

Grand SATURDAY

Big Special Attraction
A Sydney A. Franklin Production

'UNSEEN FORCES'

No one can fail to see this picture without being left out of hundreds of conversations, as it is one of those dramas that are discussed by patrons after they leave the theatre. "Unseen Forces" comes glowing from the fiery furnace of inspiration and tempered with great originality. It is so fragile so exquisite, so beautifully and poetically fragrant that it is like a breath of spring.

Majestic MONDAY

At the Sign of the Jack O' Lantern'

Featuring Betty Ross Clark and Earl Schenk. A rattling good mystery story in which ghosts take an active part - see it.

GRAND WEDNESDAY

CHARLES RAY in one of the best of his many plays.

"NINETEEN AND PHYLLIS"

Be sure and see this wonderful play

Patton Personals

Send Us Every Item of News You Know and Help Sell This Department. Every Article Helps

Mrs. Wilfred Fisher, of Patton, called at the home of her parents at Hastings, Pa., and Mrs. Charles Hertz, this week.
Miss Julia Soback, who has been residing for a year at the McGee Heights, is spending her vacation at the home of her parents of this place.
Miss Lillian McNulty of Johnstown is visiting friends and relatives here. Miss Frances Ivory was a recent visitor in Patton.
Mrs. Cecelia Gettings of Altoona visited in Patton last week.
Mrs. Joseph Taylor of Boreopolis visited in Patton last week.
Miss Anna Marie Cressman of Hastings was a recent visitor at the Johnson home.
Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bowers and children attended the wedding of Mr. Bowers' sister, Miss Lillian Bowers of Carlisle, at Otto's Restaurant of Hastings Wednesday at St. Benedict's Church at Carlisle.
Mr. and Mrs. Steve Cooper and Paul and Charles Cooper attended the Fourth of July at St. Augustine last Wednesday.
Miss Anna Baker of Cressman spent several days recently among Patton friends and relatives.
Miss Anna Baker, Mrs. John Patton and Miss Cecily Boulden are visiting at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Walker.

Miss Anna Ott attended the St. Augustine Jubilee.
Miss May Williams, one of the featured librarians at the Baptist Sunday school, who recently returned from an operation, has again been compelled to go to the hospital as her condition appeared to grow worse.
The members of the Ridley Park Baptist Church gave Mrs. Wayland Zwyer an agreeable surprise a short time ago by way of a Stork Party, so that the new daughter was supplied with rich and beautiful things at her arrival in this world. Just a short time before this, the church also honored Mrs. Zwyer's salary by three hundred dollars, in fine addition, and showed the high esteem in which he is held.
Mrs. W. H. Dawson, of Cressman was a caller in town on Wednesday.
Mr. H. Hoff, formerly of this place, who has been with relatives in Johnstown for the past several weeks on some errand in W. H. and Clair Kelly of this place, and on Wednesday of next week will sell his household goods at Public Sale.
Mrs. Hoff will have a square dance in St. Augustine Hall Saturday evening.

"No, officer, that paper was made in America. It is Eaton's Highland Linen. I never travel without it."

EATON'S HIGHLAND LINEN

has the style of the finest importations—always smart, always correct, but never extreme. For desk or traveling bag there is nothing so satisfactory and so reasonable in price. Let us show you the latest styles and shades.

TOZER JEWELRY CO., Patton, Pa.

Among the Carrolltown persons at the dance here last Saturday night were "Pete" Waskland, Fred Sloan "Mike" Eick, "Doc" Chester, Valentine Rider and Donald Eckenrode. Miss Yvonne Yerger left Saturday for State College where she will enroll in the teachers' training department.

Miss Dora Bloomberg of Johnstown spent the week-end with Mrs. Thomas Morgan of Beech avenue.
Miss Margaret McCormick has returned from a visit with her sister Miss Genevieve, in Altoona.
Miss Ruth Nelson, who has been in Indiana, taking up the teacher's training course, spent the Fourth of July at the home of her parents of this place.

LOST—Last Sunday evening between the Railroad Station and Springmaster's hill, a gold watch and chain. The finder will please return the same to Mr. Paul Biller's residence.

Miss Lillian Jones is spending a two weeks' vacation with her brother in Rochester, N. Y.
Mrs. William Lynch and children have returned to their home in Altoona, Pa., after a vacation spent with Mrs. Lynch's mother, Mrs. Mary Noonan.

Mr. Robert Sincos of this place is visiting his wife at Altoona, who has had an operation performed on her eyes.
Mr. and Mrs. Max Gill and children attended the St. Augustine Jubilee.
Mrs. James Monteith is a patient at the Spangler hospital. She is suffering from rheumatism.

Guests this week at the home of Rev. Graham and Mrs. W. A. Graham at the M. E. parsonage are Rev. and Mrs. A. R. Turner and daughter, Miss Barbara of Hastings, Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Wanta and son Adrian and Miss Virginia Cooper of Newhope, Mrs. Lillian Deise of Woolrich, and Mr. Graham's niece, Miss Dorothy Graham, of Jersey Shore.

Mrs. Hortense Woodland and Miss Clara Glasser of Carrolltown were Patton visitors Friday.
Elijah Gregory and son William of Kerr avenue are visiting relatives and friends in Glen Richey and Curwensville, Pa.

