

IRREGULAR CHIEFS CAPTURED IN RAIDS

Sean Fitzpatrick and Four of His Officers Arrested.

DE VALERA NOT TAKEN

A Large Number of Mines, Bombs and Arms Seized by Free State Troops in Dublin.

More than twenty irregulars were captured in raids in Dublin. Additional raids are in progress.

The irregulars were taken in a raid at Drumcondra. The most important of these prisoners is Sean Fitzpatrick. He is said to be commander of the Dublin brigade of irregulars.

The arrests were made by criminal investigating department officers of the Free State government. It is understood a meeting of the first Dublin brigade of irregulars was proceeding at the time.

A woman was in circulation Eamon de Valera had been arrested, but there was no confirmation.

An explosives factory was seized in a woman's home in a well-to-do residential quarter.

A large number of mines, bombs and arms were found.

A house in the house was arrested.

A large band of men armed with rifles, raided the postoffice at Black Rock, a seaside resort near Dundalk.

South Village was similarly visited.

The residence of Michael Doyle, member of the Irish Executive for Westford, was burned to the ground at Tagort.

Nicholas Williams, a member of the Dublin defense force, was shot dead at Drumcondra. It is believed the shooting was accidental.

De Valera Not Captured.

London.—A despatch from Dublin said the secretary of William Cosgrave, head of the Free State government, denied De Valera had been captured.

Irregulars Were Surprised.

Belfast.—A Dublin despatch describing the capture of Sean Fitzpatrick, says the men taken with him were his adjutant and three officers.

The criminal investigation department men, the account says, suddenly appeared at the door of the room in a house on Horse road, where the five men were seated at a table which was strewn with pistols.

The officials raised their revolvers and shouted: "Hands up!"

The five men immediately surrendered.

The Free State authorities, adds the message, deny reports De Valera was captured.

General O'Daly, commanding the Free State forces in County Kerry, reports the surrender of the irregular leader, Pierce, and his column of seventy men.

To facilitate this the amnesty in Northern Kerry was extended forty-eight hours.

After signing an undertaking providing for their good behavior, the irregulars were allowed to go.

25 Cents Short, Kills Himself.

Chicago.—A shortage of twenty-five cents so worried John Fairbanks, postmaster of West Chicago, he took his life. It is believed his body was found with a bullet wound in his head.

Two weeks ago Fairbanks telegraphed Inspector Gorman he was working overtime to make his books balance. An auditor discovered a difference of twenty-five cents.

Woman, 82, Burns to Death.

Johnstown, Pa.—Mrs. Elizabeth Snyder, 82 years old, was fatally burned when her clothing ignited while attending to the fire in the heating stove of her room. She was rushed to the Memorial Hospital, where she died a few hours after being admitted.

Junior Police For Johnstown.

Johnstown, Pa.—A "Junior police force" drawn from the older school boys, to police the city playgrounds, is being considered by Johnstown officials. It is believed many accidents commonly occurring on the recreation grounds can be averted by this method.

Crochet Needle Wound Costs Her Arm.

Bridgeton, N. J.—When her hand became infected from a crochet needle wound, Mrs. W. H. Willis suffered amputation of an arm at the elbow. The operation was performed at the Bridgeton Hospital.

Has First Case of Smallpox.

Grove City, Pa.—The first case of smallpox in the history of Grove City was reported to the health department. It is the only case. Health authorities said there was no danger of the disease spreading.

To Save War Insurance.

Washington.—The Sweet bill, which would permit the reinstatement of lapsed war risk insurance of many disabled world war veterans, was reported by the house commerce committee.

GERTRUDE ATHERTON

Recent studio portrait of Gertrude Atherton, the famous novelist.

Made Deadly Trade.

Charlottesville, Va.—An indictment charging a man with the death of another who was killed and killed by a horse was returned by the Giles county grand jury, sitting in Gilesville.

The indictment is for manslaughter and is against Marquis James, a former county farmer. It is the death of Wm. Marks, another farmer, who was almost instantly killed when he was killed by a horse which he acquired in a trade with James.

