PATTON YOUTH IN THE TOILS

Louis Gelomin Charged With Series of Larcenies; In Blair County Jail

Wednesday - Altoona Tribune. Louis Gelomin, 16-year-old boy whose home is at Patton, Cambria County, has developed unusual criminal tendencies...

Information was made against him before Justice of the Peace Isaac M. Lewin of Hollidaysburg. He was accordingly arrested by members of the State Police and taken before Justice Lewin on Monday evening for arraignment. He admitted taking money from the safe but declares he got $115 instead of $174, as alleged.

Money stolen from the stolen money was recovered from the boy and the rest from Clothier Thomas H. Suckling. The young thief had gone to Suckling's store in Hollidaysburg on Monday afternoon to steal the money and purchased a traveling bag and other articles.

W. A. Graham, Pastor. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Come out and watch the school grow under the leadership of the new officers.

Why was the Psalmist glad when they said unto him: 'Come, let us go into the house of the Lord?' It was because there, his soul met with God and was cheered and strengthened.

Calvary Chapel. The desire to worship is as much an appetite of the soul as hunger is of the body, and as the hungry body enjoys a feast, so the hungry soul enjoys worship.

Local at Patton Favors Convention. According to John Green, secretary of Local No. 842, United Mine Workers of America, this place, which passed a resolution some time ago censuring members of the National and District Boards and organizers for the alleged action in voting themselves back pay for the period of the coal strike, that body has gone on record in favor of calling of a special convention to protest against the action of the officials.

Fannies Will Appear Later. Owing to the slowness of delivery, the funny section advertised to appear in the Patton Courier will not appear until next week or the week after.
