Unique Diet Suggestions

One of our best health aids is an interesting feature of the "Coulter Readers." Gentlemen: Allow me to suggest an ideal diet for the winter season, which from experience I can say will not only prove nutritious and delicious in taste, but also strengthen and invigorate as well. In fact a person can live on it exclusively and never tire of it, and the cost will not exceed thirty cents a day for two people. I eat Whole Grain Wheat, one third of a tin with whole milk for breakfast, and that will satisfy most anyone's appetite. For lunch I have another third of a tin with apples, saucers or prunes, and for dinner a like amount of whole grain wheat with melted butter or whole milk or cream and a little brown sugar. I venture the prophecy that anyone who will live on the above diet would not go back to the old dishes for love of money. They will never feel the hunger's pang, and will be as normal and frisky as a young goat. Sincerely yours, Waukegan, Ill.

Buy one dozen tins (a three weeks supply) of Whole Grain Wheat, the new natural food discovery, and follow this suggestion. Regardless of the winter season you ought to make Whole Grain Wheat a part of your daily diet anyway, because it is of all the substances which mankind uses is the only substance used as a food that contains all the sixteen mineral elements of which your body is composed in balanced combination. Eat more Whole Grain Wheat and see what a wonderful change takes place. Science has discovered that practically all chronic diseases are due to wrong foods, or food which lack the mineral elements, and diseases heretofore incurable thru all the ages are now corrected under the use of proper foods. Acid stomach, nervousness, neuritis, high blood pressure, and many other ailments are among the "deficiency" diseases due to improper food.

WHOLE GRAIN WHEAT is not flour, nor a breakfast food, nor like any other food in the world. It is the natural wheat berry in its original form as it grew in the harvest field. It is cooked ready to eat, and is the only cooked food that is identical in its constituent elements with the natural raw food. The process of cooking is protected by the United States and Canadian governments. No element is lost. No element but water is added for cooking purposes. It is not a mush, but must be chewed. The almost miraculous effects are due to the new method of cooking so as to retain all the elements without disturbing their balance as in ordinary old way and the different ways of cooking it.

WHOLE GRAIN WHEAT should be on every table at every meal in preference to any other kind of food if you expect to be a very nourished being. We recommend it highly for children, being it the only and most necessary grain for their proper development.

Cambria County May Get Asylum

Recommendation was made by President Judge John E. Evans, at a meeting of the Cambria County Prison Board last Wednesday at Ebensburg, that the County Commissioners inquire into the number of insane persons whom the county must keep; also how many of the afflicted persons are men, women and children; how badly they are afflicted and what medical treatment they should receive. The Commissioners also were asked to ascertain the approximate cost of the care of such persons if they were kept within the county in a place specially provided for that purpose and what it would cost to secure such a place.

