Famous Tree, 800 Years Old, Shows Signs of Wear

Mexico City,-The "great tree of Tule," in Santa Maria de Tule, state of Oaxaca, after 800 years, is beginning to show signs of wear. This giant cypress, with a trunk so huge it takes 30 persons with outstretched arms to span lt, is known to have been a fair-shed tree when Columbus discovered America.

History also recounts that Cortes and his Spanish soldiers slept beneuth its branches four centuries ago en route to Honduras following their conquest of for worty, however, that Tule, as Indians call the tree, will wither away before the present generation has passed on. And even if it should, Tule has a son some fifty yards away that is showing signs of maintaining the family honor. Hije (son) already is so large 12 persons are needed to spyn it. Hijo is only a couple of fundred years old. The tires rises 175 feet. The spread of its branches is almost
