Something to Think About
By F. A. WALKER

YOUR TOMORROW

AS YOU go about your duties today, acquiring a larger knowledge of your obligations to others and a better understanding of your work, you are paving your way to a better tomorrow.

If you are careful, conscientious, even-tempered and loyal today, determined to make every stroke tell, you will not be lacking in these excellent qualities tomorrow.

By holding steadily to such a course, there will come to you gradually a new-born strength which will ease your burdens and inspire a new confidence in your ability.

Power is not given to ordinary mortals to go at one stride to the top. The summit of hope can be reached only by repeated steps, sometimes hard and painful, calling for patience and an extraordinary control of the heart, the hand and the tongue.

If you succeed in mastering yourself today, it is likely that tomorrow will be less perilous in its demands upon you, and yield a little in its inclination to get you in trouble.

Upon the other hand, if you are indifferent, careless and indisposed to make the best of opportunities today, tomorrow will hold these shortcomings against you, and begin at the breakfast table to make you unhappy.

It will follow you as you go to work, snapping at your heels like a surly dog. And when you consider your task you will feel the sweep of contrary cross-currents and incongruous squalls, ready at the first drop of an ugly word to make you thoroughly miserable.

It is too late now for regrets. You have lost a day and are slipping down hill, while the "still small voice" is calling to your ears to be steady, dutiful and thoughtful of your future.

Thousands of light-headed, variable young men and women have misused their goal through their unconcern of tomorrow.

Instead of looking forward, sharp-ening their wits, keeping their vision unclouded, and giving each hour its best that is in them, they play fast and loose with today, and thenceforward misstep with the progressive and fatal

Though they rail against the Fates which they feel will bring them the frown of tomorrow, they shall help their faith and courage, forget their prayers and slip hopelessly down and down to the yawning abyss of despair too weak to rise or turn their face toward the still smiling companions of Hope.

No More Free Seed.
WASHINGTON—Free distribution of Government seed was killed by action of the Senate Friday. A point of order was made by Senator Lodge, Republican leader, against an amendment to the Agricultural Appropriation bill which would have allotted $500,000 for seed distribution. The point was upheld by a ruling of Vice President Chandler in the chair.

English as it's Sometimes Writ.
The "Infantry Journal" has taken the following extracts from letters to the "Veteran's Bureau":
"I am a widow and four children."
"Previous to his departure we were married to a Justice of the Peace."
"He was indicted into the air, fair."
"I have a four-months old baby and he is my only support."
"I was discharged for a soldier who I was sent home on."
"I did not know my husband had a middle name and if he did, I don't think it was none."
"Your relationship to him?" Answer: "Just a mere aunt and a few cousins."
"You ask for someone's number. I have four boys and two girls."
"Please return my marriage certificate, baby hasn't eaten in three days."
"Both sides of my parents are old and poor."
"I am writing to ask you why I have not received my shipment. His money was kept from him for the shipment, which I never received."
"I have already written to Mr. Headquarters and received no reply and if I don't get one I am going to write to Uncle Sam himself."
"I can't receive no pay since my husband went away from nowhere."
"We have your letter. I am his grandmother. He was born and brought up according to your instructions."
"You have changed my little boy to a girl. Will it make any difference?"
"Please let me know if John has put in an application for a wife and child."
"You have taken away my man to fight and he was the best I ever had. Now you will have to keep me or who in the Hell will if you don't?"
"Please send me a wife's form."

Adoption of Link Child is Granted.
The Court has granted the petition of George A. Hunt and Mae Hunt, both of Allegheny Township, for the adoption of Evelyn Grace Link, aged one month, daughter of Bertha S. Link of Johnstown. The infant's mother has given her consent to the adoption. By the decree of the Court the child shall assume the name of Evelyn Grace Hunt, having all the rights of a child or heir of the petitioner.

By a decree of the Court handed down, Stephen Leo Alphonse Minard, jr. of Johnstown, has been granted permission to have his name changed to Stephen Leo Plank.

Subsequent to divorce returnable the first Monday of March, have been awarded by the court in the following cases:

Freda Augustus Cox, of Brownsville, Berthel of Clarence E. Eberhart, singing school and barbershop quartet.

John Hager, Esquire, of Johnstown vs. Florence Lucille Eberhart, Esquire, Esquire, Esquire, on the grounds of desertion.
Gladys Margaret Hager, of Johnstown vs. John Hager, the plaintiff, singing school and barbershop quartet.

