LEGION WOMAN, MOTHER OF 21

Mrs. Jacob Caranek, Healthy and Happy, Holds Record Among Producers of Americans.

Mrs. Jacob Caranek, who runs a neat little grocery store in New Orleans and therein sells butter and eggs, bread, meats, canned corn and maybe the necessities for making those delicious Southern pean candies, is also a champion mother of the American Legion Auxiliary. She is, at least, until some one comes along who is the mother of 22 children, to beat Mrs. Caranek's 21.

A child had come to Mrs. Caranek's house each year for 21 years when America entered the World war. Which of the 21 was dearest to her herself could not tell, but when the two eldest boys, Joseph and Louis, went away to war the large Caranek family was cast into shadow. "What else should I do?" Mrs. Caranek questioned. "They are Americans and their country needs them. If it is a duty to raise children, it is right to make them love their country." But when Joseph and Louis came home—Joseph served overseas with the Railroad division and fought in four battles, while Louis fought in and around Camp Beauregard—the little grocery store could scarce contain the joyful celebration.

Mrs. Caranek came to America when she was fifteen years old, leaving her native village of Petravice in Czechoslovakia. She is forty-seven years old now and her husband is fifty-eight. The youngest child is six years old and the oldest twenty-eight. Mrs. Caranek has been in but one motion picture show in her life and she left before that one was over. She works from five in the morning until ten at night in her grocery. And she hasn't a gray hair and has never been sick but once and enjoys life.

NAMED FOR THE COMMANDER

As the Legion grows, it is named for the Commander.

Since the first time that America and a war, have come into the world named for a great or favorite general. The namesakes of Gen. George Washington are still in existence; those of Robert R. Lee and U. S. Grant are going strong into the second generation and there are not few John J. Pershing, Buffalo Soldiers and Teddy Roosevelt.

One service man of the American Legion has, however, started the naming of babies after the national commander of the Legion of the year in which the child was born. The first in record is young Hanford Morris, Atlanta, Ga., born a few days after Hanford MacNider, Mason City, Ia., was elected national commander of the Legion. His father, Albert R. Morris, is a member of Atlanta post No. 1 of the Legion.

Recently an ex-soldier of Chicago went into court and asked to be allowed to drop his middle name, which was unpronounceable, he declared. The court gave permission and the service man, an enthusiastic Legionnaire, chose the name of Legion to accompany him through life.

Legion Post Stages "Movies." To satisfy curiosity-bounds, the Hollywood (Cal.) post of the American Legion stages a "movie" every week. This movie, which runs on the nerves of the people in Morristown, and at the same time gives tourists a view of how movies are made, had real directors, camera, and stars are used in the model exhibitions—but the Legion does the work.

Consider "Star" Flag an Insignia. The flag, conceived by the U. S. C. T. U. of getting star flags in windows of houses where no liquor is consumed, is protected by an American Legion post in San Francisco, composed entirely of newspaper men. The Legion men claim that the liquor star flag is an atrocious plagiarism of the service flag of war days, and that it is an insult to all former service men.

To Halt "Faker" Money-Raising. In an effort to stamp out the sale of publications by ex-service men who allege that the money derived is going to be used for the benefit of sick and wounded ex-service men, the American Legion national office has warned its 11,000 posts not to sanction any sale of periodicals with the Chamber of Commerce or some like civic organization has first approved.

LEGION IS DIPLOMAT

Miss Ruth, Girl, Her Brother "King"

Women's diplomacy is the art of making the art of peace.

For the first time in ten years York is entirely free from diphtheria in May, local Health Director Small stated that the record can be attributed to three years devoted by the health board to seek out and isolate carriers of the disease.

A letter written by Yan Panket, a Shamokin soldier in the world war, was admitted to probate as his will by Register Carl S. Sunbury. The letter was written August 3, 1918, from Camp Lee, and expressed a desire that, if he did not come back, his $10,000 insurance be paid to his young daughter. The letter contained a fervent prayer for her safety, but he was killed in action.

The tips of three wagon mines near Turtle Creek, a Pittsburgh suburb, were blown up with a loss of approximately $1000. No one was hurt. The mines have been in operation with small forces since the coal strike was called.

The Chester police raided the residence of Joseph Baltrunas and found two stills, one a 140-gallon affair, and a quantity of home-brewed liquor. The stills and liquor were confiscated and Baltrunas was held for a hearing.

An attempt to kill Alvin Karpis, of Chicago, near Portville, was made by being fired on from ambush as he was walking along a highway. The bullet passed within a hair's breadth of his head, and Bremer, for the time, was overcome by his narrow escape. He is employed at the Seaman Tube Works at Ashburn.