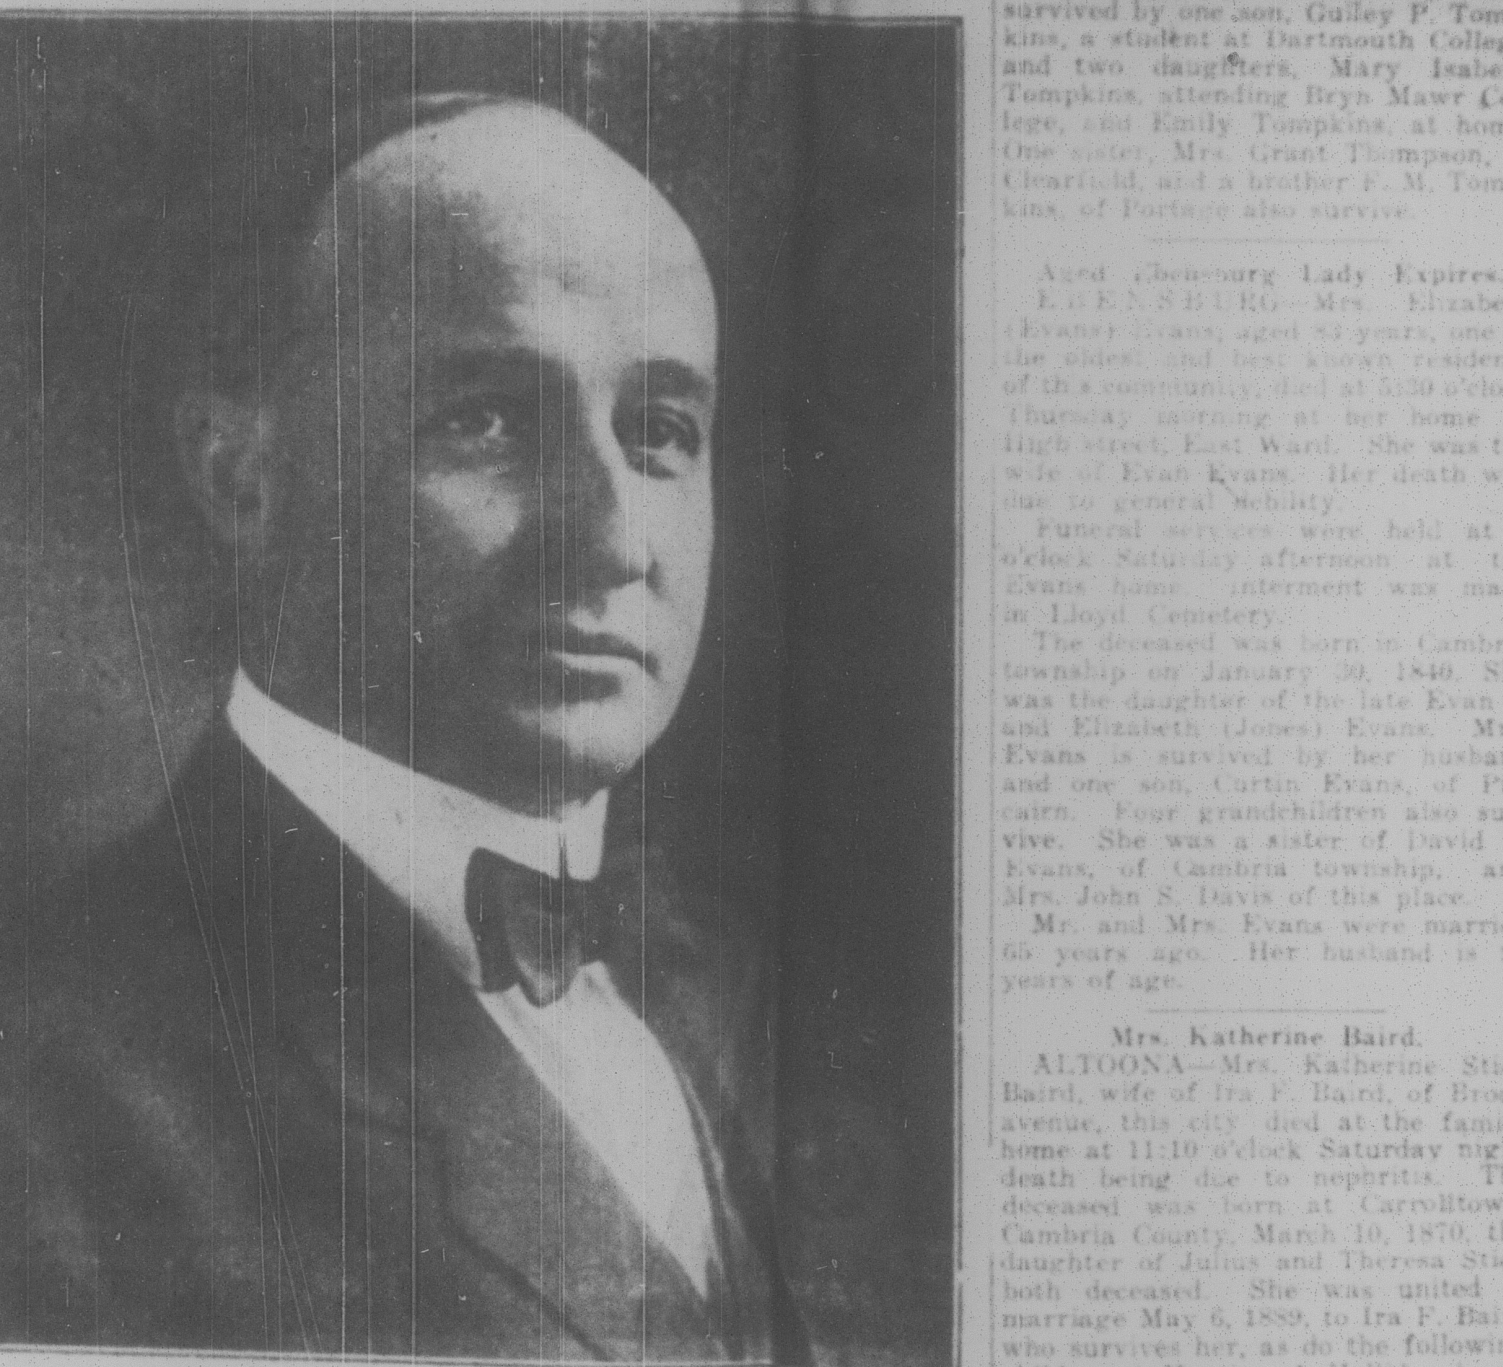

Ex-Senator Horace A. Tompkins Passes Away

EBENSBURG—Former State Senator Horace Abram Tompkins, aged 49 years, of Harris street, East Ward in this place, died at 4 o'clock Saturday morning. His death was due to a complication of diseases.

It was from this time that Mr. Tompkins health failed. He was then moved to Ebensburg, county and later to Florida. At the age of 19 years he left college to become manager of the estate of his grandfather, Horace Patchin, of Burnside, Clearfield county, one of the pioneer lumber and coal interests in the county.

