

Special Sale WEAR-EVER

Two Quart thick hard sheet ALUMINUM PUDDING PANS

The utensil of a hundred uses. Regular price $1.10 Special price from March 15 to 25th 49c each

Binder & Starrett, 5th Ave. Patton, Pa.

Patton Personals

Send Us Every Item of News You Know and Help Sell This Department. Every Article Helps

The World Wide Guild of the Baptist Church and Calvary Chapel was entertained at its last meeting by Miss Henrietta Mitchell.

Miss Loreto Frindible, of this place, was named as one of the Democratic County Committee of thirty, at a meeting held by prominent Democrats in Johnstown last week.

George Parker, of Philipsburg, called on Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morrow on Tuesday.

Miss Catherine Simpson spent the week-end at her home in Somerset.

Miss Louise Cruse visited at her home in Beliefonte recently.

C. D. Keim was a week end visitor at his home in Harrisburg.

Joseph Farabaugh of Bakerton was a recent visitor here.

Miss Gussie Leiden of St. Lawrence is visiting her uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. P. J. Kelly, of Patton.

Mr. John Dangle is recovering from a severe attack of the grip.

The picture slated for the Grand Theatre on Monday next is playing Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Ella May Lilly is confined to her home by an attack of grip.

Miss Daisy Commons is ill at her home here.

Mrs. Harry Deschamps of Patton recently visited at the home of her father, Thomas Rosser of Hastings.

The Misses Effie Squires and Anna Lesko of Patton were recent visitors at Hastings.

Mrs. Richard Lilly is confined to her home with an attack of the "flu."

Miss Margaret Flynn spent the week-end in Altoona.

Dr. and Mrs. G. R. Mellon, of Mt. Pleasant, Pa., spent the week-end among relatives in Patton.

Miss Rose Lehman is the guest this week of her sister, Mrs. Paul Blum at Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

week's run this week at the Olympic Theatre in Pittsburgh. You can't afford to miss it.

Miss Mary Strayer has returned to her home here after several days' visit with her parents in Johnstown.

George Warner of St. Lawrence was a recent visitor here.

Miss Bertha Wilkinson, who is in training for nursing at the West Penn Hospital, Pittsburgh, was called to her home here recently by the illness and death of her brother.

Mrs. Sylvester Nuss has been confined to her home by illness for some time.

Miss Samuelson is filling the vacancy in the Second ward school caused by the resignation of Miss Mary Kane, now Mrs. Basil Weakland.

Miss Ella May Lilly is confined to her home by an attack of grip.

Mrs. Harry Deschamps of Patton recently visited at the home of her father, Thomas Rosser of Hastings.

The Misses Effie Squires and Anna Lesko of Patton were recent visitors at Hastings.

Mrs. Richard Lilly is confined to her home with an attack of the "flu."

Miss Margaret Flynn spent the week-end in Altoona.

Dr. and Mrs. G. R. Mellon, of Mt. Pleasant, Pa., spent the week-end among relatives in Patton.

Miss Rose Lehman is the guest this week of her sister, Mrs. Paul Blum at Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Edward Overberger, assistant principal of the Gallatin High School, visited relatives and friends at this place over the week-end.

I. A. Overberger, assistant cashier of the Grange National Bank, spent a couple of days in Johnstown last week on business.

Dr. Brown, of Burnside, while on his way to Harrisburg Monday stopped at this place a couple of hours.

Fred Maurer transacted business in Philadelphia recently.

WANTED—Girl for general house work in small family. No washing or ironing. Apply at the Courier's office.

The members of the Ladies' Patton Bridge Club, with their husbands, were entertained at the home of Mrs. and Mrs. B. Cowher last Thursday night.

Mrs. Blair Kelley entertained a number of friends at a shower in honor of Mrs. Basil Weakland last Saturday night.

The Patton High school girls entertained the Gallatin High school girls at the Mizera' Hall here last Friday night following a basketball game between the two teams at which time the Patton lasses were the victors. Music and games were followed by a luncheon.

Dr. Brown, of Burnside, while on his way to Harrisburg Monday stopped at this place a couple of hours.

Fred Maurer transacted business in Philadelphia recently.

