Rough Basketball Game at Patton Results in Victory for Home Team.

Bakerton went down to defeat at the hands of the local Big Five at the Miners' Hall here Thursday evening by a score of 23-12. Owing to the referee's laxity in calling fouls in the first half, the game became very rough on the part of both sides. The locals, however, displayed better judgment than the visitors, and led at the end of 20 minutes' play, 19 to 6. Shortly after the second half started, Bakerton objected to the referee's manner of calling the fouls, and Patton allowed a Bakerton man to finish the game in the capacity of referee. Christoff and McNamara played a good offensive game for the winners, while Larimer put up a strong

GREAT PLAY AGAIN LIVES THROUGH GRIFFITH'S EFFORTS

Again, as in the case of "The Birth of a Nation," Griffith has turned a success of the stage for his material. This time he has taken a play that has withstood the tests of time for more than a score of years and enjoyed an unusual appeal. The success that has crowned his efforts proves that nothing dies for this master of the silent drama; no art is lost. This great play lives again in greater scope and grandeur through his touch and vivification. When Little Blair Parker and Joseph Grimmer brought forth this drama at a time before people were accustomed to think in or of the theatre it was referred to as a rural play; Griffith has utilized it to bring forth the story of a woman's soul and thus lay bare truths as urban as Broadway and as
