Alleged That One Participant Oiled Clothing and Applied Match

Nicholas Maisenka, 48, a miner at Vintondale, died at Memorial hospital at 9:45 o'clock Monday night from burns alleged to have resulted when Frank Waydak, another Vintondale miner, poured oil over Maisenka's body and applied a match during a drinking orgy staged in a miners shanty near Vintondale Sunday afternoon.

The burning which led to Maisenka's death is alleged to have been the finale of a moonshine party staged by a party of miners in a shanty at Vintondale Sunday. All are reported to have been drinking heavily. Woydak is alleged to have seized a can of oil and to have poured its contents over Maisenka's body. He is then said to have struck a match and ignited Maisenka's clothing. Several witnesses are said to be ready to testify to the effect.

The miner was severely burned. In a serious condition he was taken to the Memorial hospital, Johnstown about 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening. Efforts to save his life proved futile. He was burned, hospital authorities said, over every portion of the body and in addition was said to have breathed the oil fumes and the flames which enveloped his body.

Woydak was placed in the county jail at Ebensburg Tuesday and is being held without bail on a charge of murder preferred by County Detective John A. James.

ROSS SANNER

Announces candidacy for RECORDER OF DEEDS

Will have turned back to the taxpayers of the County, at the end of his first term, $21,000.00 over and above the entire salary list of those employed in this office, including the salary of the Recorder.

I will be glad to receive your support with the assurance that if re-elected I will give the office the same personal attention that brought about the above large returns for the county.

Altoona Speedway Will Open Sept. 3

ALTOONA—The world's fastest automobile race track will be opened here on Labor Day when fifteen of the most noted drivers will compete in a speed classic for $24,000 in purses.

The huge mile and a quarter board oval has been under construction for months by Jack Prince, builder of the Kansas City bowl and other famous board tracks. The small army of carpenters is all rush the work ready for preliminary trials a week before the race.

Officially sanctioned by the A. A. A. as the site for all future Labor Day competition, replacing the abandoned Uniontown track, the speedway will be the last word in scientific construction. One hundred and thirty two cars of clear pine will be used. The racing floor is being built of straight grain two by fours, laid on edge.

The site of the new speedway has been pronounced by Fred Wagner, starter in every championship auto race since the sport began, as the finest in the country. The bowl rises in the middle of a great level plain with parking space for thousands of cars inside and outside the structure. Transportation facilities will care for the crowds without congestion. The Pennsylvania railroad main line passes the gates. The William Penn highway, Horseshoe Trail and other improved roads lead directly to the site.

Provisions are being made for a crowd of between 60,000 and 70,000 persons at the opening event September 3. Two new grandstands are under construction, with additional seats for 10,000 persons. Ground for the event will follow.

Miners Denied Freedom Writs—

SOMERSET—Eight of the nine miners convicted in connection with the Jennerstown fatal shooting affray in which Mine Workers' organizer Nicholas Fonda was killed, started with Sheriff Frank Gallagher & Other railroad police were fired on from ambush, were denied writs of habeas corpus by Judge J. Wilmer Swank in Somerset county court. The petitions were presented by John A. Barbey, of Pittsburgh, counsel for the defendants. The petitioners were convicted of murder in the first degree before the jury.

Revaccination Program For School Pupils Mapped Out

Dr. W. F. Matthews, medical director of Cambria County, was notified by Dr. Charles H. Miner, secretary of the state health department, that the appointments of a number of physicians issued during the previous months throughout the county as official form became void.

Dr. Matthews has pointed out that all teachers will be required to see that every child under their care or demanding proper vaccination work to be conducted free of charge among the school children of the county who have undergone two unsuccessful attempts at vaccination against smallpox. The announcement further states that a child may soon make application for a certificate of exemption if the child cannot be vaccinated because of the child's physical condition, or if less than eight days after vaccination a vaccination scar or scars of less than 2 millimeters in diameter indicating a successful vaccination appear on the child. If the vaccinia is not in evidence on the physician cannot legally issue a certificate of exemption, and the child must be revaccinated.

It is also announced that teachers or pupils will not be allowed to enter the county school this fall. All the revaccination work will be conducted under the supervision of the state health department through the family physician or school medical inspectors exempting pupils from vaccination because of an alleged immunity. It is claimed that local physicians are very rare as a result of the state health department. Such cases must be passed upon by the county medical director or one of the deputies named.

All the revaccination work will be completed by the representative physicians named by Dr. Matthews and the state health department by June 1, at which time temporary certificates issued will be void and will be free of charge.

The Wise Parent

realizes the wisdom of beginning the musical training of his children early, and of having them trained by a special children's course adapted particularly to their minds and interests.