It is the contention of the state that James failed to warn Marks that the animal was dangerous.

No One to Bury Dead.

Richmond, Ind.—With all the members of the Fulton County Medical Society refusing the position of county health officer, Fulton county faced the problem of burying the dead with no one in authority to sign burial permits.

The county commissioners met in special session to consider the emergency. It was said only one physician in the county is not a member of the medical society, and he may be appointed health officer. The office here pays $250 a year.

Snakes Dancing Girls' Pets.

London.—Bull constrictors caught on the shores of the Azkoon, are the latest fashionable pet for Londoners. A London newspaper, selling these pets to professional dancing girls in England and on the continent.

The snakes, kept in perforated zinc boxes fitted with tanks, include every variety of Brazilian box constrictor. American bull snakes are also popular.

Against White House No. 2.

Washington.—The senate public buildings and grounds committee reported adversely on the proposed acceptance of Mrs. John B. Houlder, son of a residence in a fashionable section of Washington to be used as a home for the vice president.

The committee was divided. It was said, as to the possibility of obtaining funds for maintenance.

Finds "Husband" a Woman.

Trenton, N. J.—The "husband" to whom she was married nearly three years ago was a woman, Miss Blanche M. Hughes, East Orange, has appeared to the court of chancery for annulment of the wedding ceremony on the grounds set forth.

The person she thought was a man used the name of "William J. Houston."

Pointdexter Ambassador to Peru.

Washington.—The nomination of Senator Miles Pointdexter, of Washington, to be ambassador to Peru, which was sent to the senate by President Harding, was promptly confirmed.

Measles Shuts Lancaster School.

Lancaster, Pa.—Fifty-eight rooms in the Lancaster schools are now closed because of measles which has been increasing for the past ten days.

GENERAL MARKETS

PHILADELPHIA—FLOUR—Quiet. Winter wheat, $5.00-5.40. Spring wheat, $7.75-8.00.

WHEAT—Steady; No. 2 red, $1.33-1.37.

CORN—Steady; No. 2 yellow, 85-90.

GATS—Quiet; No. 2 white, 54-56.

POULTRY—Live, firm; hens, 29-30; old roosters, 17-18; dressed, firm; choice fowls, 32-34; old roosters, 21-22.

BUTTER—Quiet; fancy creamery, 52-54.

Eggs—Steady; selected, 43-44; nearby, 39-40; western, 38-39.

Live Stock Quotations.

CHICAGO—HOGS—10 to 25c lower; bulk 160 to 180 pound averages, $8.00-8.15; top, $8.15; bulk, 200 to 225-pound butchers, $7.90-8.05; bulk, 240 to 260-pound butchers, $7.70-7.85; packing sows, mostly $6.75-7.15; heavy weight hogs, $7.65-8.15; medium, $7.75-8.15; light, $7.90-8.15.

CATTLE—Slow; uneven; top market steers, $10.25; best yearlings, $9.75; bulk beef steers, $7.75-9.25; bulk de sirable veal calves, $12-13.

SHEEP—Weak to 25c lower; top, $15; clipped lambs, generally $12.50-12.60.

PENNSYLVANIA NEWS IN BRIEF

Interesting Items From All Sections of State

Dr. Edward W. Harty, of Wilkes-Barre, was appointed county coronator for Luzerne.

Married less than a week, Mrs. Susan Smith, aged 22, of Lebanon, committed suicide.

Lancaster school authorities have closed thirty-seven school rooms owing to an epidemic of measles.

The smallest home which ever was in Pittsburg was turned out to the north by more than one hundred.

John J. Messer, of South Williamsport, because of the breakfast table and table before and could be summoned.

Another gas leak has been brought in by the Carbon National Gas and Oil Company, in their buildings at Lehigh.

Edward, 12-year-old son of John Albusinski, of Shamondan, was seriously injured when his sled ran into a automobile.

Paul Hinkley, of Hazlet, employed as workman, received serious injury after being crushed by a freight car when the car derailed.

Hagerstown, an Adams county town of 10,000 inhabitants, is to have a $10,000, community hall, through the gift of the members of commerce.