WANTED—Girl for general house work in small family. No washing or ironing. Apply at the Courier's office.

The members of the Ladies' Patton Bridge Club, with their husbands, were entertained at the home of Mrs. and Mrs. B. Cowher last Thursday night.

Mrs. Blair Kelley entertained a number of friends at a shower in honor of Mrs. Basil Weakland last Saturday night.

CHARTER NO. 8233

Report of condition of the Grange National Bank at Patton, Pa., in the State of Pennsylvania, at the close of business on March 10th, 1922.

Table with columns for Assets and Liabilities. Assets include Cash, Loans, and Real Estate. Liabilities include Deposits, Capital, and Surplus.

Enlargement of St. John's Orphanage Asylum for boys at Cresson is proposed in an announcement made Sunday by the Rt. Rev. John J. McCurt, Bishop of the Altoona Diocese of the Catholic Church.

The first orphanage building at Cresson was established by the Rt. Rev. Eugene A. Garvey, deceased Bishop of the Altoona Diocese, some 12 or more years ago.

Once again the Great Spirit has summoned through Death a Brother Redman to take the Long Trail to the Happy Hunting Grounds to the Kingdom of Posenal to a life in the Great Hereafter.

He has been a diligent and faithful worker in the Tribe's labors of Freedom, Friendship and Charity and has contributed freely of aid in relieving the distress of the widow and orphan.

As a recompense for his service, he has received the plaudit, "Well done" from the Great Spirit. And whereas, the All Wise and Merciful Father has called our beloved and respected brother Home, and he having been a true and faithful member of our Tribe, he is resolved that Killbuck Tribe No. 569 Improved Order of Redmen of Patton, Pennsylvania in testimony of our loss tender to this family and friends of the deceased brother our sincere condolence in their deep affliction, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family and published in The Patton Courier and Johnstown Tribune, and that our Charter be draped for a period of Thirty Days.

With His own precious blood. To hear the congregation sing this hymn last Sunday, was to understand the secret of the spirituality and enthusiasm which marks every service at the Baptist Church. Everybody is cordially invited to come and share the blessings. Morning worship 10:30. Evening worship 7:45. Sunday school 2:30 P. M. Prayer meeting and Bible study Wednesday 7:45 P. M. Come, and bring others with you.

Onward Christian soldiers, Marching as to war, With the cross of Jesus Going on before. Anyone who hears this hymn sung last Sunday to the accompaniment of the organ and choir, at the Calvary Baptist Chapel, could understand the spirit of progress always manifested there. "Onward" and "Forward" is all

CHARTER NO. 8233

Report of condition of the Grange National Bank at Patton, Pa., in the State of Pennsylvania, at the close of business on March 10th, 1922.

Table with columns for Assets and Liabilities. Assets include Cash, Loans, and Real Estate. Liabilities include Deposits, Capital, and Surplus.

Enlargement of St. John's Orphanage Asylum for boys at Cresson is proposed in an announcement made Sunday by the Rt. Rev. John J. McCurt, Bishop of the Altoona Diocese of the Catholic Church.

The first orphanage building at Cresson was established by the Rt. Rev. Eugene A. Garvey, deceased Bishop of the Altoona Diocese, some 12 or more years ago.

Once again the Great Spirit has summoned through Death a Brother Redman to take the Long Trail to the Happy Hunting Grounds to the Kingdom of Posenal to a life in the Great Hereafter.

He has been a diligent and faithful worker in the Tribe's labors of Freedom, Friendship and Charity and has contributed freely of aid in relieving the distress of the widow and orphan.

As a recompense for his service, he has received the plaudit, "Well done" from the Great Spirit. And whereas, the All Wise and Merciful Father has called our beloved and respected brother Home, and he having been a true and faithful member of our Tribe, he is resolved that Killbuck Tribe No. 569 Improved Order of Redmen of Patton, Pennsylvania in testimony of our loss tender to this family and friends of the deceased brother our sincere condolence in their deep affliction, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family and published in The Patton Courier and Johnstown Tribune, and that our Charter be draped for a period of Thirty Days.