An 11-year-old schoolboy of West Scranton, Roscoe Boyko, was electrocuted when he climbed a tree near a school ground and came in contact with a heavily charged electric wire.

David Snyder, aged 17, a ball player, died as the result of being hit on the head by a pitched ball while playing on the Schuylkill valley, six miles from Portville. The ball hit him back of the right ear and he fell unconscious. First aid was administered, but as he failed to recover he was taken to the State Hospital at Fountain Springs, but the physicians found it impossible to revive him. No blame is attached to the pitcher who threw the ball.

Fire Warden Dewey Scudert, of Shenandoah, has made the first claim for the reward offered for the arrest and conviction of a person starting a forest fire. His claim is for $200 for causing the conviction of two men who were convicted in the Schuylkill county courts. The reward was offered two years ago and this is the first claim.

Refusing an automatic revolver in clearing E. Edward Avoness, of Lehigh Hill, near Point Marion, was shot several times before he could stop the firing. Four shots were discharged, three entering his legs. It is believed that an artery was severed and Avoness, weak from loss of blood, was hurried to the Lehigh Valley Hospital. He told Dr. L. N. Buchwald, of Point Marion, who attended him, that he intentionally discharged the weapon in some manner, and he with other members of the family declared the shooting was entirely accidental.

No scarce has labor become as a result of the resumption of the mills in New Castle, that Contractor Ferry, who is constructing the new Mount Jackson route, south of the city, has appealed to the board of trade here to secure enough men to complete the work which is already behind schedule.

Two unmasked bandits entered a store in the East Liberty district of Pittsburgh, held up the manager and his two daughters, locked the front door and then leisurely robbed the safe of $200. They then opened the door, and walking into the street, disappeared in the crowd of noonday shoppers.

Dominick Logan was sentenced to two years in the Eastern Penitentiary and fined $50 and costs for robbing the Summit Wolf store, at Sunbury. Placing responsibility on the crew of a trolley car for the death of Mrs. Ambrose Sawyer, who was killed at Pennside, near Reading, when an automobile driven by her husband was struck, a coroner's jury censured the Reading Transit company for not having provided proper safety precautions at the crossing.

Fifty more men were suspended at the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron shops at Pottsville in the move for economy; being made by the company to cut down its expenses while coal mining is suspended. Seven hundred other men will continue to work three days a week.

Forest fires which broke out again the latter part of the week were checked by rains, it was announced by the state department of forestry. Numerous arrests for fires during April have been reported.

Miss Helen Weber, a junior in the Lewistown high school, won the first honors in the first girls' inter-school oratorical contest.

Tork authorities are trying to find the source of a stream of counterfeit half dollars pouring into local stores. Burs Helen Weber, a junior in the Lewistown high school, won the first honors in the first girls' inter-school oratorical contest.

Struck by a baseball as he sat on the front porch of his home reading a newspaper, John Colbert, aged 46, of Chubbington, lost the sight of his right eye.

PENNSYLVANIA BRIEFS

The annual convention of the Milfts County Sunday School Association will be held at Reesville June 13 and 14.

Edward L. Dargun, of Conneville, has been named division chief of the internal revenue district including Fayette and Seneca counties.

The Hazleton school board has allocated the $50 annual allowance given to teachers who take summer courses.

Mayor Harvey, of Hazleton, ordered bill posting companies to remove cards of candidates for office from telephone and telegraph poles.

Joseph Shatto, editor of the Sharon Telegraph, and Charles E. Perigo, reporter on the same paper, are lying in a critical condition at a New Castle hospital as a result of injuries sustained when an automobile in which they were returning to Sharon after attending a circus in New Castle hit a telephone pole. Both suffered skull fractures and were terribly cut on their heads and shoulders. The car was practically demolished.

Shickelshiny authorities are investigating the mysterious fire which destroyed the Methodist church and Grange Hall at Muhlenberg, five miles from there, with a loss of $9000. The blaze was discovered by the pastor of the church, Rev. George Metzger, when the heat broke the windows and the flames came shooting out. The entire interior then was afire, and the wind swept the flames over the roof to the Grange hall. It was only by the hardest kind of a fight that the other buildings nearby were prevented from burning.

A decrease of six industrial fatalities in April as compared with March with a marked decline in the number of mine casualties, due to the suspension of mining, was reported by the commissioner of labor and industry.

Mining fatalities for April were 38 as compared to 57 in March. Fayette and Schuylkill counties had five each and Westmoreland county six. Other accidents included 47 in general industry and 19 on railroads and other public utilities.