Nant-y-Glo Body Elects Officers.
NANT-Y-GLO. At a meeting of the local Business Men's Association held last week the old officers were re-elected for the ensuing year. They are: President, D. A. Flanagan; Vice President, William J. Sybert and Lawrence Lathrop; Secretary, C. H. Johnson; Treasurer, Dr. A. B. McAnulty; President Flanagan gave a short address.

Hold Monthly Session.
The regular monthly meeting of the Farm Ladies' Society of Eastlaw township was held at the home of Mrs. William Gundelberger, at Eastlaw, last Thursday afternoon. A very interesting program was rendered. Mrs. Fannie Shiner gave an interesting talk on "The History of the Farm Ladies' Society." Mrs. Shaw gave a talk on the "History of the Farm Ladies' Society." The Eastlaw High School Quartette entertained with vocal and instrumental selections, and there was a song by Mrs. Franklin Miller.

A family luncheon was served the business being Mrs. Merle Gaston, Mrs. Claude Gundelberger and Mrs. William Gundelberger. About 50 members were in attendance.

The next meeting will be held February 8 at the home of Mrs. Levey Statman.

To Assist in Marking Graves.
INDIANAPOLIS—Eleven thousand copies of the American Legion will cooperate with officers of the Quartermaster Corps of the United States Army in placing headstones at the graves of all veterans of the World War and previous American wars. Lemuel Bolles, Legion national adjutant, has announced.

The Quartermaster Corps has asked the Legion to make arrangements for receiving the headstones at the graves of the war heroes and to insure that the stone is placed in the cemetery in which war heroes are buried.

Appropriate ceremonies will be had by many posts when the headstones arrive. An effort will be made by the Legionaires to discover the graves of veterans of other wars which have previously been unmarked, according to Mr. Bolles.

Headstones are provided by the Quartermaster Corps for all graves of war veterans upon application.

Marriage Licenses.
EBENSBURG—Register Charles A. MacIntyre has issued the following marriage licenses:

John T. Williams and Mrs. Agnes Kefer, both of Spangler; Elmer George Karnach and Mrs. Katherine, both of Vintonville.
Thomas Vargo and Mrs. Lank, both of Johnstown.
Oliver Hefner, of Elton, and Verma R. Gillen, of Jackson township.
Donald McKillop, of Marsteller, and Mrs. Malloy, of Ebensburg.
Andrew C. Hagan, of South Bethlehem, Pa., and Mrs. H. Andrews, of Lilly.
Julius Lewis and Mager Ford, both of Johnstown.
Harry E. Roche and Helene D. Seery, both of Johnstown.

In My Haven.
"The latest song hit" remarks the Frankston Legions, "By the Sultan of Turkey, 'If I had a Thousand Wives to Give, I'd Give them all to You.'"

All that we can add is a paraphrase of Nathan Hale's vocabulary: "My only regret is that I have not one wife to give to my country."
—Tobias American Legion Council.

Indict Kephart on Five Counts.
HARRISBURG—Former State Treasurer Harmon M. Kephart was Saturday indicted on five new counts for mismanagement in office by a grand jury returned April 17.

The five indictments returned Saturday alleged failure properly to report to the Auditor General the true condition of the State's finances from January to May, 1922. These charges are similar to indictments returned last summer except that they cover later periods of Kephart's term.

The original indictments are now held up awaiting the result of an appeal taken to the Supreme Court by Kephart's attorneys.

Mickey Craig Shades O'Hara.
Mickey Craig, the "Spangler Bear," shaded Jimmy O'Hara of Windler at Sunset Park Tuesday night. The battle was the main bout of an all-star show and went eight rounds.

Kid Wagner, Irwin, and Jimmie Adams, Prospect, fought four fast rounds to a draw.

Bobby Richardson, Portage, shaded Steve Patten, Windler, in another good six round bout.

Miss Grace Carnahan, aged about 18 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Carnahan, of Nant-y-Glo, is in a serious condition at the Memorial Hospital, Johnstown, as the result of hemorrhages of the nose. Blood transfusion was necessary, and her cousin Harry Smith, of Nant-y-Glo gave up his considerable amount of blood to help save Miss Carnahan's life. Miss Carnahan is a student at the Memorial Hospital Nurses' Training School.
