

Key Memorial Bridge Nearing Completion

The Francis Scott Key memorial bridge across the Potomac at Washington is nearing completion and will be dedicated and opened to traffic on New Year's day, 1923. It will replace the old bridge which also is shown in this photograph.

Famous Yosemite Park Rock Fenced

Here is the first photograph of the new fence erected by the United States government in Yosemite National Park, to keep people off the famous rock which is known as El Capitan. The rock stands on the edge of Yosemite valley with a sheer drop of 3,254 feet. It has been a favorite spot for diversions for its devotees, such as standing on one hand or hanging over the edge with a rope.

Wagner's Piano Brought to America

This piano, on which Richard Wagner composed some of his most famous works, was found in Germany by Robert H. Prosser, a former American soldier, whose portrait is inserted. He has brought it to the United States and will place it in some museum.

Largest Mushroom Ever Discovered

Dr. Fred J. Boudette, located at Washington, announcing a 15-pound mushroom which he found in Rock Creek park. It is said to be the largest mushroom ever discovered and is given the botanical name polyporus giganteus.

The American Legion

(Only for Veterans and their Families)

THE MAN WITH DOUBLE BRAIN

Hayward Thompson, Memory Shocked During War, Writes With Two Hands.

The majority of us do well to write legibly with one hand, but when a man is found who can write with both hands simultaneously, and more than that—when he can write forward with one hand and backward with the other, it is evident that he has a perfect right to the title of "Mystery Man."

Thompson's wondrous reaches back only to the time when he left a hospital some months ago. He remembers nothing of his life before that time. It was through the veterans' bureau that he established his identity as Hayward Thompson. Of his father's name, his work and home before the war and his activities during the war, he has been able to learn nothing.

THE REAL UNKNOWN SOLDIER

Child of Storm, Picked Up by Kind Hearted British, Never Knew Who He Was.

Tragic though the story is of a soldier whose identity was lost after his life had been spent in the field of battle and whose only friend was a simple "Unknown Soldier," his story is not about the death of a man who gave his life for a cause in which he had never known the meaning of a father's love.

OUJIA TO THE RESCUE

A day's hunting of humanity was picked up in a back street some twenty years ago by a baby boy. When after a thorough search, no one was found who would claim him, he was taken to be reared by two brothers, who gave him the name of Edward John Smith.

WOUNDED ON ARMISTICE DAY

Backlogs Naval Officer Holds Distinction of Being Wounded in Action After Close of War.

O. O. Roll, of Toledo, O., holds the unique distinction of being a United States naval officer who was wounded in action after the signing of the armistice which closed the World War. As a naval lieutenant and executive officer of a merchant ship, Roll was severely wounded when his ship was captured by a German submarine on the afternoon of November 11, 1918.

Carrying On With the American Legion

A tourist park for Great Postholders is projected by the American Legion post of Troy, Minn. To give the town a thorough cleaning and brightening up for the summer, each member of the Legion post of Vilhild, Minn., donated a day's work.

WHO FOUND HER PHOTO?

Picture of Indiana Beauty, Lost on Battle Field, Badly Wanted by the Owner.

What member of the army, navy or the dusty engineers, or the quartermaster corps, marine corps, tank corps, medics or balloon corps, etc., etc., who served overseas during the World War ever found a photograph similar to the one reproduced here? If that member of the etc., etc., will surrender it to its owner, she prizes it most highly for sentimental reasons, naturally, two hearts will beat violently as one.

The photograph is that of Miss Harriet Elinor of Indiana. It was carried next his heart by her soldier sweetheart, and in the well-known tumult and confusion of a battle around Chateau Thierry, or at St. Mihiel, or in the Argonne, or while his baggage was being very considerably cared for some place far back of the lines, the photograph was lost. Men who went through the same mill will know that neglect didn't lose the photo, but, as some one has so well said, but few girls get into those battles.

EIGHTEEN HOURS IN WATER

Philip Burger, Legion Man of Troy, Wears Decoration From Portuguese Government.

Spending eighteen hours holding to the edge of a life raft in icy water after saving a shipmate's life, made Philip J. Burger eligible for the unusual honor of a decoration from the Portuguese government and the American Distinguished Service Medal. Burger was a second class gunner's mate on the American destroyer Jacob Jones, when she was torpedoed by a German submarine off Landa End, England, in December, 1917.

NO JOB, GIVES HIS BLOOD

Former Service Man of Omaha Aids Sufferer and His Own Family at Same Time.

The heroic spirit of man has not always been born under the shadow of awe-inspiring mountains, or the rock-bound coast of the sea or in the busy, crowded ways of a great city. Fred W. Smith of Omaha has never lived in the presence of those magnificent and noble works of God or man. In fact, his days have been spent on an unromantic Nebraska farm, in an Omaha packing plant and in the kitchen of a base hospital in France.

But these things have not kept him from being the true hero. Not long ago, when a man was dying in an Omaha hospital, and the doctors believed that a pint of human blood might save his life, Fred Smith went immediately to the hospital and offered to let as much blood as was needed to take from his body. "I was strong and a little blood didn't mean much to me if it would save the other fellow's life," he said.

Carrying On With the American Legion

A tourist park for Great Postholders is projected by the American Legion post of Troy, Minn. To give the town a thorough cleaning and brightening up for the summer, each member of the Legion post of Vilhild, Minn., donated a day's work.

A new definition of the well-known army phrase "S. O. L." has been evolved by the Douglas county Legionnaires of Omaha, Neb. It is "Slaying Outa Legion."

At Grant's Tomb in New York a tree has been transplanted from the dooryard of the General's old home in Missouri by the Legion and the American Forestry association.

Toast It—Delicious Raisin Bread

DO this some morning and surprise the family: Serve hot raisin toast at breakfast, made from full-fruited, luscious raisin bread. Let your husband try it with his coffee. Hear what he says. Your grocer or bake shop can supply the proper bread. No need to bake at home. Made with big, plump, tender, seeded Sun-Maid Raisins, and if you get the right kind there's a generous supply of these delicious fruit-meats in it. Insist on this full-fruited bread and you'll have luscious toast. Rich in emerging nutriment and iron—great food for business men. Make most attractive bread pudding with left-over slices. There's real economy in bread like this. Try tomorrow morning. A real surprise. Telephone your dealer to send a loaf today.

SAW OPPORTUNITY TO SAVE VAST RICHES OF OLD SPAIN

De Wittington, the brilliant young Chinese physician, and at a dinner party in New York. "Some men see $100,000 that we Chinese see a very cunning and very innocent people. They think we all really resemble the Peking merchant of the story. According to this story—and it is a gem—a Peking merchant took a rather notorious foreigner to board with him at a rate of $20 a week. Six months passed, and the rather notorious foreigner had not yet let his host see the color of his money. "So, at the end of the six months, the Peking merchant thought the matter over very thoughtfully and refused the foreigner's board from $20 to $10. He explained that thus, if the foreigner never paid him, he would not see so much money. A Dove of a Girl. "Has your typewriter a billing attachment?" "No, but she has a cooing attachment." Every one should have something to do, something to live, something to hope for. "His Scattered Acquaintance. "What were you doing after the accident?" He—"Scraping up an acquaintance."—Exchange.

You will find in Postum a delightful and satisfying mealtime beverage, with no element which can harm nerves and digestion—or cause wakeful nights and dull days.

Your grocer has Postum in two forms: Instant Postum (in tin) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in package of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for fully 10 minutes.

Made by Postum Cereal Co., Inc., Battle Creek, Mich.