Commissioner Connelly said figures on permanent injuries for the month showed the loss of 57 eyes and 25 feet. Compensation awarded on permanent injuries totaled $230,000.

Charles Pitts, Monacaery farmer, had an exciting experience when five young men came to his house on a motor truck and attempted to search his premises for whisky. Only the determination of Pitts in the face of revolvers not to allow the men to enter after he told them he had no whisky prevented them ransacking the house. He called for help and the men fled.

In a battle with a prisoner in the Susquehanna county Jail at Montrose, Chief of Police Albert Tingley, who is acting sheriff, was compelled to empty his revolver at Joseph Wilcox, an alleged bandit. No one was hurt and the prisoner released.

TREASURY PROBE TO BEGIN JUNE 1

Auditor General Samuel Lewis Will Conduct Public Hearing on Audit Report

MANY PERSONS SUMMONED

Interesting News, Items, Briefly Condensed, Picked Up at the Department, Which Are of Interest to the People of the State.

Harrisburg, Pa.,—People concerned with matters touched upon in the report of the audit of the state treasury during the Kefauver term will be summoned to a public hearing before Auditor General Samuel S. Lewis on June 1 and 2. It was announced following a prolonged conference between Mr. Lewis and chief justice Edward J. Fox the special deputy attorney general named by Attorney General George E. Alter to make the investigation. The auditor general will exercise the powers given him under the act of 1811 to secure presence of persons, books and papers as may be required.

Mr. Lewis stated he could not say just who would be summoned as it has just been decided what course to pursue, but that the letters giving notice would be issued within a day or so. He added as soon as he could complete study of the report of the accountants, he would make public what was contained in "section IV."

Ruling on Residence of Dependent. Even if a person was a dependent of the fact that she was not a member of the household of a decedent bars her from claiming compensation according to a decision made by the State Compensation Board in the claim of Louise Dupan, Hastings, vs. the Rich Hill Coal Co., of that place, which raises an interesting question. The girl was given $35 a month for support by her grand uncle, John Stevenson but lived with her grand parents at the same town. It is held it must be proven the dependent was a member of the decedent's household.

National Guard Officers. Appointments of National Guard officers were announced by Adjutant General Geary following approval by Governor Sproul. The appointments all effective at once include: For One Hundred and Fourth Cavalry, Hugh E. Dickson, Altoona, first lieutenant, Company G; Ralph F. Hornum, Erie, second lieutenant, Company F.

State Survey of Bakeries. Assurance of Pennsylvania's cooperation in a nation wide movement for raising standards of bakery products was given here by Commissioner of Labor and Industry C. B. Connelley who announced plans for a State survey of bakeries and a call for the State Advisory Commission on Bakeries of the State Industrial Board. The members of the committee will discuss the matter with the State Convention of bakers at Bedford, June 4 and 7.

Purchase of Supplies and Materials. W. Richmond Smith, connected with the New York State government at Albany, has been recommended by Governor Nathan Miller, of New York, to appear before the Pennsylvania State Commission on Governmental Reorganization to discuss the system of State purchases of supplies and materials and will meet the Commission here shortly.

Fire Warden Dewey Scudert Claimed. Fire Warden Dewey Scudert of Shenandoah has obtained the reward for arrests and conviction of a person starting a forest fire. His claim is for $250 for causing conviction of two men in the Schuylkill county courts. The reward was first offered two years ago and this is the first claim.

Construction of State Roads. Most of the contracts upon which bids for construction of State roads were received in April have been acted upon by the Highway Department officials. It is likely bids will be opened next month on projects on which April tenders were rejected.

State Army Board. The State Army Board has been called for a session here at which matters pertaining to the Luzerne county artillery armory are to be considered. The Board will also discuss repair and similar work.

Decisions that the men elected county superintendent of schools in three counties are qualified to act and an order for a hearing on a bench case have been announced at the State Department of Public Instruction. The hearing will be held on a protest from Pike county school directors against the election of Chester B. Dinstinger, of Bedford. The commission will be issued unless the record of Mr. Dinstinger is impeached.

CAUSE OF PILES INTERNAL TREAT THEM INTERNALLY
Trying to permanently relieve piles through operations is as silly as it would be to relieve toothache by cutting off an arm. To relieve any physical disorder the cause must be removed before relief can be expected. Internal disinfectants and suppositories are not only money and inconvenient, but are external treatments and so can supply only temporary relief. COLON PILE PILLS are an easy to take as any pill. They tone up the circulation in the lower bowels, aid organs to function normally and help to remove the enlarged veins that cause piles.
