Club Members Get Pigs.
 At the Schwab estate, Lovett, the other day, distribution was made of the 18 thoroughbred Duroc pigs purchased by Mr. McWilliams, Ray Mc-Coy and A. E. Parabough, on a recent tour of various northern and eastern counties. The Schwab estate shared the distribution. While there were 18 pigs, the list of recipients totals 17. One of the club members took two of the pigs. Those receiving the blooded porkers are the Schwab estate, Dr. Harry Somerville, of Chest Springs; W. J. Karpman, of near Chest Springs; Ray McCoy, East Den-rad, A. T. Lewis, A. W. Smithbauer, A. E. Parabough, E. A. Parabough, Engelbert Parabough, Robert Parabough, E. G. McCoy, John Lewis and A. J. Little, all of Lovett; R. D.
 Lawrence, Bertram and Frank Bala, both of Crosson R. D., and John Mc-Gough, of Lovett, R. D.

Special feeding of the pigs has become an interesting feature. Each pig was tagged in the ear with a number. Correspondence with members will make a record of the progress of pedigree records, etc., before presenting the pigs.

THE SMARTE SHOPPE,

Porkers Will Be Exhibited at the Carrolltown Fair in Special Class.

County Farm Agent H. C. McWilliams is pushing preparations just now for the annual pig-feeding contest between clubs of boys and girls.
 Special interest attaches to the contest this year because the Directors of the Carrolltown Fair have decided to permit display of the fed-up pigs at the annual show next September, with the special premium offered.
 This has put the boys and girls in the matter of developing their pigs to the utmost.

At a meeting held in the Allegheny Township Election House recently a temporary organization to direct the contest was effected by the election of M. J. Bradley, of Crosson, R. D., as Chairman; Ray McCoy, of Lovett, R. D., Secretary, and the appointment of a Committee on Constitution and By-Laws consisting of Agent McWilliams, R. G. McCoy, of Lovett, R. D., and Ray McCoy. This committee is to prepare a report on constitution and by-laws and also go into the matter of details for the contest. Another committee is to be organized to see that the necessary outfit and the boys and girls give a good show.

Cross Roads Grange and Chest Springs Grange are sponsoring and will support the competition. Two clubs, of eight boys and eight girls, respectively, have been tentatively organized already. The pigs entered in the contest will be officially weighed in at the start, for comparison, at the end of the contest, with the weight gained through the specialized feeding. The boys and girls will be carefully instructed in the keeping of daily records, so that when the contest is ended and the porkers are ready to be put on display at the Carrolltown Fair, County Agent Mc-Williams and the committee can give exact results in each case, as one aid toward deciding the prize winners.
 The contest proved highly successful last year, but Mr. McWilliams and the grangers are assured the 1922 results will establish a standard for efficient feeding of porkers, in Pennsylvania, at least.

Cards are out announcing big motorcycle races on the Carrolltown Fair grounds, Decoration Day, May 30th.
 From the amount of entries in the different events from all parts of Cambria, Blair and Somerset Counties, the afternoon program seems well warranted for those who take the advantage of the opportunity to be present.

Fordson Often Does More In a Day Than Six Horses

- The Fordson substitutes motors for muscles.
- The Fordson substitutes tractor wheels for the legs of man and horse.
- The Fordson takes the burden off flesh and blood and puts it on steel.
- It allows the farmer's energy to be devoted to management, and not merely to operation. It gives him time. It cuts his producing costs.
- There's a big story of savings made possible by the Fordson. Let us tell you. Write, phone or call.