With His own precious blood. To hear the congregation sing this hymn last Sunday, was to understand the secret of the spirituality and enthusiasm which marks every service at the Baptist Church. Everybody is cordially invited to come and share the blessings. Morning worship 10:30. Evening worship 7:45. Sunday school 2:30 P. M. Prayer meeting and Bible study Wednesday 7:45 P. M. Come, and bring others with you.

Onward Christian soldiers, Marching as to war, With the cross of Jesus Going on before. Anyone who hears this hymn sung last Sunday to the accompaniment of the organ and choir, at the Calvary Baptist Chapel, could understand the spirit of progress always manifested there. "Onward" and "Forward" is all

"Eye Sight Specialists"

Lense properly fitted to the eyes by Registered Optometrists at

The Tozer Jewelry Co

THE STORE WITH THE RED STREET CLOCK

PATTON, PENNA.

FOGERTY PHARMACY

FIFTH AVENUE

PATTON, PA.

Just received a new shipment of Highland Linen in all shades, Gentlemen's Club and a fine selection of the latest in Stationery.

Phone

87 E.

HOLY TRINITY EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Alfred Nugent Samwell, rector. Sunday school at 2 p. m. Sunday, March 19th, evening prayer and sermon at 7:30 p. m.

BROTHER JOHN WILSON WHO DIED MARCH 4th, 1922

Once again the Great Spirit has summoned through Death a Brother Redman to take the Long Trail to the Happy Hunting Grounds to the Kingdom of Posenal to a life in the Great Hereafter.

He has been a diligent and faithful worker in the Tribe's labors of Freedom, Friendship and Charity and has contributed freely of aid in relieving the distress of the widow and orphan.

As a recompense for his service, he has received the plaudit, "Well done" from the Great Spirit. And whereas, the All Wise and Merciful Father has called our beloved and respected brother Home, and he having been a true and faithful member of our Tribe, he is resolved that Killbuck Tribe No. 569 Improved Order of Redmen of Patton, Pennsylvania in testimony of our loss tender to this family and friends of the deceased brother our sincere condolence in their deep affliction, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family and published in The Patton Courier and Johnstown Tribune, and that our Charter be draped for a period of Thirty Days.

With His own precious blood. To hear the congregation sing this hymn last Sunday, was to understand the secret of the spirituality and enthusiasm which marks every service at the Baptist Church. Everybody is cordially invited to come and share the blessings. Morning worship 10:30. Evening worship 7:45. Sunday school 2:30 P. M. Prayer meeting and Bible study Wednesday 7:45 P. M. Come, and bring others with you.

Onward Christian soldiers, Marching as to war, With the cross of Jesus Going on before. Anyone who hears this hymn sung last Sunday to the accompaniment of the organ and choir, at the Calvary Baptist Chapel, could understand the spirit of progress always manifested there. "Onward" and "Forward" is all

BAPTIST CHURCH

I love thy Kingdom, Lord, The house of thine abode, The Church our Blessed Redeemer saved.

With His own precious blood. To hear the congregation sing this hymn last Sunday, was to understand the secret of the spirituality and enthusiasm which marks every service at the Baptist Church. Everybody is cordially invited to come and share the blessings. Morning worship 10:30. Evening worship 7:45. Sunday school 2:30 P. M. Prayer meeting and Bible study Wednesday 7:45 P. M. Come, and bring others with you.

CALVARY CHAPEL

Onward Christian soldiers, Marching as to war, With the cross of Jesus Going on before.

Anyone who hears this hymn sung last Sunday to the accompaniment of the organ and choir, at the Calvary Baptist Chapel, could understand the spirit of progress always manifested there. "Onward" and "Forward" is all

KODAK FINISHING

Prompt Service Your Name in Print List, etc. Try Our Enlargements

M. J. FARABAUGH, Pat. Co. CAR-OLLETTOWN, PA.

Dr. C. I. Baldwin Dentist

Palmer House Patton

REUEL SOMERVILLE

Attorney-at-Law

Office in the Good Building

Ask Any One Outside Board Where you Can get The Good Wall Paper

In every And Without a doubt Left any These Easy Just Drop In

BUCK'S FURNITURE STORE

Patton, Pa.

BUCK'S FURNITURE STORE

Patton, Pa.