On August 29, 1900, Mr. Tompkins was married to Miss Estelle Galt, of Allentown, Pa., the ceremony being performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Mosser in Westover, Clearfield county. Mr. Tompkins then established a home and office at Burnside, where he was engaged in the lumber business for a period of four years, and where he was made with the last timber to go down the Susquehanna River in the palmy days of that business. Wedding is Quiet Event

A very quiet wedding took place here at the Methodist parsonage last Friday when Adriaens Harmon, of Fifth avenue, became the bride of Pierce F. Henry, of McConnellsburg, Pa. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. Graham and witnessed by Mrs. Graham.

The bride was attended in a dark blue silk gown. Mr. and Mrs. Henry left for McConnellsburg, where they intend to take up housekeeping. Their departure will be greatly regretted as Mrs. Henry was very popular with the young folks of the town.

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Henry entertained a number of young folks at a silver shower in honor of their niece, Mrs. Pierce F. Henry. Mrs. Henry was the recipient of a beautiful set of silverware and many other beautiful gifts. The evening was spent in playing cards and games, after which the hostess served a delicious lunch.

Alport Shooting Affray

During a gun battle staged Tuesday night in a small grocery store at Alport, conducted by Joseph Kneelely, three men were shot and severely wounded, one of whom may die. They were in the store at the time of the shooting, where they were removed immediately after the shooting. VITO REBECCO, aged about 40 years, of Patton, shot the first man. He is in a serious condition.

JOSEPH DESANTES, aged about 35 years, of Alport, shot in the left breast, the bullet penetrating near his heart and coming out through the back. His condition is critical.

JOSEPH KNEELELY, aged about 38 years, proprietor of the store where the shooting occurred, was shot through the left leg by a stray bullet. He is resting fairly well at the hospital.

It is said that Desantes who moved from Somerset to Alport about four months ago, started a quarrel with Rebecco and a shooting affray followed. There were about seven other men in the store when the gun battle started about 8:45 o'clock and after several shots were fired they made a hurried exit. Eleven shots were fired during the fracas, one of the stray bullets striking Kneelely, proprietor of the store, in the left leg. Rebecco had a .38 caliber revolver, while Desantes carried a .32 caliber.

Shortly after the gun battle took place County Detective G. E. Whitford of Burnside, was notified and arrived on the scene about 10 minutes later, but made no arrests. After receiving medical attention the three wounded men were rushed to the Spangler hospital, where they are being closely guarded.

TIMES ARE NOT SO BAD HERE

Miners Had Better Pay than Usual Yesterday, Next One Better Yet

There are not so bad in this section as many folks have you think. It is a fact that cannot be denied that Patton Miners are working better than most miners in the north of the County and that money generally is more in circulation.

Yet in some of the other towns in the north of the county, the merchants continue to advertise in their home community newspapers to an extent that keeps them above water. Why shouldn't Patton merchants follow the same example.

An ad now and then does not have the effect of a consistent advertising does. It is the merchant who keeps right after things work after week that comes out in the long run.

Patton merchants, that is a great many of them, never advertise at all, some of them spasmodically, and others regularly. The last, however, are such in the minority.

In fact the advertising in the Patton Courier has reached such a low ebb, that the continuance of this newspaper under such conditions cannot continue, unless our home town takes more of an interest in the newspaper. The Patton Courier is a home institution, it promotes everything that is of a community benefit—buying of home merchants included—and yet many of these same merchants seem to follow a policy of a suspension of publication would be made.

The passing of the Patton Courier would be a blow to Patton. Perhaps the local merchants and the inhabitants of the town in general would only realize it after a suspension of publication would be made.

We are not seriously contemplating suspension of the Courier, but if the advertising patronage does not increase in the near future, such a step will be the only course we have to follow.

However, we believe that Patton merchants and Patton people want a home newspaper. We believe that we will be supported and if any of you, as readers, believe in home newspapers, who subscribe in the Courier, they are far more deserving of it than those who don't.

We will try our best to produce a Courier that will be worthy of the best efforts. You can help us by sending in every little bit of news you know. We know the four page comic supplement this week and in the week to follow will attract the children, and the children will see that the paper reaches the home.

Calvary Chapel

The great United Livingstone's favorite Psalm was Psalm 121, "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, who made heaven and earth." It is this same spirit of support that makes the Calvary Baptist Chapel so interesting and helpful, and which keeps the interest ever growing. You can hear it in the singing; you feel it as the pastor speaks and as the pastor and congregation pray. Everyone is cordially invited to share in the services at Sunday School 10:30 A. M., evening worship 7:45 P. M., prayer meeting and Bible study Tuesday 7:00 P. M.

Baptist Church

It was the great Irish poet who wrote the beautiful hymn "Come ye disconsolate." "Come ye disconsolate Where'er ye wander, Come to the Mercy-seat, Perseverently stand, Here bring your wounded heart, Here tell your anguish.

Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. We come to church to meet God, to sing his praises, to hear His word, to worship Him, and in this spirit we get strength and blessing. Everything done in the services at the Baptist church has this great end in view, and this is why all who come feel that they have been, in the words of the same great poet.

"Ye the feast prepared" and have partaken of "The waters flowing forth from the throne of God." You are cordially invited to morning worship 10:30, Sunday School 2:30, P. M., evening worship 7:45, prayer meeting and Bible study Wednesday 7:45 P. M.
