Beyond Comprehension.
 That, whose searching analysis of the past century, proved deeper than any philosopher before him, into the mystery of consciousness, contained the true secret of life with eyes, to reveal the faculty of the human mind to grasp the immensity of the universe and to comprehend the laws which govern it.

The "Bible"
 Why does a boy named Billy, who makes his mother open the front door and send a little neighbor boy if he had ever Billy, leaving her son. The boy asked, "Do you mean Billy Doe or Billy Do?"

Unrepentant.
 Daughter (weeping bitterly)—"Oh, do have pity, papa, and let Edward and me be happy." Papa (naturalist, furiously)—"What! You think of matrimony, when you don't even know how many vertebrae there are in the spinal column of a lizard!"—Christian Register.

Something They Didn't Want.
 Some of these numerous and virtuous folk who are always crying for justice may some day get it. Then what will they say?—Milwaukee News.