One hundred and sixty workers who were out of work at the D. O. Dery silk mill, at York, received an adjustment of the wage dispute having been reached.

The Markle Hardware company, award of the contract for the erection of a new city hotel at Hazleton, in excess of $70,000 to the W. W. company, of Philadelphia.

In a collision between a trolley car and milk truck near Warren, Garber Bowman, aged 10, of Warren, Markle, the truck driver, received a fracture of the skull.

Boosting two county candidates, on which were described such religious terms as "God, Rev. Miss Minnie Weaver, of York, caused the arrest of Manie Swisher, living heavily on a charge of criminal libel.

John Menick, 28 years old, of Shamondan, recently married, was probably fatally injured when he slipped and fell into a sewer line at the Thomas colliery. His right arm was bent from his body, his skull fractured and his body terribly lacerated.

A. S. Melchior, attention chief in charge of sanitation, enforcement and field in a health department, is in operation for acute appendicitis.

He went there several months ago from Toledo, where he was engaged in similar work. His home was in Chicago.

Mayor Hoagland, of Williamsport, authorized the establishment of a three-plate system for the police department. This arrangement will enable traffic forces to be on duty from 4 A. M. to 10 A. M., and also will provide protection for every hour of the day or night.

It was announced that former State Senator W. Clayton Hackett will present to the city of Easton about thirty acres of land as an addition to Hackett Park, making his total gift to the city for park purposes about eighty-eight acres. The city will provide a suitable entrance to the park at an approximate cost of $6000.

Three persons were injured in fires in Erie. Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall were badly burned when gas exploded in their home. A jet is believed to have gone out because of low pressure and the gas filled the house. They had just detected the fumes when the local occurred, badly wrecking the house.

Captain Adolph Gandolph, a fireman, was caught between ladders in a blaze at the Perry Iron works.

The following appointments have been announced by the state department of health for Joseph Scattergood, registrar for West Chester and Westtown, Thornby, West Goshen, East Goshen, Willistown, Birmingham, East Bradford and West Whiteland townships, Chester county. Miss Annie Mink, registrar for South Brownsville, Fayette county. Mrs. Leah S. Keene, health officer for Salem, Perry, Deer Creek and Sandy Creek townships, Mercer county.

Dates for the national guard camps next summer were fixed by Adjutant General Beary. The Mount Gretna camp will be held from July 7 to August 4, and the Tolyshanna camp for artillery, from July 28 to August 25.

In addition there will be encampments at Fort Monroe, Va., July 14 to 28, for the 21st artillery, and at Camp Meade, Md., from July 28 to August 11, for the twenty-eighth tank company. The Fort Monroe camp will be the first under full equipment for the men of the anti-aircraft regiment.

Governmental policies over a long period of years have encouraged agriculture and other industries, but have "starved" the railroads. George D. Ogden, traffic manager of the central region of the Pennsylvania railroad, told the convention of the Retail Lumber Dealers' Association of Pennsylvania in Pittsburgh. He declared that, in 104 investments in railroads represented 13 per cent of the total national wealth, but that the present figure was 6.6 per cent. He declared, he declared, that had made investment in railroad securities unattractive.

GRAND THEATRE

William "Stand-em-up" Hart Sets a New Cinema Record

in "Three Word Brand," a Paramount picture, his first picture showing different characters, a feat never before accomplished by a movie star.

"Three Word Brand" Is Here Tonight

Saturday Night

Frank Brownlee and Madge Bellamy "Love Never Dies"

Love Never Dies

Special First National Attraction and a show that will please you.

Monday Night

The Altar Stairs

Frank Mayo and a good cast.

Tuesday Night

The dare-devil of the screen in the best he has made....

DO OR DARE

Wednesday Night

Lila Lee and Mark Holt in a scene from the Paramount picture "After the Show"—A William de Mille Production.

After the Show

Paramount Special

Thursday Night

Richard Barthlemess in

SONNY

Heart interest drama filled with self sacrifice and pathos, from the play by Geo. V. Hobart

One of the best shows Ever Screened