soldier land settlement project. The applicant's wife must signify her willingness to take up rustic pursuits, according to an announcement from American Legion headquarters. This is designed to preclude unsuccessful experiments.

"Army discipline" is not imposed upon sick and wounded ex-soldiers under Government treatment, C. E. Forbes, director of the Veterans' Bureau, has informed the American Legion. A disabled soldier is not a W. O. L. merely because he leaves a Government hospital without consent of physicians. His only penalty is that he must foot his own transportation bill if he wishes to return.

All states are planning exhibits in connection with the conference of American Legion officials to be held at national headquarters January 13 and 14. The conference will be attended by General Harding, Secretary Denny, and a representative of President Harding.

To aid in combatting the "dope" evil which has invaded a number of ex-service hospitals in California, the American Legion is working with the Narcotic Control Association. James A. Johnston, warden of the California state prison, is president of the organization.

The famous surgeons, Drs. William and Charles Mayo, will treat former soldiers of the world war in a $200,000 hospital which the American Legion posts of Minnesota will erect. Patients will be charged according to their ability to pay, as determined by Legion officials.