Mrs. Walter Lyberger of Vinandale is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rowland of Kerr avenue.
Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Haber and children of this place attended the St. Augustine Jubilee.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Henman of Altoona spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. John Kephart of Magee avenue.
Lewis Shankwiler of Johnstown spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. Anna Shankwiler of Lang avenue this week.

There will be a gathering of the Northern Cambria P. O. S. of A. in Patton, July 17. All patriots are invited. There will be refreshment stands, big parade, and the Sheepskin's Johnstown Band will furnish the music.

Miss Anna Ott attended the St. Augustine Jubilee.
Miss May Williams, one of the featured librarians at the Baptist Sunday school, who recently returned from an operation, has again been compelled to go to the hospital as her condition appeared to grow worse.

The members of the Ridley Park Baptist Church gave Mrs. Wayland Zwyer an agreeable surprise a short time ago by way of a Stork Party, so that the new daughter was supplied with rich and beautiful things at her arrival in this world. Just a short time before this, the church also honored Mrs. Zwyer's salary by three hundred dollars, in fine addition, and showed the high esteem in which he is held.

Mrs. W. H. Dawson, of Cressman was a caller in town on Wednesday.
Mr. H. Hoff, formerly of this place, who has been with relatives in Johnstown for the past several weeks on some errand in W. H. and Clair Kelly of this place, and on Wednesday of next week will sell his household goods at Public Sale.

Mrs. Hoff will have a square dance in St. Augustine Hall Saturday evening.

CHARTER NO. 8218

Report of condition of the Grange National Bank at Patton, Pa., in the State of Pennsylvania, at the close of business on June 30th, 1922.

Table with financial data for Grange National Bank, including assets like loans and discounts, and liabilities like deposits and capital stock.

ACCEPTS A GOOD POSITION

Miss Mary Zwyer has accepted a position as teacher in the schools of Patton, Pa. She expects to start some new work, and to open a Kindergarten, after which Miss Zwyer will have the opportunity of having charge of this work which she will do in the meantime, she will teach in the first grade. Miss Zwyer was graduated from the California, Pa. Normal School last year, with an elementary good diploma.

THE STORK

Last Saturday Mrs. Zwyer and family received a telegram from the Rev. Wayland Zwyer that his wife had presented him on Saturday afternoon with a new young daughter, perfect in every respect. The birth took place in the splendid Cruiser Hospital in Altoona, Pa., and both mother and daughter are getting along splendidly.

History of Freedom of Speech

The topic of this speech is really modern, and is clearly as a defensible proposition only with Milton's Areopagitica, to be followed by the widely divergent opinions of Jeremy Taylor and Joseph (David), and by Locke's classical treatise on Toleration (1689), which almost the last word on the matter so far as religious differences are concerned.—James H. Thompson in Altoona.

Cynical Thought

There is a prevalent conception in the very consciousness of a noble deed.

Such Unpleasant Lying

In these days there is more prevarication, or flattery, or inter-pretation, or whatever you care to call it, because we are come to feel that we can stand the truth and still be truthful. There is a lot of lying that is increasing today.

Advertisement for 'Do You Know About Our Prices?' with a list of items and prices.

CHARTER NO. 8218

Report of condition of the Grange National Bank at Patton, Pa., in the State of Pennsylvania, at the close of business on June 30th, 1922.

Table with financial data for Grange National Bank, including assets like loans and discounts, and liabilities like deposits and capital stock.

ACCEPTS A GOOD POSITION

Miss Mary Zwyer has accepted a position as teacher in the schools of Patton, Pa. She expects to start some new work, and to open a Kindergarten, after which Miss Zwyer will have the opportunity of having charge of this work which she will do in the meantime, she will teach in the first grade. Miss Zwyer was graduated from the California, Pa. Normal School last year, with an elementary good diploma.

THE STORK

Last Saturday Mrs. Zwyer and family received a telegram from the Rev. Wayland Zwyer that his wife had presented him on Saturday afternoon with a new young daughter, perfect in every respect. The birth took place in the splendid Cruiser Hospital in Altoona, Pa., and both mother and daughter are getting along splendidly.

History of Freedom of Speech

The topic of this speech is really modern, and is clearly as a defensible proposition only with Milton's Areopagitica, to be followed by the widely divergent opinions of Jeremy Taylor and Joseph (David), and by Locke's classical treatise on Toleration (1689), which almost the last word on the matter so far as religious differences are concerned.—James H. Thompson in Altoona.

Cynical Thought

There is a prevalent conception in the very consciousness of a noble deed.

Such Unpleasant Lying

In these days there is more prevarication, or flattery, or inter-pretation, or whatever you care to call it, because we are come to feel that we can stand the truth and still be truthful. There is a lot of lying that is increasing today.

Advertisement for 'Do You Know About Our Prices?' with a list of items and prices.

Large advertisement for W. L. Thompson, 'ALWAYS RELIABLE' featuring 'ALL SUITS REDUCED TO $25.00' and '20% off ON ALL STRAW HATS'. Includes a list of items and prices.

Advertisement for Seiberling Cords and Patton Tire Service Shop, featuring 'For Your Ford' and 'You can't give it, or yourself a finer money-saving present than a set of SEIBERLING CORDS at $12.50 each'.